"It Pulled Me Out of Trouble," Says Farmer Brantley

Says He Thought He Was All In, But Tanlac Has Brought Back Health and He's Gained 30 Pounds.

"I don't believe I would have ever gotten well again if it hadn't been for Tanlac," declares W. F. Brantley, a well-known farmer on R. F. D. out of Mayfield, Hancock County, Ga. "It pulled me out of trouble all right and I weigh thirty pounds more than I did before I started taking it."

"Stomach trouble and nervousness pulled me down so I was so weak in the back and knees I could hardly get about. Lots of times I was so run-down I couldn't get out of bed without my wife helping me up. I couldn't eat a thing that didn't sour on my stomach and give me no end of misery. I got so I didn't want to eat a bite and had no strength to go on at all, and kept losing strength all the time."

"A friend told me about Tanlac and I got a bottle and began on it, I hadn't finished the first bottle before I began to pick up and I've been on the mend ever since. Soon I got so I could hardly wait for breakfast I was so hungry. My pains have all gone and I am feeling better than I have in many a day. The fact is Tanlac has done wonders for me."

Tanlac is now sold in Sylva exclusively by the Sylva Pharmacy; in Erastus by M. L. Coggins and in Glenville by W. M. Fowler.

A BAR TO BOLSHEVISM—THE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Raleigh, Dec. 10—"The best antidote for Bolshevism is an educated Christian citizenship," declared Governor T. W. Bickett last Sunday afternoon in a big mass meeting in Charlotte in the interest of the Million Dollar Campaign for the Baptist Schools of the State.

Continuing, Governor Bickett said, "Ignorance is the mother of poverty, and the handmaiden of crime. Anarchy and socialism walk hand in hand. I want the men of means to let this speak for itself—close down either the churches or the schools, and your property will become to you a liability instead of an asset. In Russia today the naked fact that a man owns property makes him a mark for a firing squad."

Referring to the Million Dollar Campaign, the Governor said, "This million dollars will mean much to the State of North Carolina, and I do not know how I could at this time serve the State better than by urging the people to respond to this call in the same spirit of generosity and self-denial that has characterized their answer to every appeal made for the winning of the war."

"There is no room nor reason," the Governor averred, "for enmity between the State and Church school. It would be the acme of unwisdom for the State to undertake the work of the church schools. It would be the height of folly for the churches to assume the obligation to educate all the people. The two systems supplement each other and both are vital necessities to a well ordered, well balanced civilization. Training in the three R's reading, writing and arithmetic, is well, but the fourth R of Righteousness must be added to make a fine and firm foundation for a prosperous and happy State."

On account of the influenza situation in Greensboro, the Baptist State Convention, which was to have met there December 3-4, has been postponed till January 14-17, and the time limit for completing the million dollar drive for the Baptist schools has been extended to that time. The campaign is going at a good gait now. The munificent gift last week of $25,000 by the Albritton family, of Calypso, and the $10,000 gift of Hon. J. F. Alexander, of Forest City, and the many churches that are oversubscribing their allotments, have given a great impetus to the movement.

WALTER M. GILMORE,
Publicity Director.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

The Methodist church had as her guests, last Monday, the pastors and district stewards of the Waynesville District. The good ladies of the church treated their visitors to hot lunch and coffee, in the basement of the church, just prior to their meeting.

The Conference fixed the salary and traveling expenses of the Presiding Elder at $2,200 for the year. The salary was apportioned, in various amounts, among the twenty-four charges of the district.

It was decided to distribute the benevolences of the district among charges on a per centage basis of salaries assessed for their pastors last year.

There were quite a number of inspiring talks made during the conference. We presume that all went away well pleased with the meeting and the reception given them, for the body went on record favoring Sylva as a meeting place for next year.

Sylva will be glad to have them.

TAKE YOUR PART IN THE HOME SERVICE PROMISED OUR SOLDIERS

A Message to the People of Our Rural Districts

Our soldiers, freed from the prospect of service overseas, are still to spend weary months in camp. In the depressing waiting they will lose heart more easily than before when things go wrong at home. Red Cross Service to their families must continue—we are pledged it shall—as long as families are deprived of the support of soldier's presence.

Our task is peculiarly heavy because of the large rural districts our chapters cover. The worried soldier with a letter telling of sickness or trouble at home must often wait days until a Home Service worker can make a visit to a distant place, and write back that medicine or other relief has been given. Bad weather conditions will soon make almost impassable roads in many places.

We want to make plain to all people the opportunity Red Cross provides for kind neighborly interest in soldiers' families; how every patriotic person can be a link in the chain of service we give our enlisted men. A distress call may come to your Home Service worker at any time in reference to a soldier's family who live near you. You can become an active instead of an admiring member of this department of Red Cross. Telephone or write your Red Cross chapter that you are willing to visit a soldier's family at once if need arises in your immediate neighborhood.

If your chapter has no Home Service find out why not, and get others to help you push the inquiry until your community takes its proper part in the pledge that the soldier's family shall not suffer during his absence. Inform yourself also as to what benefits Home Service can help secure the returning, especially the wounded, soldier. Your neighbor may come back and not know. The Army depends on Home Service to instruct returning men about keeping up insurance, compensation, re-education and fitting back into industry.

It is your patriotic and neighborly duty to get in touch with your Home Service section. For further information address Joseph C. Logan, director civilian relief, Southern division, American Red Cross, Healey building, Atlanta, Ga.

She leaves her husband, father, mother, one brother and two sisters and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. She lived to be 33 years old and lived a Christian life 21 years. Her mother-in-law, Mrs. G. H. Keener, died at her home near Franklin four days later, on Sunday morning, December 8th with pneumonia. Franklin, Dec. 10, 1918.

J. W. Peck, Coraopolis, Pa., writes: "I suffered terrible pain; unable to lie down at night. Tried three different doctors. Three weeks ago began taking Foley Kidney Pills; improvement in my condition is really wonderful." Use Foley Kidney Pills for kidneys, bladder trouble, backache, rheumatism. MR. WEAVER IS WORKING FOR NEW HIGHWAY SYSTEM

Washington, Nov. 30.—Representative Zebulon Weaver is negotiating with the United States forest reserve looking to the establishment of a system of highways linking together the government reservations of Western North Carolina. The contemplated network of roads would establish easy communication between the Macon county lands at the head of the Cullasaja river, the Vanderbilt boundary, the Mitchell reservations and the lands at the head of Big Ivy creek.

A congressional act makes it optional with the forest service whether funds shall be contributed for such purposes. Representative Weaver will ask for sufficient appropriations to establish this chain of improved highways. He has already held one conference with the forest service and this will be followed up with a series of conferences next week.—Hustler.
