MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR ELSIE DILLARD

A beautiful service was held a he Baptist church, Sunday morn ing, in men ory of William Elsi Dillard, of Sylva, who gave his life in the service of his country in France last October. The church was decorated with bunting of the ri color over the windows, a large American fleg in the center of the church behird the pulpit, the flags of France and England at the sides of the rostrum and just over the pulpit was the flag that was presented to the Radio Company by the Girl's Club of Sylva at the time hat organization left for Camp Sevier in the summer of 1917. There was also a profusion of beautiful flowers.

The service was opened by the the pastor. The choir next sang cemetery at Beta, Monday. "The Call To Service" . after - which Rev. J. O. Fulibright read the Scrip ture lesson from the forty-sixth in Sylva and this community. Psalm. Mrs. W. C. Hill and Miss Lucie Luck sing "O, Morning Land:"

Floyd Harris, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Harris, of Sylva, ost his life by drowning in Scott's lreek, near the home of his father, Sunday afternoon. Floyd Harris and some other boys were bathing in the creek and were diving to the other side to get their clothing and the other boys had regained the bank when they missed young larris, turning in time to see him raise his hands above his head and sink. They made repeated efforts to locate him, by diving, but his body was soon discovered further down the creek. The boys recovered him and carried him to the bank where the assistance of medical men and others was summoned. All efforts to resusitate him were unavailing, though everything possible was done.

The funeral was conducted by choir singing "America The Beauti- Rev. W. N. Cook and the remains ul" followed by the invocation by were laid to rest in the Old Field Floyd was a strudy lad of excellent qualities and had many friends

SHERIFE TAKES STILL

C. C. Cowan, J. B. Ensley and J. C. Ingram were appointed a committee to have the school building over hauled, the walls calcimined and other work done to fit it for the coming session. The work on al the buildings will be underway in the next few days and will be rushe. to completion so as to have the new plant complete at the time of the opening of the fall session of the school. The school building proper will not be enlarged, until next summer.

Looking to the future when i will be necessary to erect other buildings, a committee was appointed to negotiate for additional property for the school from private owners of real estate on the hill.

Dr. A. E. Brown, Superintendent of the Mountain School System of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, was present at the meeting and express. el himself as being very muc! pleased with the work the school has has done in the past and as looking forward to a great future for the institution.

The Sylva Collegiate Institute has been a power for good in this com munity and section in the past, and with the plans that the Principal and Trustees have on foot for its enlargement, the people of Sylva are confident that its force and usefulness are just in their infancy.

JACKSON COUMTY UNION MEETING.

The Jackson County Union will meet with the Shoal Creek Baptist Church June 27-29. The program is as follows:

FRIDAY.

11 A. M., Sermon by Rev. J. O. Fullbright. Dinner at church.

1:30 P. M., Leaders and How to Train Them, Rev. R. N. Deitz.

2:30 P. M., Duty of Our Christian Parents to Our Christian Schools, Rev. R. W. Green.

in the side of the church next to vi in street will begin at once. The plan is to erect these new rooms for he use of the Sunday School and co-arrange them so that when ocremoved and the whole be opened into the main auditorium.

The Baptists intend to build a new church in the near future, and the present arrangement is an emergency measure to meet with immediate conditions. When the new church is erected it is intended to use the old building, with the new rooms, for the purposes of the Sunday School and the new building only for preaching services.

CHEROKEE SCHOOL CLOSES

The government industrial schoo for the Cherokee Indians closed a most successful term last Friday night. It is impossible to draw an idea of the advancement the Cherokees have made within the last few years without visting the reservation and it goes without contradiction. that Superintendent Henderson and Principal Instructor Harry M. Smith are the main forces behind this developement for the red men. It is stated with satisfaction that Superintendent Henderson is a native of Western North Carolina; coming from Haywood county Principal Instructor Smith comes from Indiana and is doing fine work at the school. He had eight years experience teaching in the Philippines and has been very successful with his methods on the Indian boys and girls.

Graduates of standard high schools may attend this Summer School and take three five-hour professional courses and and, after satisfactory examinations thereon, can receive by manuscript on the academic work, compliance with these conditions entitling them to a State Certificate. As defined by the State authorties, a Standard High School is one that has an eight or nine months' session, three teachers all doing high school work, and a four years' course approved by the State authorities. A graduate of such a school is expected to have done four years' work, representing fourteen units.

A representative of the State Board of Examiners and Institute conductors will be at the Summer School and will make clear all doubtful points about certificates. The regular examination, as provided by law, will be held the second Tuesday in July (July 8); and for the convenience of the greater number of the teachers, the examination will be conducted at Cullowhee.
