System of Swine Sanitation Put into Practice in McLean County Attracts Attention.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)
The system of swine sanitation worked out in the laboratories of the United States Department of Agriculture and first put into farm practice in McLean county, Illinois, is attracting the attention of many farmers elsewhere.

During the last 12 months the system was tried out in the experimental work in McLean county on nearly 10,000 pigs of both fall and spring litters. In August practically all the pigs were in remarkably thrifty condition, and the farmers are enthusiastic over the returns obtained from the little extra care and labor expended.

The Mercer County (Ill.) Farm bureau has announced that it will put a man to work lining up the members for a worm clean-up campaign similar to that put on in McLean county. The Institute of American Meat Packers has given special attention to the round-worm work in the report of its committee on animal diseases.

Briefly, the system consists in thorough cleaning of the farrowing pens, scrubbing the sows before they fire put into the clean pens, keeping the sows and litters strictly in the clean pens until they are hauled out to worm-free pastures, where they are kept away from contaminated hog lots until the pigs weigh 100 pounds, after which they are past the greatest danger from worm infection.

SHIPPING CRATE FOR SWINE

Department of Agriculture Has Worked Out Satisfactory Device—Made Cheaply.

The United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., has worked out a satisfactory type of shipping crate similar to that shown in the accompanying diagram, which can be made by anyone at a small expense. The size will have to be varied according to the size of the hog to be shipped and must be several inches longer and enough wider so that the hog can lie down. Care must be taken that the hog cannot get its legs fast in the lower cracks and that no nails project to injure the hog or those that handle the crates.

TO ERADICATE CATTLE LICE

Most Satisfactory Treatment Is Application of Raw Linseed Oil, Says Doctor Riley.

Application of raw linseed oil is the most satisfactory treatment for cattle infested with lice and other parasites, says Dr. W. A. Riley, chief of the division of entomology at University farm, at St. Paul, Minn. One pint of oil applied thoroughly with a brush or rag will do for four or five cows. The application should be especially thorough on upper parts of the neck along the back from the poll to the base of the tail, the shoulder tops, and about the folds of the udder and escutcheon, for it is in these places that the lice are the most abundant.

Doctor Riley says it is desirable in bad infestations to clip the hair for a width of three or four inches along the back from the head to the base of the tail. The treatment with oil should be repeated in about two weeks after the first application in order to kill the lice, which have hatched from the eggs. Thereafter it should be applied once a month during the winter. It is important to use raw linseed oil, and not the boiled linseed, for the latter may cause skin irritation.

Feed for Fall Pigs.

Care should be taken that pigs of fall litters are well supplied with skim milk or tankage, especially after weaning.

Blanket Heated Horses.
Don't fall to use a blanket when the horses become heated. It may save a veterinary bill.

Punctuality in Feeding.
Punctuality in feeding and watering stock keeps them from worrying or seeth by waiting for feed.

DYED HER BABY'S COAT, A SKIRT AND CURTAINS WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her old, worn, faded things new. Even if she has never dyed before, she can put a new, rich color into shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything. Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade or run.—Advertisement.

Mothers Ruin Babies' Health by Harsh Drugs

There are thousands of children and grown-ups whose health has been wrecked simply because they were given strong laxative cathartics when a baby.

Baby often needs something to clean out the little bowels of clogged waste, but for goodness sake give him a medicine made especially for a baby. Give him Teethina. It's perfectly harmless and yet brings quick relief without hurting the tender little intestines like the strong drugs you use for yourself do when given to the little folks.

Teethina is indorsed by physicians and has been used for fifty years. Get it at your druggist, or send 30c to the Moffett Laboratories, Columbus, Ga., for a package and the valuable Baby book.—Advertisement.

Experts.
Down in Pennsylvania a man decided to pull his own teeth.

They bury him—dead from blood-poisoning.

Ever ruin an article or botch a job by trying to do it yourself instead of summoning an expert? If you haven't you are an exceptionally wise or extraordinarily lucky person. This is an age of specialists.

An old locksmith, asked to itemize a bill, did it in this way: "To opening safe, $5. To knowing how to open it, $95."

The Honest Teacher.

Seven-year-old Johnny's mother had given him a handkerchief to give to his teacher as a Christmas present, but when Johnny was told about it he curled his lips in scorn and said: "Aw, mother, I don't want to give it to her. She won't let me do nothing. It's always Walter and William that get to do everything. Let them get her a handkerchief. I'll give it to Miss — (his last year's teacher). She's honest."

Nerves of Steel—

The successful man of today is clear-headed, self-reliant. His keen eye and steady hand result from abundant, self-controlled energy, and steady nerves.

Such a man can overcome difficulties because he is physically fit. Foolish habits of food and drink have no place in his scheme of things. When he finds that coffee disagrees he promptly changes to healthful POSTUM.

This pure cereal beverage is not only free from the health-disturbing drug element in coffee, but there's comfort and satisfaction in its delicious, full-bodied flavor.

You'll find Postum a factor for Health.

"There's a Reason"

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared, made by boiling fully 20 minutes.

Made by Postum Cereal Company, Inc. Battle Creek, Michigan.

SURELY WOULD HAVE TO GO WOULDNT PAY FOR MATCHES

Matter of Dismissal of Stenographer Simplified by "Insult" Conveyed in Unqualified Statement.

Mrs. Carter dropped in at the office for a few minutes' chat with her husband.

"John," she remarked, "I think you had better discharge that stenographer you have now. I am sure she is trying to flirt with you ever since she has been here."

Mrs. Carter, when she said this, thought the stenographer was safely out of hearing—but she wasn't! She stepped to the door of the private office and vented her indignation:

"Madam, I'll have you know that I wouldn't flirt with your old husband for a million dollars!"

Mrs. Carter was agast. "Now, John," she exclaimed, "you simply must discharge that girl! She has insulted you!"—Kansas City Star.

Scotsman Not Likely to Expend a "Bawbee" When He Could Walk to His Hotel.

A young Scotsman, shortly after his graduation from the University of Edinburgh, came to this country to teach. Thirty years later he revisited the country of his birth. On his return to his teaching post he was regaling some of his conferees with an account of his trip.

"One morning," related the professor, "as I was strolling along a street in Edinburgh, I stopped at a tobacconist's and bought some cigars. Finding myself out of matches I asked the clerk for some.

"'Ha'pence a box,' said he.

"'What! Why, in America when a man buys a cigar he is given a small package of matches.'

"'I'm sorry, sir, but they're ha'penny a box here.'

"'And, do you know,'" added the professor, "I had to walk back eight blocks to my hotel to get some matches."—Judge.

An irresistible impulse is one we yearn to follow.
