HAIR STAYS COMBED, GLOSSY

"Hair Groom" Keeps Hair Combed—Well-Groomed.

Millions Use It—Fine for Hair!—Not Sticky, Greasy or Smelly.
 Get a jar of "Hair-Groom" from any druggist for a few cents. Even stubborn, unruly or shampooed hair stays combed all day in any style you like. "Hair-Groom" is a dignified combing cream which gives that natural gloss and well-groomed effect to your hair—that final touch to good dress both in business and on social occasions. Greaseless, stainless "Hair-Groom" does not show on the hair because it is absorbed by the scalp, therefore your hair remains so soft and pliable and so natural that no one can possibly tell you used it.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble. Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

SEVERE PAINS AND SO WEAK

Florida Lady Says She Suffered Greatly, but Found That Cardui Helped Her, and She Got "Stout and Well."

Dady, Fla.—"For a long time I had trouble each month, and suffered a great deal, evidently some womanly weakness," says Mrs. E. E. Pagett, who resides here on Route 1. "I would have very severe pains down on each side and across my back, and feel so weak I would have to lie down, and then have a bad headache. "I knew there was trouble somewhere, and with all the doctoring I had done, I didn't get relief. Teas and such didn't reach my trouble, so I decided to take Cardui. "I found as the time came around, the pain was less, but I kept on till I took six bottles. I am stout and well...and give Cardui all the praise." Thousands of other women praise Cardui for beneficial results. Cardui is a mild, harmless, vegetable tonic medicine, found valuable in the treatment of many common womanly ailments. If you suffer as many women do, don't let your troubles run on without doing anything for yourself. Take Cardui! Since it has helped so many, Cardui may be of valuable assistance to you, in regaining your health.

LESSON FOR MARCH 4

JESUS TEACHING IN THE TEMPLE

LESSON TEXT—Luke 20:19-26; 21:1-4.
 GOLDEN TEXT—Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's and unto God the things which be God's.—Luke 20:25.
 REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 7:28-29; Isa. 28:14-29; Acts 4:7-2; Rom. 13:1-7.
 PRIMARY TOPIC—The Gift That Pleased Jesus.
 JUNIOR TOPIC—The Widow and Her Two Mites.
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus the Fearless Teacher.
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Answering His Opposers.

The popularity of Jesus after the triumphal entry greatly troubled the rulers of Israel. He met their wicked challenge as to his authority in such a skillful way as to place them under condemnation for their unbelief. This condition was accentuated by the parable of the householder.

1. The Question of Paying Tribute (20:19-26).
 1. Spies Sent to Entrap Jesus (v. 20). The rulers were too cowardly to do this themselves, so they employed underlings to do their mean work while they hid away. This diabolical method is employed today in political and religious life. Many times questions are raised under the guise of sincerity, when the real purpose is to do mischief.
 2. Wicked Flattery (v. 21). They complimented His truthful teaching, His impartiality and courage. They certified to His faithfulness even to that extent that He would face Caesar himself. This compliment was true, though insincerely given. Back of this flattery was the base purpose to destroy Jesus. Many today praise to the face in order to stab in the back.

3. The Cunning Question (vv. 22-26). "Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar or not?" At this time the Jews were galling under the yoke of the Roman government. To have answered this question either by "yes" or "no" would have involved difficulties. To have answered "yes" would have conveyed the impression of endorsing all that the Roman government did. To have answered, "no," would have at once brought him into conflict with the government. It is not always an easy matter for a Christian to determine his right relation to civil government.

Christ's reply to this question properly understood and applied is the final word on the subject. Until the civil authorities demand that which is a violation of God's law we are bound to render unto them obedience. Render unto Caesar the things due within the realm of the rights of government.

But while Christ's answer sets forth their duties, to civil authorities. He used the occasion to impress upon them the duties due to God. Render unto God the things that are God's. Man bears the image of God. Therefore he should honor and serve Him. Since he enjoys God's protection and care, it is his duty to own allegiance to Him, yield his life to Him in service, worship and praise. Everyone who enjoys the benefits of civil government is obliged to pay the taxes which are necessary for the support of that government, and everyone who receives God's favor is placed under a like obligation unto Him.

11. Jesus' Estimate of Gifts (21:1-4).
 1. Jesus Watching the People Giving (v. 1). He was greatly interested in observing the way the people cast their gifts into the treasury. Perhaps there is more vital index to one's character than the way he behaves before the Lord's treasury. Jesus sits over against every treasury and knows every dollar cast into it. He knows how the dollars come and how they go. No trickery can deceive Him. He not only knows this in the church, but He knows it in the business world.

2. The Rich Gave of Their Abundance (vv. 1-4). They, no doubt, gave much, but in proportion to what they had left their gifts were small. The size of the gift is not primarily to be measured by how much it is, but how much has the giver left.

3. A Widow Gave Two Mites (vv. 2-4). In value a mite was less than a cent. Though the two coins were of small value themselves, they represented her all—not merely her surplus, but her living. Let no one deceive himself by pretending to give the widow's mite, for to give the widow's mite means to give everything.

4. Jesus' Verdict (vv. 3-4). He declared that she had given more than they all. Jesus looks into the heart and estimates our gifts not by their size but by the motives prompting them.

Nervous Baby Cried Almost All the Time

Babies have nerves just the same as grown people, and sometimes a very slight ailment will make them fretful. They can only express their feeling by crying, which often becomes very distressing. Mrs. Ernest Compton, Route 1, Kennesaw, Ga., had such a baby, and says:
 "My baby was very nervous and restless and cried almost all the time till she was six months old. Then I began giving her Teethina and she is now as good and sweet-tempered as she can be."

Teethina not only relieves stomach and bowel troubles, but quiets the nerves without the use of opiates or other narcotic drugs.

IMPRESSING HIS BEST GIRL

Plumber Felt He Had a Right to Be Proud of His Important Family Connections.

He was quite evidently a plumber, and as he sat with his "best girl" back of the Woman upon the bus he explained that he had been working a little harder lately—the cold weather made them work harder in those buildings which were unheated and in which they were putting the plumbing. It was different in the summer, when the buildings were restfully cool.

And then the bus passed by the big "mansions" on the drive.

The plumber began to boast. Pride is so curious a thing. "My dad," he said, "had the contract to put in the plumbing in almost every swell house in this city. Yep," he continued boastfully, "he's got the finest lot of customers you'd ever find."

And the girl whispered happy and proud admiration of the splendid family into which she was about to marry.—Chicago Journal.

Why Farmers are Turning to for Economical Transportation

In 1922 Chevrolet jumped from seventh to second place in sales of all cars, and to first place in sales of fully equipped modern cars.

Purchases by farmers were the chief factor in this remarkable development.

Farmers want automobiles not only of low first price, but also of low later cost for operation and maintenance.

They want room, comfort, and the ability to stand up under hard conditions.

They find that Chevrolet, fully equipped as sold, is the best value per dollar in the low-priced field, and neighbors tell them it costs less per mile to operate.

COMPLIMENT THAT RANG TRUE

Little Indianapolis Newsboy Proved He Had His Share of the Wit of His Race.

She is one of Indianapolis' most agreeable and attractive young business women, who has fallen into the habit of bringing all sorts of presents to a little Irish newsboy who sells papers not far from the News office. The other evening she brought him a pair of warm gloves, and he racked his little Irish brain for suitable thanks for her.

And finally they came with a true Irish compliment. "Ladv," he said. "I'm glad the likes of you is an old maid. If you were married and your boys sold newspapers on this street, and beln' anything like yourself, the rest of us kids would have to go out of business."

The business woman says that was the best compliment she ever received.—Indianapolis News.

MERELY USED AS A PARABLE
 Individual Cited as Example of Carelessness Existed Only in the Imagination of Minister.

At the little church the minister, a colored man, announced that he regretted to state that a certain brother had retired to rest the night before without locking the door of his fowl house, and on rising in the morning had found that all his chickens had disappeared.
 "I don't want to be personal," he added, "but I hab my suspicions as to who stole dem chickens. I shall be glad if the man who took dem will not put any money in the box when it is passed round, and then I shall know if dose suspicions are right or not."
 Every one present contributed. "Now, breddern," announced the minister. "I don't want your disners spoilt by wonderin' where dat brudder lives who don't lock his chickens up at night. Dat brudder don't exist, wah friends; he was a parable for the purpose of finance."

Any one can live on love alone—for a few minutes.

Has your mealtime drink said "Pay up!"

A GOOD many people have had that message from coffee or tea after the drug, caffeine, has had its effect upon nerves or digestion.
 Frequently the message comes at night, when nerves won't quiet down and sleep won't come, after the dinner cup of coffee.
 There's no unfriendly after-notice from that good cereal beverage, Postum.
 Postum delights the taste, gives comfort and satisfaction, and is free from any possibility of harm to health.
 Try Postum with your meals for a few days and let the whole family, the children included, share in its appetizing, invigorating goodness. It will bring better nights and brighter mornings.
 Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully twenty minutes.
