JESUS TEACHING IN THE TEMPLE

LESSON TEXT-Luke 20:19-26; 21:1-4. GOLDEN TEXT-Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's and unto God the things which be God's .-Luke 20:25.

REFERENCE MATERIAL-Matt. 7:28-29; Isa. 23:14-20; Acts 4:7-22; Rom. 13:1-7. PRIMARY TOPIC-The Gift That Pleased Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC-The Widow and Her Two Mites.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC Jesus the Fearless Teacher. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC Jesus Answering His Opposers.

The popularity of Jesus after the triumphal entry greatly troubled the rulers of Israel. He met their wicked challenge as to his authority in such a skillful way as to place them under condemnation for their unbelief. This condition was accentuated by the parable of the householder.

I. The Question of Paying Tribute (20:19-26).

1. Spies Sent to Entrap Jesus (v. 20). The rulers were too cowardly to do this themselves, so they employed underlings to do their mean work while they hid away. This diabolical method is employed today in political and religious life. Many times questions are raised under the guise of sincerity, when the real purpose is to do mischief.

2. Wicked Flattery (v. 21). They complimented His truthful teaching, His impartiality and courage. They certified to His faithfulness even to that extent that He would face Caesar himself. This compliment was true. though insincerely given. Back of this flattery was the base purpose to destroy Jesus. Many today praise to the face in order to stab in the back. 3. The Cunning Question (vv. 22-26). "Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar or not?" At this time the Jews were galling under the yoke of the Roman government. To have answered this question either by "yes" or "no" would have involved difficulties. To have answered "yes," would have conveyed the impression of endorsing all that the Roman government did. To have answered, "no,"

Why Farmers are Turning to for Economical Transportation

In 1922 Chevrolet jump ad from seventh to second place in sales of all cars, and to first place in sales of fully equipped modern cars.

Purchases by farmers were the chief factor in this remarkable development.

Farmers want automobiles not only of low first price, but also of low later cost for operation and maintenance.

They want room, comfort, and the ability to stand up under hard conditions.

They find that Chevrolet, fully equipped as sold, is the best value per dollar in the low-priced field, and neighbors tell them it costs less per mile to operate.

Florida Lady Says She Suffered Greatly, but Found That Cardui Helped Her, and She Got "Stout and Weil."

Dady, Fla .- "For a long time I had trouble each month, and suffered a great deal, evidently some womanly weakness," says Mrs. E. E. Pagett, who resides here on Route 1. "I would have very severe pains down on each side and across my back, and feel so weak I would have to lie down, and then have a bad headache.

"I knew there was trouble samewhere, and with all the doctoring I had done, I didn't get relief. Teas and such didn't reach my trouble, so I decided to take Cardui.

"I found as the time came around, the pain was less, but I kept on till I took six bottles. I am stout and well .. and give Cardui all the praise."

Thousands of other women praise Cardui for beneficial results.

would have at once brought him into conflict with the government. It is not always an easy matter for a Christian to determine his right relation to civil government.

Christ's reply to this question properly understood and applied is the tinal word on the subject. Until the | civil authorities demand that which is a violation of God's law we are bound to render unto them obedience. Render unto Caesar the things due within the realm of the rights of government.

But while Christ's answer sets forth their duties to civil authorities. He used the occasion to impress upon them the duties due to God. Render unto God the things that are God's. Man bears the image of God. Therefore he should honor and serve Him. Since he enjoy's God's protection and care, it is his duty to own allegiance to Him, yield his life to Him in service, worship and praise. Everyone who enjoys the benefits of civil government is obliged to pay the taxes which are necessary for the support of that government, and everyone who receives God's favor is placed under a like obligation unto Him. II. Jesus' Estimate of Gifts (21:1-4).

1. Jesus Watching the People Giving (v. 1). He was greatly interested in observing the way the people cast their gifts into the treasury. Perhaps there is more vital index to one's character than the way he behaves before the Lord's treasury. Jesus sits over against every treasury and knows every dollar cast into it. He knows how the dollars come and how they go. No trickery can deceive Him. He not only knows this in the church, but He knows it in the business world. 2. The Rich Gave of Their Abundence (vv. 1-4). They, no doubt, gave much, but in propertion to what they had left their gifts were small. The size of the gift is not primarily, to be measured by how much it is, but how much has the giver left.

3. A Widow Gave Two Mites (vv. 2-4). In value a mite was less than a cent. Though the two coins were of small value themselves, they represented her all-not merely her surplus, but her living. Let no one deceive himself by pretending to give the widow's mite, for to give the widow's mite means to give everything.

4. Jesus' Verdict (vv. 3-4). He declared that she had given more than they all. Jesus looks into the heart and estimates our gifts not by their size but by the motives prompting them.
