Florida Discovered Again by Ponce de Leon

The 412th anniversary of the discovery of what is now Florida by Ponce de Leon on Easter day, 1512, was celebrated at St. Augustine April 4, 5 and 6 by an elaborate pageant. These photographs show Ponce de Leon and his standard bearers taking possession of the new land, and the man who represented the Spanish explorer.

Aged Sisters Get Together Again

After sixty-six years three sisters had a get-together in San Francisco when Mrs. Rebecca Guyer Marsh, eighty-three, and Mrs. Lucy B. Guyer Thomas, seventy-eight, went from the Yakima valley in Washington to San Francisco to call upon Mrs. Elizabeth Guyer Hyland, ninety-one, who had not seen her sisters since 1857, when she left the family home at Carroll Springs, O., for California.

RICH LAD IS A BUS BOY

Going to his daily labor as a "bus boy"—setting tables, fetching water, sweeping up the crumbs, etc.—Carl E. Bergson punches the time clock at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York. Yet Carl is the heir to a millionaire's fortune, and now lives on exclusive Madison avenue, having recently moved from the very hotel where he works—and where he lived in an $18 a day suite. Although only sixteen, he speaks excellent English and German, as well as Swedish. His father is a high officer in the Swedish army and his mother a well-known singer. When he has finished learning the hotel business, from bus boy to general manager, he'll go back to Sweden.

Church Members Object to Oil Wells

Members of the congregation of the little country church at Tonkawa, Okla., are up in arms against oil prospectors who have drilled wells in the yard of the church property, as pictured. The oil well operators assert their lease on the property permits them to drill wells in the churchyard and cemetery, and seek to have the courts sustain their claims. Members of the congregation are on guard at all times, and seek to prevent the operators from drilling. They have refused thousands of dollars offered for the property, which is one of the richest oil centers in the state of Oklahoma.

Mexican Soldiers Have Flag Rush

This photograph apparently shows a riot, but it is nothing more than a flag rushing contest between rival groups of Mexican soldiers at the recent presidential review in Mexico city. Plenty of action and no hard feelings, knives or the like, but clean sport.

SURE, HE CAN SHOOT

After decorating five army nurses with the Distinguished Service Medal, General Pershing was asked by a movie man to do a little shooting and he ground out a few feet of film registering the heroines he had just decorated.

Mercury Has a Fall. I was the president's stenographer and the oldest girl in the office, so was conscious of my dignity.

One day when we thought all the men were gone for a long lunch hour the girls began to amuse themselves by striking the poses of various statues.

Entering into the fun, I said, "I will be Mercury."

I stepped upon my chair, balanced myself nicely with one hand and one foot well up in the air like the breezy god, when the door opened and in walked our president.

At the scream of laughter that arose from the girls I turned quickly, the chair whirled with me, and I fell, wounding my dignity almost beyond recovery.—Chicago Tribune.
