SENIORS OF S. C. I. PICNIC

On Monday afternoon the Seniors of S. C. I. accompanied by Miss Ruth Black, the class sponsor, Miss Esther Kinney and Mr. J. C. Hough, donned their biking suits and set out for a picnic at the Dills Mine. On the way up, the party stopped at the Dills' residence, where they enjoyed immensely an abundant supply of apples and chestnuts. After a short rest the hike was resumed.

The girls and boys roamed the cave from one entrance to the other all the time making unearthly sounds which lent an exciting and ghost-like atmosphere. Pictures were taken of the whole crowd.

After a brisk walk through the forest, they returned to the cave and built a camp fire. A feast of roast "winnies", sandwiches and pickles was enjoyed. During the meal, jokes, ghost stories and incidents were told which helped the time to pass merrily. As dusk drew on the party returned home.

SCOTT-QUEEN

On last Tuesday morning, at nine-thirty, Miss Josephine Scott and Mr. Ben N. Queen were united in marriage, Rev. C. S. McClellan, rector of the Episcopal church performing the ceremony. The wedding taking place in the Episcopal Church.

The church was decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, the light of the altar candles adding beauty to the scene.

Miss Naucette Walker presided at the piano and preceding the entrance of the bridal party the "Bridal Chorus" from the "Rose Maiden" was sung by Messdames L. C. Hall, H. E. Buchanan, D. M. Hall, C. W. Denning, J. R. Buchanan, J. L. Dillard, E. L. McKee, C. C. Buchanan and Misses Lillie Everett, Mayme Long, Sue Zachary, Elizabeth Candler, Inez Sullivan and Lucy Wells.

Following the entrance of the ushers, Messrs. Chester Scott and Blaine Nicholson, Mr. Queen and his best man, Mr. Lewis Bungarner, entered. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Jane Coward, who was attired in brown and carried pink roses. Next came the bride, dressed in velvet brocade, with brown accessories, on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Frank Scott, who gave her in marriage. Her bouquet was of bride's roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Queen left immediately after the wedding for a short automobile trip, after which they will live in their home which is just being completed.

Mr. Queen is a prominent young business man of Sylva, being the proprietor of the Army Goods Store, here, and is popular among a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Queen is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, and by her sweetness of disposition and charm of manner has made many friends during her residence in Sylva, having come here, from Grand Rapids, Mich., four or five years ago.
