CABE BURNETTE

Just at twilight, at a little cottage along-side the Tuckasegee river, April 23 an affair occurred of great interest, to the people of this community, when Mrs. Lucy Cabe, young widow of the late Emanuel Cabe, became the bride of Cassius Burnette. The affair was carried out very quietly. Only a few relatives and most intimate friends were present.

The house decorations was Lilacs. The bride was beautiful in a rose-hued satin draped with Crepe de Chene.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles S. Pyle, pastor of the Webster M. E. churches.

After the ceremony a delicious slice of wedding cake was served to each guest.

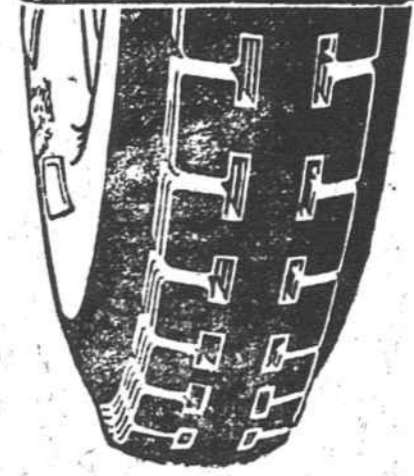

Some Civil War stories were also told by the bride's father. The stories were accompanied by instrumental music. Among those present were, Rev. and Mrs. Charles S. Pyle, Mr. Arthur Altman, Mrs. S. T. Bryson, Misses Ruth and Dixie Bryson. The couple will remain quietly at home. They have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy life.

Silvertown means—highest quality, low cost, long service, —and finally— Tremendous satisfaction. . . . .
