The Chamber of Commerce is giving a banquet to-morrow night, that is a banquet.

If you don't want to miss a good thing, cast your lot and your ten dollars in with the Chamber of Commerce.

Sylva still needs that flock of furniture factories.

Farmer or no farmer, we had a great time at the Farmers' chatauqua.

It looks as if it really Aint gonna rain no mo.

Another disadvantage of this drought is that there isn't enough water in the streams to catch a trout.

This growing habit of tardiness should be investigated by a senatorial committee. A negro in Georgia arrived at Millidgeville too late for his own electrocution.

"Jealous youth runs amuck and Kills Sweetheart, Alleged Rival, Detective, and Injures Another." He must have been peevish about something.

It's better to be crippled in the foot than in the head.

THE NATIONAL PARK INVESTMENT

If the area on the Smokies and Balsams, in which it is contemplated to establish a national park, should be used for lumbering operations, instead, the revenue to the Western North Carolina region would soon be exhausted. The mountains would soon be a desert place, unlovely to behold, and bringing in not a cent to the commonwealth or its people. The lumbermen would, if left to their own devices, soon gut it and leave it. They would naturally operate it with a view of making the greatest, quick returns in cash to themselves.

On the other hand, if it shall become a National Park, it would immediately bring in handsome returns to the people of this region, by furnishing labor, at fair wages, to large numbers of people. Not only that, but it would be a never-ending source of revenue to all the people of all East Tennessee and Western North Carolina. The cash coming in would increase every year, and there would be no diminishing of the raw material.

In other words, the question is, shall the lumber people use this area, for a few years, and leave it desolate, or shall it remain the thing of beauty which the Creator made it in the beginning?

If it is sold as lumber, it is soon dissipated, and gone from us and our children forever.

If it is sold as climate and beauty, the immediate returns will be as great, and they will increase year by year, as the population of the eastern centers increases, and there will be no diminishing of these commodities.

This paper has never been in favor of putting too much stress upon the tourist business, for the reason that we have held to industrialism, and have feared that the great industries of which our mountain region is susceptible might be forgotten as we strove more and more for the tourist business.

But, the tourist business is fast becoming, has already become one of the big businesses of the nation. If Western North Carolina is to go in for it, and we see no way to save ourselves, then let's go in on a big scale. If we can get established a great National Park in the Smoky Mountain area, we will have done a service for which all future generations will bless our names, and will, at the same time, have done something that will make this mountain region swarm with people for many months in the year.

The Florida boom will be insignificant as compared to the Western North Carolina boom. Real estate values will multiply themselves faster than we can count, in every town and county.

Every town and city will take on new life and new growth. Hotels will spring up over night at all the towns and country places surrounding the park, and Western North Carolina will begin to come into her own, with the coming of the hundreds of thousands that will swarm here every year.

It is too great an opportunity to let slip. Wake up, Western North Carolina, Wake up to the great thing that can happen in our mountains.
