THE SMOKY MOUNTAIN PARK.

(Words By Mrs. C. A. Bales, Tune Maryland, My Maryland—Sung by Mrs. E. L. McKee, Mrs. J. R. Buchanan, Mrs. J. L. Dillard, and Mrs. M. Buchanan, Jr., before the Woman's Study Club, of Sylva, Nov. 28, 1925)

Oh have you heard the glorious news
That's come to Western Caroline?
... we but wake and do our bit
With might and main in rain or shine,
Right here within our own domain,
We'll have a park of world wide fame,
A National Park of great renown
In our own happy hunting ground.

In Smoky's virgin forest depths
We've all the beauties heart could tsk,
We've all the beauties heart could ask,
And canyons deep without a path.
Not even the Red Man lingered here.
They've been explored by bear and deer,
But they have left the trees unscarred,
The beautiful carpet all unmarred.

The wildbirds flit, the boughs among,
And lute in limpid pools so deep,
The wild flowers blossom on the cliffs
Over which the crystal waters leap.
Shall all this beauty be spoiled;
The trees be felled, the clear streams soiled,
The wild life driven from the place,
And nothing left but desert waste?

Oh spruces lift your plummy heads!
Oh hemlocks rear your crests on high!
We'll save you from the woodman's saw
We cannot, will not let you die—
Our children's children yet unborn
Will walk your verdant aisles among,
And listening to the cateracts voices,
Behold your beauty and rejoice.

Say it with pledges.
"Reuben, Reuben, we've been thinking".
Shall the evergreen balsams be ever green?

A Park pledge is not a donation but an investment.
Santa Claus will bring us a Park, this Christmas.

A $325,000.00 High Hampton isn't as high as it will be The age of progress has hit Jackson county right in the middle.

"I'm going to do all I can to secure the Park."
Billy Davis.

The Park is the greatest forward step we can make"
M. Y. Jarret.

By the way, that Christmas shopping here and keep the money at home.

Twenty thousand invested now may mean many millions to Jackson county, later.

Jackson's $20 000.00 for the Park will be forthcoming, and what a happy Christmas it will be.

A paving program would do a great deal to make Sylva the leading town of the mountains.

The Park matter is now quietly up to the people. If they want it, all they have to do is to sign on the dotted line.

Hendersonville and Henderson county can be depended upon to always be there with the goods, when progress calls.

Did you ever know Jackson county to decide to do a thing that wasn't accomplished? The $20,000.00 for the Park will be raised.

"One reason I want the Park is because it will make money for me and for every property owner in Jackson county."—M. Buchanan, Sr.

"The Armour interests that I represent have never opposed any progressive move in this county; I am for the Park because it means so much to the future of Western North Carolina."—E. L. McKee.

Western North Carolina will present the Nation, magnificent Christmas trees, upon a thousand hills, and they will raise their heads heavenward a thousand Christmases hence, to the glory of their Creator.

Of course politics stops at the water's edge, or the three mile limit, at most; but one naturally wonders if there could possibly be any connection between the difference in terms secured by debtor nations and the difference in the number of voters born in different nations

SWAIN ARRIVES.

Three days before the drive for funds for the purchase of the lands for the Smoky Mountain National Park had officially opened. Swain county over subscribed its quota of $25,000.00 and was wiring to the campaign headquarters in Asheville for more pledge cards.

First over the top was Swain, and is advancing far beyond the objective.
That's the spirit that win battles and builds empires.
Hat's off to Swain, everybody.

A matter of high importance to the people of Jackson county and of this part of the state is that the conereting of the roads from Sylva to Balsam and from Dillsboro to Franklin shall be completed and the roads opened before the tourist season begins, next summer. If the roads are not opened before then, every day will cost the people of this region much money. If they are blocked, this region will be shut in and the boom days that are striking the mountains will pass us by. We have confidence in the highway authorities to believe that they realize the vital importance to our people of this matter, and that they will see to it that we do not suffer.

Better Blades

Winchester pocket knives really have better blades. They are made of a special steel, which science and everyday experience have proven the best for pocket knife blades.

If you want a knife that will hold a lasting keen edge, and give good service, get a Winchester.

Come in and let us show you the different styles and how handsomely they are finished.

Small, light, pearl handled patterns to carry in the vest pocket. An ideal gift ..... $2.50 to $3.50

A neat, lightweight jack knife with ebony handle.
Others with stag handles. .... $1.00 to $2.25

Designed specially for cattlemen. Has clip, punch and spey blades. Stage handle ..... $2.25

A variety of styles and blade arrangements with beautiful fire pearl handles. .... $1.00 to $2.00
