MRS. COWAN IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. J. Donald Cowan delightfully entertained the woman's Study Club, on Thursday afternoon of last week. This proved to be a very interesting meeting, with an unusually large number present. Several business matters were discussed and disposed of. Mrs. E. L. McKee was appointed to represent the club in the Stone Mountain Memorial Coin Drive. The program for the afternoon was Hugh Walpole's "The Old Ladies". The book was outlined and discussed in a very pleasing way by Mrs. J. L. Dillard. Mrs. Charles L. Allison gave a sketch of Walpole's life, with comments and criticisms from contemporary writers. Mrs. Allison's paper was very interesting.

Mrs. Cowan, assisted by Mrs. M. D. Cowan and Mrs. Ellen Picklesimer served a delicious salad course. The favors were tiny shamrocks, which with the green and white color scheme were suggestive of St. Patrick's Day.

CLUB MEETING IS POSTPONED

The regular meeting of the Twentieth Century Club, which was to have been held with Mrs. W. A. McNeill, on last Thursday, was postponed, because of the death of Mr. J. Q. Barker, the father of Mrs. C. C. Buchanan, who is president of the club.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY HOLDS MEETING

The Methodist Woman's Missionary Society met, Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. A. S. Nichols. The spacious living room was crowded to its capacity, there being about thirty members present.

The plans for the Easter Bazaar were completed and committees appointed to handle all the details. The bazaar will be held in the building formerly occupied by the picture show.

Plans were also made for giving the children of the primary department of the Sunday School an egg hunt.

The subject of the lesson for the afternoon was "Japanese Missions and Immigration." Mrs. A. O. Allison was leader. She announced for discussion the question "What is the Effect of the Recent Immigration on the Christian Movement in Japan?" Mrs. Annie Toepkins, Mrs. W. H. Rhodes and Mrs. Billy P. read interesting papers dealing with various phases of the question. Mr. Graham, of Concord, and Mrs. M. Norton were guests of the society. Mrs. Nichols served a dainty course of sweets, during the social hour.

MRS. GEORGE HOYLE DIES

Mrs. George Hoyle, wife of George Hoyle, Webster citizen, died at her home there, last week, following an illness of several months.

The funeral was conducted by A. C. Queen, and interment was at Willets, where Mrs. Hoyle formerly lived. She is survived by her husband and several children.
