$2.00 the Year in Advance Outside County

NICHOLSON, WILSON, ALLEY ARE NOMINATED—SUTTON, DILLARD, BROWN LEAD—SECOND PRIMARY UNLIKELY

There were but three nominations in the Democratic primary, in Jackson county, Saturday, if second primaries are called by the runners-up in the races for Commissioner of Welfare, Commissioner of Highways and Sheriff. It is thought unlikely that a second race will be had, though it can be called within the time prescribed by law.

Raymond R. Nicholson, register of deeds, received a majority of 315 over Burder B. Long.

Ernest L. Wilson's majority over John M. Watson, for commissioner of finance was 188.

Felix E. Alley, Jr., defeated J. J. Hooker by 774 majority.

Sheriff Sutton, with a vote of 1201 has a lead of 583 over C. C. Mason, his nearest opponent; but is 267 votes short of a majority.

T. A. Dillard has a lead of 86 over John C. Allman, but is 141 short of a majority.

John Candler Brown's lead over G. T. Cooper, for commissioner of welfare, is 311, and is 215 short of a majority.

The official tabulation is not completed, as Balsam and Hamburg precincts have not turned in their official reports; and these figures and those appearing in the tabulation on this page, while not official, for the reason stated, are approximately correct.

WALTER E. MOORE LEADS IN JUDGE'S RACE.

Walter E. Moore, of Sylva, is the leading candidate for judge of the superior court, by approximately 32 votes, according to the best information obtained by the Journal, with J. D. Mallonee the second man, and Col. W. J. Hannah within 200 votes of the highest.

The vote stands:

	Moore	Mallonee
Swain	320	605
Macon	69	480
Cherokee	84	1098
Clay	13	886
Haywood	1551	879
Jackson	1958	375
Graham	20	160
Total	4015	3983

Judge Thad D. Bryson has resigned effective July first, and it is understood that Governor McLean will appoint the nominee of this primary as his successor, pending the general election in November. It is not believed that a second primary will be called, and Mr. Moore will probably receive his appointment this month, and begin his duties on the bench, July 1st.

WEAVER NOMINATED

Reports from various parts of the district indicate that Congressman Weaver has been renominated by a majority around 10,000 votes.

Felix E. Alley, carried his native county of Jackson by a majority of 547, in Saturday's primary.

OVERMAN DEFEATS REYNOLDS

With a lead of more than 30,000 in the state, Senator Overman's renomination over Robert R. Reynolds, is assured, although many of the Western counties gave Reynolds handsome majorities. In this county the Reynolds majority was 1018.

Asheville Citizen, June 7.

Miss Willa Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clayton, who was graduated at the Asheville High school Friday, became the bride of Lawrence Brown, candidate for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Buncombe county, yesterday morning after early returns had given Mr. Brown a lead over his opponent in the race.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives at the Western Hotel, which is operated by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, by the Rev. Wayne Williams, of the Black Mountain Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Central and Eastern North Carolina. Upon their return they will make their home in Asheville.

Miss Clayton during her years at the high school was an accomplished student and was graduated with honors. She has made her residence in Asheville for the past seven years.

Mr. Brown is a native of Black Mountain and up until a few months ago was a deputy sheriff here. Recently he announced his candidacy for the office of sheriff in this county and unofficial returns gave him a comfortable lead over his opponent in the race yesterday.

Funeral of Z. B. Alley Held Yesterday

The funeral of Zeb B. Alley, victim of an automobile accident, early Sunday morning, was held in the Whiteside Cove, yesterday, services being conducted by Rev. W. C. Medford, assisted by Rev. W. T. Hawkins and Rev. Frank Bumgarner. A large crowd of friends of the Alley family, from every section of Western North Carolina, was present to pay their respects.

Mr. Alley, a brother of Felix E. Alley, was a member of one of the oldest families of Jackson county, and a son of the late Col. Alley. He is survived by his widow, one son, Doyle D. Alley, of Sylva, and four daughters, Mrs. Frank C. Morrison, of Sylva, Mrs. Smithson, of Asheville, Mrs. Dunn, of Washington, and Mrs. Chacee, of Hattysville, Md., three brothers, Felix E. Alley, of Waynesville, John Alley, of Cullowhee, and James Alley, of South Carolina, and one sister, Mrs. H. B. Picklesimer, of Whiteside Cove, and a large number of other relatives.

Mr. Alley lost his life when the car, in which he and Henry Moss were driving from Cashier's Valley to Sylva, was overturned near Silas Davis place, between Sylva and Cullowhee, about two o'clock Sunday morning.

Doyle Alley and Kay Bumgarner had left Cashier's at about the same time as Mr. Alley and Mr. Moss, and after they had been here some time, Doyle Alley became uneasy about his father and went in search of the missing car, finding it overturned, and both occupants injured. He brought his father to Sylva, to a physician, but life had gone before he arrived here. Friends went in search of Moss and brought him to Sylva, where he is recovering, under care of a physician.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION NEWS

Jackson County Poultry Association met in regular monthly session Friday night, the 4th, with a splendid attendance.

Matters of general interest and of special importance to the Association were discussed, and the officers will be in position at once to advise members as to prices and methods of marketing. It was announced that State Poultry Expert Oliver will spend a week here in September, completing plans for a county chick hatchery. A hatchery will mean more to Jackson than many persons are aware, and we feel sure that the combined efforts of the state, thru Mr. Tillson, and of our club, through every member, will meet with success right away.

With the high type of membership the club has to build upon and with the several advantages membership offers, we insist that all persons interested in chickens to any extent at all, join up with us at once. Please do not wait until the poultry show or worse still, until next spring, but send or hand to either of the undersigned, one dollar, which pays all dues to the first day of next January. In order to make the proposition involving this dollar still more interesting, we will give you twelve months subscription to a big, first class poultry magazine, and if you already take one we will give you another, or year's extension to the one you have.

Education in the many branches and in all the details of poultry may be had from the pages of a good poultry journal. It will be a favor to the association, and will work the county at large a good turn, if you will join, and get several others to do likewise.

There will be published, shortly, full plans of the December show which we feel sure is going to be a success and a real entertainment for the public at large. It was decided at last Friday's meeting that all breeds and varieties of poultry would be accepted for exhibition, and that entries would be accepted up to nine o'clock of the day of the show. These statements will correct these points, which appeared differently in a former announcement.

All members are requested to keep financial records, as nearly accurate as possible, from baby chicks upward for the general enlightenment and good of the industry in the county.

The next meeting will be held at Cullowhee, on the first Friday night in July, and everyone whether a poultryman or not, is invited and will be welcome.

R. C. Allison, Pres.
B. H. Cathey, Sec'y.
