Published Weekly By the JACKSON COUNTY JOURNAL CO.

Entered as second class matter at Sylva, N. C.

The only trouble with the budget is that you can't budget it.

The solid South is real soft as compared to the Solid West, when it comes to that Park issue.

We had hopes for 1927; but the politicians and financiers are busy predicting that the country will enjoy the same brand of prosperity through the New Year that it has during 1926.

The Hendersonville News suggests that we all resolve today to pay all our debts. If resolutions would pay 'em, we wouldn't owe a cent.

No matter how much talk there is about it, during the year, 1927 won't produce a national democratic convention.

Swain county has decided to again put on the farm agent work. If that county is fortunate in getting as good man for the job as Jackson has in C. W. Tilson, the work will never again be discontinued.

During the past two weeks, the busiest, or one of the busiest places in Jackson county, has been the Sylva post office; and Postmaster Warren and his assistants are to be commended upon the efficient manner in which they handled the large volume of holiday business.

Governor McLean told the general assembly that thirty million dollars is all that is needed for the highway work in the state during the next two years. Of course, we are to understand that includes concrete from Sylva to the Cullowhee State Normal School, Mr. McLean?

The commissioners of Jackson county are to be commended upon their action in voting to cooperate with the state in employing a public health nurse for Jackson county. The health of the people and the welfare of its women and children is a matter of paramount importance to the county.

The Governor failed to make mention of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, in his message to the general assembly. Surely he will present this highly important matter in a special message. A man who is big enough to be seriously mentioned for the presidency of the United States, of course, can see the importance of this big matter, and has a vision broad enough to reach from Robeson county to as far west as the borders of his own state.

HOLIDAY PARTIES

A number of parties enlivened the holiday season here. Among the first was a Christmas tree party, given by Mrs. Walter L. Jones to members of the P. D. K., on the evening of the twentieth of December, a lovely Christmas tree, with a gift for each member of the Klan being an enjoyable feature of the occasion.

On Wednesday evening of last week Misses Ruth Oliver and Irene Cathey entertained with a card and dancing party at the home of Miss Cathey.

On Thursday evening Miss Isabelle Allison was hostess at a dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hall on Courtland Heights, a large number of guests enjoying the occasion.

Tonight Miss Katherine McKee is entertaining the members of the P. D. K. at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Carrie McKee, the young ladies having been invited to spend the night with Miss McKee.

On Monday evening of last week Mrs. Jeff Hedden was hostess at a dinner party, having as guests Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, Miss Ora Killian, of Hayesville, Miss Blonde Crawford, Mr. Garland Jones, of Brevard and Mr. Donald Allison of Chamblee, Ga.

Another lovely party of the holidays was that given by Mrs. E. Ford King and Mrs. W. A. McNeill at Mrs. King's home at which time six tables were arranged for bridge.

Little Miss Anne Stedman Enloe was hostess to a number of small friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Enloe, last Saturday afternoon in celebration of her birthday. In addition to the children, Mrs. F. E. Parker was a guest at the party.
