

Lyric Theatre

PROGRAM

FRIDAY and SATURDAY,
JAN. 7-8
"BORN TO THE WEST"
Comedy and News

MONDAY and TUESDAY,
JAN. 10-11
Colleen Moore in
"CLASSIFIED"
Comedy and News

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 12th.
"THE TORRENT"
Comedy and News

THURSDAY, JAN. 13th.
Buffalo Bill, Jr. in "THE BANAZA BUCK-AROO"

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
JAN. 14 and 15
"THE WANDERER"

Personals

Mr. J. D. Cowan has been ill at his home here for several days.

Mr. T. J. Powers of Olean, N. Y. was a business visitor here last week.

Mrs. Baxter Hooper of Tuckaseegee is in the Angel Hospital in Franklin for treatment.

Mrs. Fannie Elmore has returned to Addie after a week's visit with Mrs. Dolph Patterson at Bryson City.

Mr. W. M. Brown and Mr. Walter Jones are spending several days in Dillon, S. C., on business.

Miss Sue Johnson, of Arden has returned to her post as a teacher in the Sylva Graded School.

Miss Mary Sue Hemhill has returned from Marion where she spent the holidays with relatives.

Miss Eva Johnson, who spent the holidays with her parents at Franklin, Tenn. has returned.

Miss Barbara Haire has returned from Johnson City, Tenn., where she spent the holidays.

Misses Irene Oliver and Hicks Wilson went to Greensboro this week to resume their studies at N. C. C. W.

Mrs. Carrie McKee accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Alex Kizer, to Brevard Saturday for a month's visit.

Miss Tully Borden has resumed her duties at County Supervisor of Schools after having spent the holidays at her home in Alabama.

Miss Olive Coward has returned to Fruitland Institute, where she is a student.

Mr. Garland Jones has returned to Brevard after spending the holidays with relatives here.

Mr. Sayre Mooge has returned to Burnsville after a visit to friends here.

Miss Blanche Collins left Sunday for Advance to take up her work as teacher in the school at that place.

Mr. Lewis Bumgarner has returned from Franklin where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Rufus Deitz is a patient in the Angel Hospital at Franklin, having recently undergone an appendicitis operation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Allison have returned from Atlanta where they were guests of relatives for a few days.

Mr. A. O. Allison returned Sunday from a pleasure and sightseeing trip, which included New Haven, Conn., Washington, D. C. and New York City. While in New Haven Mr. Allison attended the convention of the sales forces of the Winchester-Simmons Company.

Misses Lyda and Elizabeth Moody have returned from Greenville, S. C. where they were guests of friends for a few days.

Miss Bessie Lee Moss, who was a guest of friends here during the holidays returned to Mt. Gilead where she is teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Penland of Hayesville are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Roy C. Allison at her home on College Hill.

Misses Lazelle Henson, Elizabeth Moody and Sue Allison have returned to Cullowhee where they are students in Cullowhee Normal.

Mr. J. U. Gibbs, principal of the graded school has returned from Whittier where he spent the holidays with his family.

Miss Verna DeBord, teacher of the second grade in the graded school has returned from Whittier, where she spent the holidays.

Miss Leah Nichols and Miss Mary Enloe have returned to Gainesville, Ga., to resume studies in Brenau College.

Misses Ozelle Bible and Maxie Denton have returned from Jefferson City, Tenn., and have resumed their work as teachers in Sylva Collegiate Institute.

Mr. M. G. Roberts, who spent the holidays at his home in Newport, Tenn., has returned to Sylva Collegiate Institute, where he is a teacher.

Misses Mattie Bell Jones and Agnes Brown have returned to their posts of duty as teachers in Sylva Collegiate Institute, Having spent the holidays at their homes in West Asheville.

Mrs. Zollie Brown and Miss Edna Lively have returned to Asheville after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ensley and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ensley.

Miss Louise Henson of Cullowhee has returned to N. C. C. W. at Greensboro after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Henson.

Mrs. R. U. Sutton, Misses Irene Rice, Louise Smith, Zadah Ashe and Mary Allison have gone to Glenville to resume their work as teachers in the school there.

Misses Lora Dills and Edith Buchanan left the first of the week for Raleigh to resume their studies at Meredith College.

Mr. Donald Allison has returned to his home in Chamblee, Ga., after having been the guest for several days in the homes of his uncles, Messrs. A. O. and R. C. Allison.

Messrs. Earl Higdon, Raleigh and Jack Warren and Henry McKee have returned to the Farm School, Asheville after spending the holidays at their homes here.

Mr. L. W. Stebbins and Mr. William Zufall who have been here on business in connection with the Sylva Tanning Company, returned to Chicago the first of the week.

Mrs. Charles L. Palmer and daughter, Charlotte, and Mrs. Verona Daniels of Asheville were guests last Saturday of Mrs. John R. Jones at her home here.

Miss Alice Harrold who spent the holidays at her home in Waynesville has resumed her work as teacher in the Central High School here.

Miss Katharine Kennerly of the Central High School faculty, has returned from Newberry, S. C., where she spent the holidays.

Miss Helen Maywood, teacher of domestic science in the Central High School, has returned from her home in Jacksonville, Fla., to resume her duties.

Miss Fay Boggs has returned from Statesville where she has been spending the holidays to resume her work as a teacher in the Central High School.

Mrs. E. E. Bain, Jr., and daughter, Betty, who have been guests of Mrs. Bain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keener, left today for their home in Greensboro.

Miss Nellie Cowan who has been spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cowan, has returned to Greensboro, where she is a student in Greensboro College for Women.

Dr. O. D. Biddy returned home Wednesday after spending the Christmas holidays with relatives near Lake Lure.

Miss Ora Killian, who has been visiting Mrs. Walter Jones at her home here has returned to her home in Hayesville.

Miss Jane Coward and Miss Dorothy Williams who have been spending the holidays in Plymouth, have returned.

Mrs. Annie Tompkins and Mr. Dan Tompkins have returned from Augusta, Ga., where they spent a week with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hale have returned from points in eastern Carolina, where they have been spending ten days with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tilson have returned from Sanford, Fla., where they spent the holidays with relatives.

Miss Gertrude Allison and her brother, Burch Allison, recently spent several days in Asheville with their sister, Miss Jessie Allison.

Mrs. J. A. Fincannon had as guests during the holidays, Mrs. W. C. Morrow and daughters, Wilmavive and Jann, of Andrews.

Rev. Paul Shepherd of Dayton, Va., was a guest during the past week in the home of Mrs. Geneva Rector.

Mr. W. R. Sherrill is recovering from a recent operation at the Angel hospital, in Franklin. Mrs. Sherrill has been in Franklin with her husband for several days.

Mr. Billy Davis, cashier of the Tuckaseegee Bank has been confined to his home since Christmas day, suffering with affection of his tonsils and ear.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB TO MEET

The Twentieth Century Club will meet on Thursday of next week, January 13th, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with Miss Margaret Candler at her home on Main street.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TUESDAY

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will meet next Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, Mrs. M. Buchanan, Jr., being hostess.

JOHN RIGDON IMPROVED

John Rigdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rigdon, who lost the sight of one eye, and underwent a serious operation, as the result of shooting fire crackers, during the holidays, is said to be improving and it is believed that the sight of the other eye will not be permanently impaired.

WILSON-OVERSTREET

On the eve of the New Year, Miss Harriett Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Wilson and Mr. Robert Overstreet were united in marriage at the Methodist church here, church, officiating. Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held, at the home of the bride's parents, only close relatives being present. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Overstreet left for Asheville, later going to Bedford, Va., the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Overstreet, parents of the groom.

Mrs. Overstreet is a young girl of lovable disposition, popular in a large circle of friends. Mr. Overstreet who has spent several months here, has made a number of friends during his stay.

ALLISON-MORRIS

A wedding of more than usual interest was that which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Buchanan on Christmas Eve, when Miss Ruth Allison and Mr. John Morris were united by Rev. W. M. Robins, pastor of the Methodist church. Witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buchanan and Mrs. Sadie J. Long. Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Morris left for Kenilworth Inn, Asheville, where they spent several days.

Mrs. Morris is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Eugenia Allison of Webster, and has won wide popularity by her charming personality. She is a graduate of the North Carolina College for Women and is, at present, principal of the Webster High School.

Mr. Morris, the younger son of Mrs. Mary Morris, is a prominent young business man of Sylva, having succeeded his father, the late Hanley M. Morris in the mercantile business of The Morris Company.

COAL

The prices of coal are coming down at the mines and we are reducing our prices accordingly, in order to give our people the benefit of every price reduction.

We buy only the best coal, and are now selling at $8.50

Per Ton

delivered in the city limits of Sylva and Dillsboro.

We keep our prices right.

Builders' Supply & Lumber Co.

J. C. Allison, Manager

Announcement

I have secured the associate agency for the Chevrolet car in Sylva, and have taken over the Jackson Chevrolet Company's filling station and garage, on Main street, at the Scott's Creek bridge, where Highways 106 and 10 meet.

We will have our Chevrolet Sales Rooms, and will conduct a filling station and garage. I am sure that having secured Mr. S. T. McGinnis as chief mechanic, assures the people of the very best repair service on all makes of automobiles.

Our terms will be cash upon completion of the work.

I will appreciate your business.

Jackson Chevrolet Co.

N. DON DAVIS, Salesman