

Lyric Theatre

PROGRAM

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
March 18 and 19
DOROTHY GISH
in
NELL GWYNN

MONDAY & TUESDAY
March 21 and 22
"THE DESERT FLOWER"

WED. & THURSDAY
March 23 and 24
"THE TOWER OF LIES"

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
March 25 and 26
Douglas McLean in
"HOLD THAT LION"

Comedy and News Reel Each Night.

Personals

Mrs. A. O. Allison is taking treatment in a Franklin hospital.

Mrs. Sadie J. Long and Mr. Robert Long are here from Robbinsville today.

Mr. A. M. Simons is spending several days this week in the markets, buying goods for the Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Dillard have returned to their home at Beta from Bluff, where Mr. Dillard has been teaching.

Mrs. Lou Deitz has returned to her home in Weaverville after a week's visit to her husband's parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Deitz at Beta.

Mr. J. W. Keener and Mr. Geo. M. Cole have returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where they spent a few days, on business.

Mrs. Guy McClure has recently undergone an operation in Franklin hospital.

Mr. C. B. Medford, of the Medford Furniture Company, of Canton, was here this week.

Mrs. M. Buchana, Jr. returned today from Franklin, where she has had surgical treatment in the Angel Hospital.

Mr. W. A. Wiggins, who has been spending several months in Greenville, returned to his home in Gastonia, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ensley and Mr. George Painter have returned from Florida. While there they were guests of Mr. Ensley's daughter, Mrs. A. W. Oakes, and Mr. Oakes, in Winter Haven.

Misses Addie and Sadie Luck who have been visiting friends and relatives in Augusta, Ga., have returned to their home here.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Robbins visited members of their congregation who are patients in the Angel Hospital, Franklin, today.

Miss Ruby Moody, of Knoxville, Tenn., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ernest Keener at her home here.

Miss Alma Kinney of High Shoals is spending some time here with her sister, Mrs. E. P. Stillwell and Mr. Stillwell.

Mr. C. M. Dicus of the firm of Dicus Brothers of Waynesville who are building the Stecoah road was in our town Monday, accompanied by Mr. Frank H. Weller, Civil Engineer.—Graham County News.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Grindstaff and Miss Mae Bailey returned Monday to Penland after spending the week end with relatives and friends here and at Franklin.

Mrs. J. W. Keener, Mrs. D. D. Hooper, Miss Annie Joe Hooper, little Miss Kathleen Hooper, Mrs. Ernest Keener and little Jimmie Keener spent Monday in Waynesville and Asheville.

Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Newman of Cullowhee were week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Adams.—Cherokee Scout

The condition of Mrs. M. V. Dorsey who has been critically ill in Asheville hospital for some time, is reported unchanged. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.—Canton Enterprise.

Miss Blonde Crawford who has been at Sylva with her sister has returned home.—Clay County News.

Miss Sue Allison spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allison from Cullowhee State Normal.

Miss Bessie Snyder, who is attending school at Mars Hill College, spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Snyder at Beta. She was accompanied by Misses Louise Griffin, Hazel Smith and Elizabeth Cox, who are also students at Mars Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ensley visited Mr. and Mrs. John Ashe and Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Ensley in Jackson county, during the week end.—Attorney F. Eugene Alley, Jr., of Sylva, spent this week in town attending to business and was the guest of his parents, on Boyd avenue.—Waynesville Mountaineer.

Miss Daisy Franklin was down from Cullowhee and spent the week end at home—Miss Margery Shuler left Monday for Cullowhee, she will take Teachers' training course for the next three months—Miss Robinetta Jervis of Almond spent Saturday in town shopping. Miss Jarvis left for Cullowhee on Monday to study for several months.—Bryson City Times.

HAS SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Floyd Askey invited a number of young people to a surprise party, celebrating the twelfth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Wenonah. Numerous games were enjoyed throughout the afternoon and many lovely gifts were received by the young lady. Those enjoying the occasion were Helen Allison, Nimmo Geisler, Margaret Wilson, Willa Mae Dills, Phyllis McCulley, Josephine and Edith Garret, Hattie Moody, Helen Stein, Noraella McGuire, Wenonah Askey, Sam Billy Parker, Roscoe and Frank Askey, Edmond Brown, John Parris and Lyndon McKee. During the afternoon ice cream and cake were served.

SOCIETY MEETS WITH MRS. CANDLER

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, meeting with Mrs. C. Z. Candler yesterday afternoon was led by Mrs. Billy Davis. Subject for the program was "Woman Faces A New Task, and papers on "The Woman of China." "The Woman of Japan" and "The Woman of Latin America" were read by Mrs. Davis, Mrs. W. M. Robbins and Mrs. W. M. Brown.

Mrs. M. D. Cowan, the president of the society, during the business session appointed Mrs. Annie Tompkins a delegate to the annual convention of the missionary societies of the Western North Carolina Conference, with Mrs. W. M. Robbins as alternate. The convention meets this year, the latter part of April, in Greensboro.

Mrs. Candler served delightful refreshments during the social hour.

W. M. S. WILL HOLD ALL DAY MEETING

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Society will observe the March Week of Prayer for Home Missions, Monday, beginning at ten-thirty and continuing through the day. Mrs. I. K. Stafford, of Cullowhee, who was formerly with the Baptist State Convention, as a field worker, in young peoples' organizations, will be one of the speakers on the program. The Cullowhee Missionary Society has been invited to meet with the Sylva Society, on Monday.

MISS WINNIE DIVELBISS WEDS

The account of the wedding of Miss Winnie Divilbiss, which is clipped from the Sunday Asheville Times will be read with interest. Miss Divilbiss is a niece of Mrs. W. P. Potts, Mrs. M. Buchanan, Mrs. M. D. Cowan and Mrs. Ellen Picklesimer, of Sylva, and has often visited here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Divilbiss of 182 South French Broad avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Winnie Ethel, to Mr. M. L. Bozardt, on Sunday, in Greenville, S. C. The couple was accompanied to Greenville by Miss Lavinia Picklesimer, cousin of the bride, and Mr. J. F. Cowan. The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian manse by the Rev. E. P. Davis.

After a wedding trip of a week or ten days, the couple will be at home at 182 South French Broad avenue.

For her marriage, the bride wore a dress of tan flat crepe, with all accessories of tan.

Forty percent of the owner-operated farms in the United States are mortgaged and the owners have only about a 60 percent equity in the property.

When Winds of Adversity Blow

A man's best friend is a bank account and a strong, reliable, sympathetic banking connection, to tide him over to the fair weather of financial smooth-sailing.

SAFETY FIRST SERVICE NEXT SATISFACTION ALWAYS

Tuckaseegee Bank

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $30,000.00

D. G. BRYSON, President J. N. WILSON, V.-Pres.
BILLY DAVIS, Cashier

SPRING Glorious Spring

Unusual early buying has forced Mr. Simons to return to New York and the other markets to replenish our stock of

SPRING COATS, DRESSES AND MILLINERY

He is buying hundreds of new dresses, coats and hats. They are arriving daily by fast express. Come let us show you.

The Paris

Your Department Store—Use It

Another Car of ROOFING

ANOTHER CAR OF VULCANITE ROOFING

JUST ARRIVED

Last year we sold 6 cars of Vulcanite roofing. This year we are going to sell eight cars.

It sells because it looks good, and is good. It has a beautiful appearance, and we give a written guarantee with every order of Vulcanite.

Builders' Supply & Lbr. Co.

Call 'Phone 45
J. C. Allison, Mgr.