

PLANT INFORMATION

I am transplanting my tomato plants now when its not too cold or too hot. If nothing happens to them I am going to have the finest lot I've ever had. I have "Beebes Early Prolific" and "Brimmer" that I paid 75c an ounce for the seeds. Then I have "Spark's Earliana" galore, besides other good varieties.

My pepper plants are doing nicely too and I will have a limited supply of scarlet sage and coleus plants. A few sage and Dill plants free while they last to each customer who buys to the amount of $1.50. Will have some potato slips also.

Watch for my ad with prices. Not safe to set out till after Easter.
