Recently Mr. Gifford, head of the telephone company, proved that television, making it possible to see and hear individuals or crowds hundreds of miles away, is practical.

The question, "How can that be made useful?" is answered in a way that in centuries to come will shed light on our civilization.

"There is no doubt about it," you are told, "the only way in which television can be made profitable is IN CONNECTION WITH PRIZE FIGHTS." People will pay all to see men fighting and hear the yells of the mob gathered around the prize ring. Would television make money enabling distant crowds to see and hear great teachers or college professors? It would NOT.

A conference of college students decided against trial marriage, solemnly, by a vote of 16 to 7. Providence has decided against it by a vote of about 100 to 0.

When the seven young gentlemen think they believe in trial marriage fall in love, they will know that the marriage they plan is lost forever, would detest the very of a trial, and insult any suggesting it.

If not, they would not be marrying.

It would be better for Massachusetts and the administration of justice generally, if a commission should be appointed to investigate evidence on which Sacco and Vanzetti are condemned to die. It is the opinion of the Rev. and D. Sawyer, Congressional spokesman and member of the Massachusetts Legislature. The commission, for which he introduced a bill, would consist of the Chief Justice of the Massachusetts

Supreme Court, and four others to be appointed by the Governor. The commission would be authorized to recommend to the Governor a new trial or such course as might seem necessary.

The impression that justice in the United States is in a hurry to execute anybody or determined to do so should be carefully avoided. This is a case that has never been passed upon, as regards the evidence, by any but one judge, and a case in which after-the-war excitement played a considerable part.

An Egyptian tomb near the Giza Pyramids, opened by Vienna scientists, contains the record and mummy of a very rich dwarf married to an impoverished princess, thousands of years ago.

Our rich princesses marry mental dwarfs, rich in titles. That's the difference, and that Egyptian princess had the better of it. She got something in exchange for her hand, with the long, tapering fingers.

Interest yourself in vitamins. Dr. H. C. Sherman, learned professor of chemistry, proves that vitamins bring maturity earlier and make it last longer. Vitamins are found in milk, butter, lettuce and all green vegetables, cod liver oil, red wine (barred here), fruits, yeast, etc.

In addition to vitamins, mineral salts are absolutely necessary to life. No animal can live without them.

Public school education should include information on diet. Mothers especially are interested in vitamins. Experiments with animals show vitamins influence the number of the young and successful rearing after birth.

There is much prosperity in this country and, fortunately for us, it is not all based on "natural resources"—oil, iron, coal, forests, good soil, etc. Most of it comes from inside the national skull. Sir Ernest Benn observes that American prosperity is, in many cases, five per cent natural resources, ninety-five per cent work intelligently organized. If natural resources alone counted, "Brazil, Liberia and Iceland would be the world's most prosperous countries."

Commander Udet, greatest German flier left over from the war, will fly in a gliding plane without any engine from a mountain peak in Bavaria, 2,000 feet high.

This means literally tobogganing from the top of a mountain to the valley below on thin air. It would astonish those long dead and buried that used to smile at the poem describing Darius Green and his flying machine.

WAYNESVILLE HAS $15,000 FIRE

Fire of undetermined damage estimated at $15,000 to $20,000 Sunday night to three buildings on Main street in Waynesville. The loss is believed to be covered by insurance.

The flames, starting in the basement of the Sloan-Plott Hardware Company, in the heart of town, threatened a part of the business district before being brought under control after a sharp fight by volunteer fire forces which lasted for nearly an hour. The blaze, which apparently smoldered for some time before breaking out, was discovered about 10:30 o'clock. A large crowd watched the progress of the flames, which spread to the Old Victory Theatre, next door, doing considerable damage, then up to the D. A. Howell department store, where considerable damage was reported from smoke and water.

The Howell store was of brick, while the theatre and hardware buildings were of brick and frame construction. All were a single story in height.

Mr. Howell had $3,000 insurance on his stock and $3,000 on the building. The theatre, which had not been used for two or more years, and the hardware building, were owned by Mrs. G. C. Briggs, who carried $4,000 insurance. There was $2,000 insurance on the hardware stock.

DICKS CREEK

On April 2 the Death Angel came and took from us Robert Bramlett. He was well known, having lived here since he was quite a young man, and was loved by all who knew him, having always a smile for everyone. He told his friends he was ready to go and asked them to meet him on the other shore.

He was married to Miss Lottie Turpin, on April 4, 1897. He leaves his widow and one child, besides many friends, to mourn his going. He was laid to rest in Dicks Creek cemetery, the funeral having been conducted by Rev. William Atkins, of Shoal Creek.

Many Irish potato growers in Eastern Carolina complain that their seed are rotting in the ground.

Many good farmers of North Carolina are mixing their fertilizers at home this year in spite of the prevailing low prices.

Farmers of Anson County sold to one another several hundred dollars worth of implements, livestock, hay and other farm products at the Farmers' Auction Sale held in Wadesboro recently.

Mr. Punk Adviser says it's too much trouble to mix feeds at home; buy them in the sack even if it does cost more.

The Jackson County Journal is the mostly wide read paper west of Asheville.

Fertilizer and cultivation will not make up for poor soil preparation.

Many a gasoline salesman claims as his final argument that his product is as good as "STANDARD" GASOLINE
