In times of famine the Eskimos have been known to eat leather, bones & each other, almost anything in fact except Eskimo Pie.

What can you do with your lot in life? Build a house on it. Or better yet, let us build it for you.

Motorist: "I'm sorry I ran over your hen. Will a dollar make it right?"
Farmer: "Better

make it two". "One of my roosters was mighty fond of that hen and the shock might kill him too."

There isn't any peace in the world that quite equals home ownership. And right now is your opportunity to own one. See us right away.

A real good time can't be bought or planned — it just happens.

We have unloaded 63 cars of building material since April 11th besides hundreds of small shipments which should thoroughly convince you that we are able to take care of your building needs.

Don't spend more than you take in then you will not have to worry about higher accounting. A fellow doesn't know how small a hole that he can crawl through until a car turns over on him.
