

JACKSON CO. JOURNAL

DAN TOMPKINS, Editor

Published Weekly By the JACKSON COUNTY JOURNAL CO

Entered as second class matter at Sylva, N. C.

Idleness is the principal link in juvenile delinquency.

Maybe it is the "hops" across the Atlantic that attracts so many aviators.

One trouble is, in platform making, that one damp plank might warp the whole structure.

"Kilgore Urges More Loans For Farmers." What's the trouble—aren't they paying enough interest now?

Massachusetts is about to hold a "good manners week." Folks down South have been wondering, for many years, why something hadn't been done about it, up there.

The new dollar bills, soon to be printed, will be smaller but we are hoping that their purchasing power won't be decreased any more.

The headliners, having "combed" the Pacific and "combed" a cave in Tennessee, during the past week, will now have to comb the dictionary for a new word that means peruse.

"Woman Seeks Education." Yes, and a cynic with a caustic typewriter would remark that, collectively, she needs it.

It cost Charlie Chaplin a cool million to get free from his wife. We have seen some women that we would be willing to pay more than that get shot of, if we had it and them.

BOB QUILLEN'S GONE CRAZY

Robert Quillen, famous journalist and humorist, last year, offered to sell his weekly paper at Fountain, Inn, S. C., to the first man who came in and offered him a dollar. We thought he had gone crazy. Now he says that he is pining to get back to the weekly grind; and we know he is crazy.

We know nothing about the circumstances surrounding the shooting to death, in the presence of his wife, who was riding in his car with him, of a prominent young Georgian, on a country road, outside of town, by the chief of police of Jessup. The officer may be right in his contention that he shot in self defense. It may be that if the town officer hadn't been there, some county officer would have had to do the shooting. But this much is certain, if the Chief of police of Jessup had been inside the town, looking after his duties of policing Jessup, he wouldn't have shot the young man, and wouldn't be under indictment for his murder.

MASSACHUSETTS VINDICATES HERSELF

Whether or not you believe in capital punishment you are forced to admit that Massachusetts has put the world on notice that that sovereign commonwealth can enforce her own laws, in her own way, without interference from, and against the protests of all the half-baked reformers of the world. Whether or not justice was done, whether or not they were guilty or innocent, whether or not capital punishment is right, in the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti, Massachusetts has vindicated her right to attend to her own affairs and has upheld her dignity as a sovereign state.

IS IT SO?

A headline screamingly proclaims that "$40,000 Reward Speeds Search." The Journal for one does not believe a word of it. We can not believe that human nature has fallen so low and the worship of the almighty dollar such an obsession that the offer of a reward of even $40,000 would speed up even a little bit, the men who have been so faithfully searching the thousand miles of waters that lie between San Francisco and Hawaii for their comrades in airplane race, who fell into hard luck. We for one believe that men place a higher value upon human life than $40,000, and that everything humanly possible to find the missing men and women was already being done, and that the offer of financial reward would not spur the efforts. At least we have that much faith left in our fellow men.

John W. Hill writes a lengthy article inquiring if "United States Steel will Employ Go-Getter Policies Now." We are only hoping that the steel trust won't attempt go-getting an increase of that 40 percent dividend. If it does, there won't be any small change left for the rest of us.

THAT CULLOWHEE ROAD

The Journal fears that it wearies its readers by forever talking about the Cullowhee road, but the need is so apparently urgent. The people have had so many disappointments, they have been expecting the necessary paving to be done within a short time for so many years, that this paper feels a grave injustice has been done, and that the sooner it is remedied the better.

Highway No. 106 is the great artery of commerce for Jackson county. Over it comes the products of field and forest of a great and growing section of the county. Eight miles from Sylva is the only state institution in this part of the state. When it is finally placed on the map running from Sylva to the South Carolina line (as was originally contemplated, and as has been promised again and again) it will be in addition to the main road of this county, a great inter-state highway from the South through the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, to the West to Cincinnati and Chicago.

From Sylva to Cullowhee the patrolman who has it in charge is J. Robert Cotter, and he is as good a one as is to be found in the state. He is untiring in his efforts to keep the road in repair. He and his men work on the job all the time, and work with purpose and with an understanding of their job; but with the terrific traffic that goes over it, it is impossible to keep it in as good shape as it should be, either in wet weather or dry. The only solution is paving. The law says it shall be done. The people want it. Jackson county, that has co-operated to the extent of its ability with the state highway commission in constructing roads in this county, is entitled to it. The time has come when it should be done, or at least the state highway commission should give some definite response to the continued importunities of the people.

REFEREE TO HEAR SWAIN ELECTION CASE

Judge Philip C. Coker has been named referee to investigate contested election cases now docketed in the courts of Swain county.

Judge Coker was appointed to the office Monday by Judge H. Hoyle Sink, now presiding at a special term of civil court in Buncombe county. The suits in the Swain county court have been brought to test validity of the election of the sheriff, clerk of superior court, and register of deeds of the county.

The office holders are all Democrats while the contestants are Republicans. Judge Coker will review the cases and hold private hearings reporting his findings to the Swain county court.

Over 1,600 club members in North Carolina have taken part in the 30 club encampments and tours held so far this summer.

ZONE MEETING HELD AT CULLOWHEE

Mrs. Geo. Hampton of Canton, was principal speaker at the zone meeting of Methodist Missionary Societies, which was held at Cullowhee yesterday. Rev. A. W. Lynch, pastor of the Methodist church at Cullowhee, led the devotional service which opened the morning session of the meeting. Mrs. Frank H. Brown made the address of welcome, Mrs. J. R. Buchanan of Sylva, responding. Mrs. Scerest of Canton, made her report as district historian and reports of committees and inspirational talks featured the sessions throughout the day. Miss Nellie Scerest of Cleveland, Ohio, was present and told of the work of missionary societies in Cleveland.

Mrs. W. H. Rhodes of Sylva, zone prayer leader, led the devotional service at the beginning of the afternoon session.

Mrs. M. D. Cowan, district superintendent, presided over the meeting. Lunch was served in the domestic science department of the Cullowhee school.

ASSOCIATION TO MEET NEXT IN SYLVA

The Tuckasee Baptist Association closed its 98th annual meeting at Tuckasee, Saturday, with the reelection of Rev. Thad F. Deitz as moderator, A. J. Dills as clerk and the selection of Sylva as the place of meeting, next year.

Beginning its session at 10 o'clock, Thursday, the association continued through three days of interesting meetings and devotional exercises. Rev. Fred F. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist church of Knoxville, and a native of Jackson county was in attendance upon the association and took part in the discussions.

The opening devotional was conducted by Rev. J. G. Murray and following the enrollment of delegates the annual sermon was delivered by Rev. W. C. Reed, principal of Sylva Collegiate Institute. Rev. L. K. Sanford read the report on state missions; Rev. Lawrence Crawford, that on home missions; and Rev. Fred Brown, that on foreign missions.

On Tuesday the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. G. C. Snyder. The Report on Christian education was read by Rev. W. C. Reed, Dr. H. T. Hunter brought the report on hospitals; Rev. A. C. Queen on ministerial relief; Mrs. J. B. Ensley on religious literature; Rev. R. L. Cook on orphanage; Mrs. W. C. Reed on W. M. U.; George W. Sutton on temperance; Rev. Ben Cook, state of the churches; Rev. A. C. Queen, obituary.

On Saturday, following the devotional conducted by Rev. R. N. Deitz; New Testament Stewardship was discussed by Rev. J. D. Sitton; B. Y. P. U. by Miss Miriam Stillwell; and Sunday School work by Rev. G. C. Snyder.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Harold S. Jarvis of Florida to Vivian Rhea.
Love Dillard to Mary Sheppard, both of Jackson.
William J. Buckner of Jackson to Maude Welch of Swain.
Indians
David Lossiah to Lydia L. George.

WANT COLUMN

The rate for classified ads in this column is 10c. per line for each insertion, averaging six (6) words to a line.

FARMING—Western Carolina's best methods and opportunities described in new farm Journal. Sample free. Half year subscription ten cents. Hollowell's Mountain Farmer, Hendersonville, N. C.

FOR RENT—FOUR ROOM HOUSE, with garden, pasture, and wood. 1 1-2 miles from Sylva. Apply V. L. COPE, Sylva. 8-17-27p.

FOR SALE—A Pair of 7 year mares known as the Paul Kitchen mares. Ransom Bryson, Cullowhee, N. C.

TENT FOR SALE—Large Six, good order. John T. Jones, Balsam, N. C.

FOR SALE—1 Pair of Mules age 5 and 6 years, wagon and harness. Will trade for cows or hogs. Terms if wanted. N. C. Brown, Sylva, N. C.

FOR SALE—FORD TOURING CAR 1925 model, good condition. Apply Harold Morgan, at Jackson-Chevrolet Co.

DR. HEINZERLING'S

Health Institute

Do you want to get well and stay well? Our methods not only cure your present ailment but act as a positive preventative against future illness. After August 24th no more examinations will be given free, so come now and let us give you an honest, frank opinion of what we can do for you.

Over Post Office

Sylva, N. C.

HOURS 2 TO 6 P. M.

MY PATIENTS MY REFERENCES

"NOT ANOTHER CENT"

Not another cent until you're married. That is what the boy's uncle told him in "PARADISE FOR TWO". No more what parties—no more gay times—nothing, until he was married. And what a time Richard Dix did have getting Betty Bronson to marry him in this rollicking comedy-drama.

Friday and Saturday

When a girl cries because she's happy,
And smiles because she's blue—
And does a lot of things she never thought should do.

"IT MUST BE LOVE"

STARRING COLLEEN MOORE

Monday and Tuesday

All set to elope—with a strange babe on his hands—do you imagine a worse predicament? But this is the only one. Conrad Nagel's troubles in

"THERE YOU ARE"

The funniest elopement ever shown on the screen

Wednesday and Thursday

LYRIC THEATRE

FOR WHITE PEOPLE ONLY

JACKSON COUNTY SCHOOL BOOK

HEADQUARTERS:

Special attention is called to the Teachers and Parents of Jackson County. Always at the opening of Schools there is a rush to buy School Books and Supplies. Our stock in this line is complete as usual, and we can supply the demand no matter how great it may be.

We are exclusive Agents in Jackson County for The State Depository, and this enables us to always have plenty books.

We also call your attention to the reduction in price on several of the books. It will pay you to investigate before buying. Mail us your orders. They will be promptly filled.

SYLVA PHARMACY

The Rexall Store

Sylva, N. C.

Jackson County Long Term Schools

Open September Fifth

Just a few more days and the great army of our bright-eyed boys and girls will be marching off to school. Time is short. Be ready when the school bell rings.

Again this year our store is headquarters for school supplies of all kinds for children and teachers.

Official text books for all grades taught in this county. We are ready. Do not wait until the last minute. Make out your list of what is needed and bring it to us.

Buchanan Pharmacy

J. D. COWAN, Prop.

Listen Folks!

WE ARE GOING TO CLOSE OUT OUR WASH SILK, VOILE, AND PONGEE DRESSES AT THE FOLLOWING PRICES:

$10.50 DRESSES	.....	$6.98
6.75 DRESSES	.....	$3.98
4.95 DRESSES	.....	$2.98

If you can use a wash silk, a pongee, or a voile dress it will pay you to take advantage of the above prices.

Sylva Supply Co.

INCORPORATED