

Personals

Mr. Richard Sutton has gone to Mars Hill, to enter Mars Hill College.

Mr. George Johnston, of Franklin, was here this week, on business.

Miss Mayme Long left last Saturday for Marion, where she will teach this year.

Miss Margueret and Melita Stein left Tuesday for Louisburg, where they went to enter Louisburg College.

Mr. J. H. Cathey and Mr. G. W. Grindstaff and daughters Katherine, Frances and Marjorie, spent Sunday with relatives in Asheville.

Miss Lucy Wells, of Charlotte, spent the week end here, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wells.

Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Hilliard of Asheville are spending the week here with Mrs. D. L. Love.

Miss Leah Nichols has gone to Gainesville, Ga., where she will resume her studies at Brenau College.

Mrs. Etta Morton and Miss Grace Jones left Sunday, for Mars Hill where they will teach in the public school.

Mr. Love Shaver and Mr. John Houch have returned to their homes in Stanly county, after a visit to friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Looper and two children and Mr. Floyd Snyder, of Greenville, S. C., were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed, Sunday.

Mrs. Floyd Snyder and daughter, Genevieve, returned to their home in Greenville S.C. after a visit to friends here.

Miss Margaret Sherrill and Miss Mary Sue Gribble went to Mars Hill, the first of the week, to enter Mars Hill College.

Miss Edith Buchanan, Miss Bessie Snyder, Miss Lora Dills and Miss Olive Coward have gone to Raleigh, where they will attend Meredith College.

Let it Rain

Douglas MacLean as "Let it Rain" says, a sergeant in the Marine Corps will give you a whole flock of crackles in his latest and best comedy "Let It Rain." FRIDAY and SATURDAY.

And on Monday and Tuesday, if you want to see another good comedy, be sure to see Johnny Hines in "The BROWN DERBY." Johnny, a member, mistaken for the heroine's uncle from Australia. Just imagine what a lot of funny things could happen to Johnny and his lucky wife.

MAE MURRAY
ALTARS OF DESIRE
Wednesday and Thursday
September 14th and 15th
Lyric Theatre
FOR WHITE PEOPLE ONLY

Mr. W. R. Wike spent a few days, this week, with relatives in Jackson county, enroute to his home in Florence Villa, Fla., from New Jersey where he had been spending some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal McKee returned Tuesday, to their home in Charlotte, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McKee at their home here.

Miss Beryl Brinkley, who has been spending several weeks here, with Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Powell and other relatives, left last Friday for her home in Chicago.

Mrs. B. E. Gray, who has been spending the summer with her mother Mrs. Alice Dills, at Dillsboro, has returned to her home in Alexandria, Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grindstaff, of Chicago, and Mr. Hayden Grindstaff of Asheville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grindstaff, at their home here, Saturday.

Miss Edith and Sarah Sue Sherrill of Asheville, spent the week end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sherrill.

Misses Marguarete and Meleta Stein left the first of the week for Louisburg where they will enter Louisburg College.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Henson and children left, this morning for their home in Florence Villa, Fla., after spending several weeks here, with Mr. Henson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henson.

Mrs. A. B. Dills spent Tuesday night with her niece, Mrs. Ida Conley having accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Joel Gibson who came up from Bryson City Tuesday, to Almond.

Mr. S. C. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Allison and three children, Frances, Jack and Nancy are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ben-Forkner in Atlanta.

Miss Sallie Lou Hill and Mr. F. M. Crawford of Cornelia, Ga. were guests last week of Mr. Crawford's aunt, Mrs. Roy C. Allison and Mr. Allison.

Mr. O. J. Moore of Ceredo, West Virginia had his son, Mr. Sayre Moore of Burnsville, both of whom formerly lived in Sylva, were guests of friends here Sunday.

Mrs. R. L. Overstreet of Linwood and Miss Mildred Overstreet of Bedford, Va., are guests of Mrs. Overstreet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wilson at their home here.

Mr. Dick Wilson has returned from a visit to his sister, Mrs. R. L. Overstreet at Linwood and Mr. E. E. Bain, Jr. in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Yates have returned to their home in Cary, after a visit of several weeks to their daughter, Mrs. J. G. Murray, and Mr. Murray, at the Baptist Parsonage.

Dr. J. D. Bain and his sister Miss Eva Bain will leave by motor Thursday afternoon, for Tarboro, where Miss Bain will teach in the city schools.

Miss Irene Ellington and Miss Virginia Cleaveland will return to their homes in Atlanta, Saturday after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Thompson at their home on Courtland Heights.

Mrs. T. E. Wagg of Rutherford College who has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Eugenia Allison and Miss Margaret Moore, in Webster with Mrs. Allison and Miss Moore has been spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. S. C. Allison at her home here.

MISS SULLIVAN WEDS CAPT. CARROLL

Miss Inez Sullivan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Sullivan of Hayesville, was married on August twenty seventh to Capt. Homer L. Carroll of Atlanta. Mrs. Carroll has been engaged in business in Sylva for the past several years, as the owner of the Woman's Shop and has, by her charming personality, won numbers of friends throughout this section, since her residence here.

Capt. Carroll, who during his service with the United States Army, was in a number of thrilling and dangerous engagements, was also connected with the United States legation.

Capt. and Mrs. Carroll will, later make their home in Atlanta.

POWELLS HOLD REUNION

The ten children of Mr. T. J. Powell, with their husbands and wives, and 22 grandchildren, gathered at his home at Tuckaseegee, Sunday for the family reunion. Dinner was served out-doors, picnic style.

The children of Mr. Powell, who were present, were I. H. Powell, J. T. Powell, Ott Powell, Hobart Powell, Nevil Powell, Mrs. Joe Rigdon, Mrs. John Rigdon, Mrs. Ira Brown, Mrs. Sol Henry and Mrs. Clyde Calloway. Mrs. Calloway lives in Cincinnati, O., and her husband and little daughter, Vivian June, accompanied her to her old home.

GOES TO PARIS FOR REUNION

Blaine Nicholson, assistant cashier of the Tuckaseegee Bank, left Wednesday morning, for Norfolk, from where he will sail for Paris, to attend the American Legion convention, representing William E. Dillard Post, of Sylva. While in Europe Mr. Nicholson will visit many places in France, Germany and Belgium. He was with the A. E. F. and the Army of Occupation, for more than a year, in 1918 and 1919. Mr. Nicholson expects to return to Sylva about October 20.

GEO. SNYDER SELLS INTEREST

R. C. Snyder of Cornelia, Ga., a brother of George C. Snyder has purchased an interest in the Snyder mercantile business at Beta, and has moved his family here. Rev. Geo. C. Snyder stated that he hopes to have more time to devote to his church work; and that his brother and new partner will devote his entire time to the mercantile business, which will be enlarged and a stock of feeds and fertilizers will be carried, in addition to the enlargement of the regular stock now carried.

MRS. ENSLEY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Alvin Ensley was hostess, at her home here, Tuesday evening, honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. W. Oakes, of Winter Haven, Fla., and her brother-in-law, Mr. Herschel Hooper of Akron, Ohio.

The lower floor of the house was artistically decorated, the colors of the rainbow being employed with charming effect. The evening was spent in bridge and dancing, three tables of bridge having been made up, others of the guests enjoying dancing. Mrs. Harry E. Buchanan made high score among the ladies and was presented a lovely compact, while Mr. Dan Tompkins was presented a leather bill fold, as holder of top score among the men. A dainty favor was presented each guest. Punch was served throughout the evening and a delightful ice course was served late in the evening.

MRS. DILLARD AND MRS. BALES TO HONOR MRS. CARROLL

Mrs. Homer L. Carroll will be guest of honor at a tea, given by Mrs. C. A. Bales and Mrs. J. L. Dillard at the home of Mrs. Dillard Friday afternoon. A large number of guests have been invited to meet Mrs. Carroll, a recent bride.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

Mrs. C. L. Allison was re-elected president, Mrs. I. H. Powell, vice-president, Mrs. B. O. Painter, secretary, Mrs. Roy C. Allison treasurer of local funds at the September meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society, held at the church this afternoon. Mrs. A. J. Dills was elected treasurer of mission funds, to succeed Mrs. Myra Loftis, who resigned. The program was presented by Circle Number 3, with Mrs. W. C. Reed leader.

The society will observe the week of Prayer for State Missions with a meeting held each afternoon during the week. The meeting will be in the homes of the members, rotating from circle to circle, beginning Monday.

JACKSON WOMAN DIES OF BURNS

Mrs. Charles B. Sanford has just received telegraphic information to the effect that her mother, Mrs. Vance Dillard is dead, and her father Vance Dillard was seriously burned, from an explosion in a dry-cleaning establishment, in Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. Dillard's body will be brought here for burial. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dillard are former Jackson county people.

New Fall READY - TO - WEAR

THE NEWEST STYLES AT REASONABLE PRICES

LOVELY FALL COATS

Just Arrived $10 to $75

CHILDREN'S COATS

Sizes 6 to 16 years $4.98 to $10

DRESSES

In all the new materials and colors $4.98 to $30

MILLINERY

Sport and Dress Hats

$1.98 to $10

WOMEN'S OXFORDS AND PUMPS

$1.98 to $8.50

WOMEN'S HOSE

25c to $2.50 Onyx Pointex Here $1.50

Our Men's Ties The talk of the town $1 Another Shipment Right from N. Y.

Everything to wear for Men and Boys in our busy Men's Dept. Let Glenn Hughes show you.

Bargains in Our Basement Store

SHEETING Good Grade 10c. YARD	WOMEN'S DRESSES All Sizes 98c.	WOMEN'S HATS 98c.
WOMEN'S SLIPPERS $1.98	CHILDREN'S SLIPPERS 98c.	CHILDREN'S DRESSES 98c
GINGHAM 32 Inches Wide 10c YARD	See our Table with bargains at 5c.	See our Table with bargains at 10c.

The The Paris Paris
Your Department Store--Use It

Store Closes Every Evening at 6:30 Except Saturdays