MRS. CARROLL COMPLIMENTED

On Friday afternoon of last week Mrs. J. L. Dillard and Mrs. C. A. Bales were joint hostesses at a tea given at the home of Mrs. Dillard, complimenting Mrs. Homer L. Carroll, sister of Mrs. Bales, who was recently married.

The guests were met by Mrs. E. L. McKee and Mrs. J. R. Buchanan, and were ushered into the living room by Mrs. Will Cathey, where the receiving line stood. In the receiving line were Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Bales, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Verne Swan and Mrs. Brown, of Asheville. Mrs. W. M. Robbins invited the guests into the dining room, where a lovely tea table was presided over by Mrs. A. S. Nichols, Mrs. Harry Buchanan, Mrs. M. Buchanan, Jr., and Miss Lillie Everett. Iced tea, sandwiches, bonbons, salted nuts and fruits were served. On each plate was a card, decorated with a handpainted "old shoe" and a spray of alyssum, and with white ribbon, upon which was inscribed a "wish for the bride". Gorgeous dahlias and other cut flowers, in varying shades of pink, were effectively used as decorations. A number of piano solos, played by Miss Blanche Collins and Miss Dorothy Moore, were enjoyed by the large number of guests who called during the afternoon.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Sunday Evening, 7:00 P. M. (By Mrs. Doyle Alley, Pres.)

We cordially invite you to attend our regular Sunday Evening meetings. We are anxious that no Epworth Leaguer miss a single meeting from now on. Each program will be helpful and enjoyable to you. Our program on last Sunday evening was greatly enjoyed. A short talk was given by Mrs. E. L. McKee which was one of the best we have ever enjoyed. Mrs. McKee is deeply interested in the welfare of our League and young people and gave us some fine things to remember her by.

Mr. Chas. Allison gave a short talk and reading on plans of radiating our christianity through our own living.

Mr. Dan Tompkins, as is always the case, gave us just what we need, "encouragement," and talked for a few minutes on the inevitableness of Lay work.

Miss Louise Stein rendered a beautiful piano solo.
