LITERARY DEPARTMENT TO MEET MONDAY

The literary department of the Woman's Club will meet Monday afternoon, and Mrs. E. Ford King, the temporary chairman, is requesting that all women of the community who are interested in, and want to join this department of the club meet at her home at three o'clock November 14.

SOCIETY ELECTS NEW SECRETARY

The Baptist Woman's Missionary Society, at the November meeting, held at the church, yesterday, elected Mrs. C. C. Buchanan secretary, to succeed Mrs. B. O. Painter, who recently resigned.

Another item of business was arranging for the program for the week of prayer, the society deciding to have an all-day meeting on Wednesday, November 30. The program will begin with a morning session and end with a pageant Wednesday night.

A committee previously appointed to look after sending a box of clothing to the Thomasville Orphanage reported that approximately forty dollars worth of clothing had been contributed and sent. The society voted to have the Pastorium underpinned with brick and Mrs. A. J. Dills, Mrs. L. H. Powell and Mrs. E. L. Wilson were designated to look after the work. The program was given by Circle Number Three, with Mrs. R. C. Allison leading. The devotional was led by Mrs. J. B. Ensley and an interesting resume of the subject for the afternoon was given by Miss Mell George.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. C. L. Allison.

BOX SUPPER TO BE HELD AT GREEN'S CREEK

There will be a box supper at the Green's Creek school house Saturday night, November 12. Proceeds for the construction of the church house. Everybody is invited to come and bring someone with them.

JUNIOR STUDY CLUB MEETS

Miss Mary Allison was hostess to the Junior Study Club at her home last Friday night, at which time a business session was held. A feature of the program for the evening was a paper on "Old Athens," by Miss Evelyn Campbell. Besides the eleven members of the club attending, Mrs. J. L. Dillard, Mrs. C. A. Bales, Mrs. Douglas Bain, Mrs. L. D. Shealy and Miss Evelyn Allison were present as guests of the club.

During the social hour Miss Allison and her mother, Mrs. C. L. Allison served a salad course, with coffee and mints.

The next meeting will be with Miss Evelyn Campbell, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Freeze, on November eighteenth.

MRS. BAIN IS HONORED

A lovely tea was given by Mrs. W. D. Bain at her home on last Friday afternoon, honoring her daughter in law, Mrs. Douglas Bain, whose wedding to Dr. Bain occurred at Wendell a short time ago.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Henrietta Bain and were introduced to the receiving line by Miss Mary Alma Wilson. In the receiving line were Mrs. W. D. Bain, her daughter, Mrs. Charles Bullock, Mrs. Douglas Bain and Miss Eleanor Ormond.

The guests were served punch by Miss Edith Oliver and were invited by Miss Mary Allison into the dining room where Miss Sue McCulley and Miss Helen Simons served Neopolitan ice cream and cake.

Quantities of chrysanthemums formed the attractive decorations for the affair.

A large number of guests called during the afternoon.

Just any kind of pecan tree is not suited to North Carolina conditions. Only the best will grow and yield well.

Farmers of Pitt County bought 38,700 pounds of pyrotol, the government explosive at $9 a hundred pounds when the commercial dynamite is selling for $25 a hundred. This is the last season that State College will distribute this material.
