

THE JUDGE'S JOSH

P: "Biffer has worked himself up, hasn't he?"
S: "How do you mean?"
"He used to be a chiropodist, now he's a dentist."

Bella: "I wonder how the expression 'an arm of the sea' originated?"
Don: (with a tender look) "Perhaps somebody noticed that it hugged the shore."

Buyer: "Does this flannel shrink?"
Clerk: "Not so much as I would from telling you it didn't, if it did."

Fortune Teller: "Beware of a handsome, tall blonde."
Weary Willie (sadly): "Too late. I've already married her."

This is a story of the Wild and Woolly West. It concerns the sheriff of Tin Spout, who dispersed an angry mob with a few well-chosen words.
"Yes," said the sheriff, relating the story, "I managed to quieten 'em down all right. When the boys swarmed round the gal I stepped out with a couple of guns in my hands an' spoke sorter soothin' to 'em."
"What did you say?"
"I just remind' 'em that my brother was runnin' the only undertaker's in the town, an' everybody that knowed me knowed I was a strong family man who'd do anything in reason to boost the business of a relative."

JEWELRY

The Most Appreciated Gifts

Jewelry—always a symbol of beauty—is the aristocrat of all gifts. Its glittering sparkling beauty will reflect as nothing else can, the brightness of Christmas Day and the careful thought and good taste of the donor. And this is in truth, the house of a thousand gifts—in an exquisite assortment that embraces everything from an inexpensive trinket to a costly jewel. Our mark of quality will stamp the gift—regardless of its price—as one to be loved and treasured for years to come.

No gift will be more useful or more deeply appreciated than a watch. Always desired, it will bring to the recipient a thrill of appreciation and pleasure in its possession.

An assortment of lovely brooches. Filigree, platinum, white gold, and sterling silver, set with diamonds or other precious and semi-precious stones.

Rings for men and women, in a wide selection—jeweled, plain, or initialed. Simple little bands—or elaborate circles.

Necklaces of pearls, semi-precious and precious stones, in a selection that leaves nothing to be desired. Whether you want a tiny choker a long rope, you will find just these eklace you want. Cuff links that will please any man. Definitely masculine in design, elegantly simple, beautifully engraved or plain. Gold, white gold, platinum and sterling silver.

Latest designs in Compacts and Mesh Bags.

Toilet sets, military brushes, bill folds, silverware, Waterman Pens and sets. You will find a complete line of the better class of jewelry but at moderate prices.
