

BALSAM

Mr. John Jones and family and Mr. Odell Queen attended the poultry show in Asheville last week. Hon. W. T. Lee of Raleigh was here this week.

Mr. Bill Giessler who has been at Balsam Lodge several weeks will return to his home in Newark, N. J., Thursday.

Mr. C. A. Ballough will leave Wednesday to bring his family up from Daytona Beach to spend the summer in Ballough Hills.

One day last week Mr. W. E. Ensley parked his car in front of Mr. W. R. Jones residence, leaving the keys in and car in reverse. His little five year old boy was in the car and started the car. It ran some distance, backed off an embankment down into the creek. When Mr. Ensley reached the car, the little boy was holding to the steering wheel and was not hurt at all, neither was the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ensley and little Doris of Asheville spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. H. P. Ensley.
