New Paper Mill Starts Monday

WHEELS AT PAPERBOARD PLANT WILL BEGIN TO TURN JULY 2ND

The officials of the Sylva Paperboard Company expect their plant in Sylva to begin the actual operation of making paperboard by Monday, July 2, it was learned today.

The furnaces have been fired up and the entire construction work has been busy for the past several days winding up odds and ends and preparing for starting the plant. The heavy work is all completed; but there is much yet to be done in beautifying the plant and surroundings, which the officials expect to make most attractive.

Beginning work under Mr. Campbell King, construction engineer, about January first last, the construction of the plant has been rushed during the winter and spring months and is now ready for the manufacture of paperboard.

The chips from the present chipper, after the tanning extract has been percolated out of them, will be conveyed across the railroad tracks to the new mill, where they will be made into paperboard for the market.

It is not known definitely how many men will be required to operate the new mill; but it will certainly make a substantial increase to Sylva's payroll, and in addition will furnish continuous market to the farmers for their chestnut wood, throughout this section of North Carolina as the new mill will utilize as a valuable byproduct, the chestnut chips from the extract plant, that have heretofore been burned after the tannic acid had been extracted from them.

OXFORD ORPHANS WILL SING AT LYRIC THEATRE, TUESDAY

The Singing Class from the Oxford Orphanage will give its annual concert at the Lyric Theatre, in Sylva, Tuesday evening, July 3, at 8 o'clock.

The yearly tour of the singing class from the Masonic Orphanage is an event toward which the people of North Carolina have come to look with anticipation, and it is expected that a large attendance will be given at the concert next Tuesday.

The Orphanage Committee of the local Masonic lodge, Messrs. E. L. McKee, R. U. Sutton, and John R. Jones is making arrangements for advertising the concert and the entertainment of the children; and Mr. Harry Buchanan, owner of the Lyric Theatre, has offered the use of this modern theatre to the committee and the class, so that the concert may be given at a place where the people will be comfortable.

MRS. NANCY COWAN DIES

Mrs. Nancy Cowan passed on at home near Webster last Thursday night at the age of 78.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church in Webster by Rev. W. C. Reed and Rev. Mr. Kiker, pastor of the Webster Methodist church, and interment was in the Stillwell cemetery.

Mrs. Cowan was the widow of the late Lafayette Cowan and is survived by five sons, T. B. Ransom, Jim, Bob and Ham Cowan and two daughters, Mrs. James Ashe and Mrs. A. W. Davis, a large number of grandchildren and other relatives and friends.

EAST LAPORTE TAKES SMOKY MOUNTAIN LEAGUE LEADERSHIP

East LaPorte, June 23rd—The Blackwood team took a hotly contested game from Canton here today to take the leadership of the Smoky Mountain Baseball League. The game was more or less a pitchers battle until the 7th inning, when East LaPorte staged a spirited rally and got next to the offerings of Hawkins, Canton's Ace, who had held the local lads to a single scratch hit thru the six innings, scoring 3 runs in 7th only to come back in their half of the 8th inning to duplicate the 7th with three more and nose out the anton team 6 to 5. Canton got away to an early lead of 4 runs in the first inning, and things looked rather blue for the home team until Saunook started the rally by a clean single to right center, to be followed by Crisp, Long, Kimsey, Green and Stallcup each hitting safely before the breaks could be applied. Crisp, local hurler struck out 17 men while his opponent struck out 8. The box score follows:

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York

Democrats Will Name Smith and Robinson

It is generally conceded in well informed political circles in Houston that Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York will be nominated as the Democratic candidate for president on either the first, second, or third ballot at the Houston convention, either today or tomorrow, although there is still determined opposition to the New Yorker among some of the delegations.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, will be the vice presidential nominee, it is believed.

The convention was held Tuesday morning with prayer by Bishop S. R. Hay of the Methodist Episcopal church, South; and soon after adjourned until 7 o'clock in the evening, when the pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Houston led the prayer, after which Chairman Shaver introduced Claude Bowers as temporary chairman, and Mr. Bowers delivered the key note speech to the convention and some forty million radio listeners, expounding the difference between the Hamiltonian and Jeffersonian schools of thought, and applied them to the histories of the two parties.

The demand in the speech that the farmers be given an equal chance with other business brought forth a great demonstration, the banners of South Dakota and North Carolina leading the parade about the hall.

The phrase that provoked the demonstration was:

"We do not pledge the farmer paternalistic relief; but we do demand that the hand of privilege and pillage be taken from the farmer's pocket and off the farmer's throat."

The best informed political writers in Houston assert that the platform will call for enforcement of the prohibition laws and for substantial relief for the farmers.

Get rid of that low producing hen now. Cull the flock and sell or eat all hens that do not lay more than half the time. Those early hatched pullets that are not showing up well can also be gotten rid of at this time.

SALVATION ARMY CONCERT HERE TOMORROW EVENING

ROGERS GETS SUSPENDED SENTENCE IF 12 MONTHS

H. H. Rogers, Callowhee man, drew a sentence of 12 months on the roads which sentence was suspended for a period of 18 months upon good behavior, after being convicted of having some 23 gallons of liquor in his possession, in Recorder's court, Monday.

The evidence of the officers was that they had located an captured about 23 gallons of liquor in a car in Roger's garage.

A number of good citizens of Callo whee appeared in court and testified to the good character of Rogers, his personal integrity, his industry, and his previous good character in the community. It came out that he had been obliged to mortgage his home, a short time ago, to pay hospital expenses for his young daughter. It was proved that this was his first time to be before the courts, and Judge Sutton gave him a suspended sentence. The same defendant was found not guilty of operating an auto mobile while intoxicated, in one case and was found guilty in another on the same charge, and fined $50. 00 and costs, and ordered not to drive an automobile for a period of four months. A case against him, charging false pretense was continued.

Lester Eller and D. J. Blivins were charged with kidnapping; but the solicitor stated that he could not make out a case, and got the permission of the court to change the warrant and charge Eller with carrying a concealed weapon. After the evidence was heard, the court rendered a verdict of not guilty.
