"AN UNPOPULAR PREACHER" WILL BE PASTORS SUBJECT

"An Unpopular Preacher" will be the subject of a sermon which the pastor Rev. George Clemmer will deliver Sunday morning at the Methodist church in Sylva. The sermon will contain the dramatic story of a heroic character who valued the answer of a clear conscience, along with the approving smile of God more than the crown of popular favor.

It is not enough to know that a prophet is unpopular. One ought to ask why Mr. Clemmer will do this in discussing this theme Sunday morning.

Some special music is being prepared for the service. Miss Emily Wiegand of Augusta will sing an offertory number and perhaps there will be a selection by a mixed quartet. Sunday schools of the charge meet promptly at 10 o'clock. There will be no evening service. A very cordial invitation is extended to all to attend any of the services of the church. The program of worship for the morning service follows:

Voluntary; Hymn No 32, "Come Thou Almighty King"; The Apostles Creed; Prayer; Responsive reading No. 315; The Gloria Patri; New Testament lesson Hebrews 12:1-11; Announcements; Offering; Offertory Solo; Hymn No 7, "Hail Thou Once Dismissed"; Sermon: "An Unpopular Preacher." Hymn No 18 "The Son of God Goes Forth to War"; Benediction.

QUALLA

On Sunday afternoon a Sunday School Rally was held at the Baptist church. Interesting addresses were made by Prof R L Moore, Rev A V Washburn; J T Gribble, Rev I K Stafford; Rev R L Cook; Prof J E Brown; Dan Bryson and R R Fisher. Meetings of this kind should greatly benefit the communities in which they are held.

Mrs M W Whitmire of Midland, Texas and Mr Jesse Shelton of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived at Qualla Sunday afternoon, this being their summer home. They have many relatives and friends who welcome their coming and will enjoy having them visit in our section again after an absence of several years. Mrs Whitmire was formerly Miss Mattie Shelton.

Mrs W D Wike and three daughters of Cullowhee were callers at Qualla, Sunday afternoon.

Messrs H G and Wayne Ferguson are attending camp meeting at Connelly's Springs.

Mr and Mrs C M Hughes of Asheville spent the weekend with Mr. J H Hughes.

Mr and Mrs Roscoe Swan, Mrs Alton Colcord of Florida and Mrs Thomas Varner of Whittier were guests of Mr and Mrs C P Shelton.

Mr Lovelock of Cowarts, Mr and Mrs Jeter Snyder of Willets and Mrs R L Cook were among Qualla's visitors Sunday.

Mr James Bradley of Oklahoma is visiting among relatives. He was a former Qualla boy.

SCOUTS GO AGAIN TO LAKE.

So popular did the outing at Lake Junaluska prove among the Boy Scouts, last week, that it has been decided by the officials of the troop to go again Friday afternoon and perhaps the following Friday. Some twenty of the boys went over last week along with Scoutmasters Clemmer and Allen in a big truck furnished by Medford Furniture Co. All the boys enjoyed the trip and the recreation, and are keen to go again.

Scouts are asked to assemble in front of Medford Furniture Store Friday at 3 p m. in uniform and equipped with a dime and a "Hot Dog" or so for supper. The troop will remain at the Lake for the evening program if the weather is suitable.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Noah Cucumber to Emilina Littlejohn. The Queen to Nannie Colouahoskie. Negroes. William R. Walker to Ida McKinney.

LYRIC TO GIVE BENEFIT PICTURE

On next Wednesday and Thursday the Lyric Theatre will show "Ham and Eggs at the Front" as a special benefit picture for the Sylva Baseball Club. The Baseball Club has arranged to have a number of young ladies make a canvass of the town and community in sale of tickets for the benefit show and the tickets will be on sale Saturday Monday; Tuesday; Wednesday and Thursday.

Ham and Eggs at the Front is said to be a side-splitting comedy of the war featuring blackface comedians in the trenches with Tom Wilson; Heinie Conklin and Myrna Loy as the principal actors.

There have been many stories told of the grim side of the war but not many realize there were just as many funny ones most of which will remain buried for a long time. The story of "Ham and Eggs at the Front" written by Darryl Francis Zanuck for a comedy film for Warner Bros. is one of these stories done into comedy film which presents the experiences of two members of a negro regiment at the front played by two black face comedians Tom Wilson and Heinie Conklin. The uniform could not protect them from the fears which superstition creates in the hearts of every negro. They succumb to their belief in ghosts rabbits feed and the lure of women as does many a white brother. Unlike a lot of white folks however they work out of their jams gayly creating some of the funniest motion pictures ever made.

Another feature of the show on this date will be the first chapter of the Lyric's new serial picture "The Jungle Goddess" as well as the usual two reel comedy and the news reel. The usual admission charge of 10c and 25c will be made.

ROTARIANS WILL BACK WORK FOR CRIPPLED TOTS

The Sylva Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon meeting at the Potluck Tea House Tuesday voted unanimously to underwrite the clinics for crippled children of the county and authorized president Candler to so notify the proper authorities of the State Board of Health and Miss Eleanor Ormond the county health nurse.

The orthopedic clinics will be held in Sylva at which time the children with defective limbs will be examined by experts from the state board of health and all of them who can be benefitted by surgical or other treatment will be given the benefit of such treatment.

GROW BEEF CATTLE SAYS LIVESTOCK MAN

Raleigh, N C. August 15—No other section can produce good quality beef cattle more economically than the South, and North Carolina in particular, for the reason that lands are still cheap; grazing is good; the pasture season is long; feed is produced at low cost and not much shelldeline to crop farming.

"For these reasons we can start in the cattle business in this State with less capital than any other section" says Fred M Haig animal husbandry worker at State College. "Out of the twenty-five million acres of farm land in North Carolina, six million are being cultivated. This includes all of our pasture and hay land and thus there must be plenty of land left for grazing. Most of the 161000 head of beef cattle now in the State are found in the western part where the land is rough and grass grows readily. Still the eastern portion also offers possibilities to the man who may grow his beef as a sdeline to crop farming."

Prof. Haig finds that many crop farmers of the east are already turning to dairying with success and he believes that the raising of a few beef cattle would add to the income. The small amount of labor required would come in the fall after crop work is over.

Feeding beef cattle works along well with hog growing and the manure secured will add to the fertility of the land.

However Prof Haig cautions the beginner to start slowly and gradually add to his beef cattle herd as he becomes more familiar with feeding and marketing methods. One sure rule to follow is not to attempt feeding more cattle than the corn and hay grown on the farm will supply. In many sections where cattle feeding has been started the grower starts with only a few animals and markets his surplus locally. If the market is not satisfactory he may combine with a neighbor and ship a car to the larger livestock markets. This same method is being used successfully by hundreds of swine growers all over the State.

EASTERN STAR TO HOLD DISTRICT MEETING

The Eastern Star of the 13th District will meet at Bryson City on August 31st for an all day meeting. The secretary requests all members of the Sylva chapter to be present. Dinner will be served by the Bryson City Chapter

Tom Tarheel says the best part of August is the time given to picnics, barbecues, swimming parties and all day preaching.

TUCKASEEGEE RUNS HIGH ASHE BRIDGE WASHED OUT

Heavy rains for the past few days raised the Tuckasegee river to its highest point in recent years Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday night doing considerable damage to crops in lowlands and washing out at least three bridges. The new bridge just completed by the county a few weeks ago at the mouth of the Ashe branch between Sylva and Cullowhee at a cost of approximately $5000.00 was washed from its piers Wednesday night and is lodged a short distance below the site of the bridge. The covered bridge across the river above East Laporte and the bridge across Tuckasegee at the mouth of Waychutta are both gone it is reported this morning.

The superiority of the climate west of the Balsams was again demonstrated as highway No 10 from Sylva to Asheville and the Murphy Division of the Southern are said to be the only roads leading into Asheville upon which traffic was not disturbed recalling the days of the flood of 1916 when the Murphy Division was the only means of traffic into Asheville from any direction and proving that the mountain barriers not only protect this immediate region from heat and cold but also from windstorms and extreme flood conditions.

THEY LIKE THE JOURNAL IN HAWAII

Schofield Barracks T H June 25 1928. Mr Dan Tompkins Editor Jackson County Journal Sylva N C

Dear Sir: Just a few words to let you know that I have received the Journal and was very glad to hear from Jackson county. You publish a right newsy little weekly and I always enjoy reading it and then pass it on to another Jackson County boy; Pherron D. Bryson of the 3rd Engineers I am in Company "A" of the 27th Infantry.

We have been in the Hawaiian Islands for almost a year and like it fine but its nothing compared with our own wonderful North Carolina.

We have been in quite a few states and were through the Panama Canal but still we can't see that any of them have anything on Western North Carolina We shall not be satisfied until we see North Carolina again

Thanking you very much for the service in delivering the paper and you may look for a renewal when my subscription is out.

Sincerely
Ralph Long
Co "A" 27th Inf

Dear Editor: If you will allow me the privilege would like to add just a few words to what Mr Long has said I cannot say that I am as well satisfied with these Islands as he but quite agree with him when he says that old North Carolina is the best State we have

Your paper was quite interesting and entertaining and we certainly enjoy hearing from North Carolina. Will write to you again in the near future and tell you more of the Hawaiian Islands as I expect to see quite a lot of them during the next few weeks.

Wishing you and all the Tar Heels the best of luck and thanking you for this chance to express my feelings for the old Home State.

Respectfully

a trip to the Cherokee Indian Reservation will be given to the visitors attending.

Those attending may stay in the dormitories of the school at $1.00 per day including three meals. Guests will be expected to bring bed linen, towels, soap etc. A registration fee of $1 for the entire week, or twenty five cents per day will be charged to help defray expenses of the Encampment. Dormitories will be open Sunday afternoon Aug 19th for the reception of guests.

Dr. I M Mercer and James A. Ivey will speak at the initial meeting Sunday afternoon at three o'clock when a great crowd is expected from all parts of Western North Carolina.

RECORDER'S COURT

A large number of cases were disposed of in Recorder's court, Monday and Tuesday, before Judge Geo. W Sutton

Guy Seagle and Barnell Ridley were indicted on a charge of forgery. With consent of Judge Walter E. Moore, resident judge of this judicial district, and Solicitor Grover C. Davis, the bill of indictment was changed to forcible trespass, to which charge the two young men plead guilty before Judge Sutton, and were given sentences of 12 months on the roads, which sentence was suspended upon the payment of the costs, and the good behavior of the defendants. Joe Burton Stanley, Assault with a deadly weapon, plea guilty of simple assault and fined $10 and the costs.

Bailey Dyre, violation of the prohibition laws, nol pros. Same defendant, assault plea of guilty judgment suspended upon payment of the costs.

DISTRICT ROTARY GOVERNOR TO BE HERE

Dr. William Way of Charleston, S. C. District Governor of Rotary, will visit Sylva next Tuesday. The local rotarians are planning to have ladies night at that time in honor of the coming of the district governor.

Enough hogs are on feed in Columbus county to ship two cars this fall, and other demonstrations are being arranged by the county agent.
