

Americans Who Have Won Laurels at the Olympic Games

AMERICA LEADS ALL NATIONS IN OLYMPICS

With members of the Royal Dutch family looking on, the ninth Olympiad came to an official close at Amsterdam last week. Queen Wilhelmina appeared in a surprise by appearing in the royal box, and handed out the gold medals won by the contestants. Prince Henry gave out the silver medals and Count Baillet-Latour, President of the International Olympic Committee, presented the bronze medals. The United States won twenty-two first prizes, seventeen silver medals and fifteen bronze medals, making a total of fifty-four Olympic prizes, the largest of any nation. Figures denoted that the ninth Olympiad netted a profit of almost half a million dollars. Expenses in connection with it amounted to $1,085,000 and the income is estimated at $1,516,250. The Olympiad is the greatest track and field competition in the world. There were nearly 5,000 contestants this year, all strong, ready to give their utmost efforts for the glory of their various countries. The Olympic games derive their name from the little city of Olympia in Greece where the Greeks held their athletic meet every four years. When Greece was at her grandest and noblest, the reverence paid to the Olympic winners was astounding. Not only was the victor honored, but the glory was shared by his entire family. The super-athletes were honored above all men.

pioneer in paying good wages to all his help and looking out constantly for their welfare. Ford maintains corps of social workers to look after his employees and their families, also legal and medical facilities free of charge to employer, and a school for the teaching of the English language. He built the Henry Ford hospital at the cost of $7,500,000. There is no waste motion at the Ford plant. Everything is done so efficiently that not a minute's time nor a scrap of material is lost.

Ford is a genius both as to the big undertakings of life and as to the little details. He is constantly in the public eye. But few know that the world's richest man hails from a small town in Michigan.

THE MEN FROM SMALL TOWNS

HENRY FORD

Henry Ford is one of the outstanding mechanical geniuses of the age as well as perhaps the richest man in the world. Every dollar of Henry Ford's fortune has been earned by his own hard work and mechanical ingenuity. Henry Ford was born in Greenfield, Mich., in 1863. He is one of the most remarkable products of American small town life. He learned the machinist's trade, and for some time was with the Edison Illuminating Company, where he gained the title of Chief Engineer. In 1903 he organized the Ford Motor Company, and became the largest manufacturer of automobiles in the world, employing over 200,000 persons and turning out 7,500 automobiles a day. The great popularity of the Ford car was due to its quality combined with low price. The inexpensive auto proved a great boon to the farmers of the country. Ford has just brought out a new model which has excited wonder and admiration. He never rests on achievement. In order to bring out the new model, he had to spend millions to completely revamp his gigantic plant. In 1914 Ford announced a plan of profit-sharing involving distribution of ten to thirty million dollars annually to employees. Ford has been a
