METHODIST CHURCH SERVICES

"Christianity and Amusements" will be the subject of the Methodist pastor, Rev. George Clemmer, Sunday morning at the Methodist church in Sylva. In the evening Mr. Clemmer will preach at the Methodist church in Dillsboro on this subject, "Why I Believe in Religion."

The morning theme is a very practical one. Christians are always facing the problem of finding the right attitude towards worldly amusements. May a Christian dance, play bridge, attend theatres, and so on? The sermon will be an effort to present what the pastor of the Methodist church believes to be a Christian attitude toward popular amusements of the day.

Any one interested in the discussion of this subject is cordially invited to attend this service and hear with his own ears rather than through those of some one else.

In the evening there will be a mass meeting of the membership of the Sylva congregation, at which time the immediate future of the Epworth League will be determined. Mrs. E. L. McKee, Dan Tompkins and others will make brief talks. Sunday schools will convene at 10 a. m.

The following order will be observed in the morning and evening services.

Morning service 11 a. m., Sylva Voluntary; Hymn No. 73, "Lord We Come Before Thee Now;" The Apostles' Creed; Prayer; Responsive reading No. 320; The Gloria Patri; New Testament lesson Romans 14th chapter; Announcements; Offering; Offertory; Hymn No. 48, "Walk In The Light;" Sermon: "Christianity and Amusements;" Hymn No. 49, "O Jesus I Have Promised;" Benediction. Evening service, Dillsboro, 7:45 Voluntary; Hymn No. 31, "Holy, Holy, Holy;" Responsive reading No. 305; Prayer; Scripture lesson John 1:1-18; Announcements; Offering; Hymn No. 20, "Break Thou The Bread of Life;" Sermon: "Why I Believe in Religion;" Hymn No. 58, "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah;" Benediction.

HAS BRIDGE FOR GUEST
