Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva, has been appointed a member of the Jackson county board of charities and public welfare for a term of three years by the state board of charities and public welfare at Raleigh. Other members of the Jackson county board are Mrs. C. Z. Candler, of Sylva, and F. I. Watson, of Dillsboro, whose terms do not expire until 1929 and 1930.

The duties of the county board are to advise with and assist the state board in the work of the county, and to act in a general advisory capacity to the county and municipal authorities in dealing with questions of dependency and delinquency, distribution of the poor funds, and social conditions generally.

The law provides for a meeting of the county board of charities and public welfare at least once a month. The term for appointment is three years.

MR. AND MRS. OLIVER IMPROVING RAPIDLY

Both Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Oliver, who were injured in an automobile accident, Sunday morning, on Walnut street, near their home, are improving. Mrs. Oliver, who suffered a broken rib and other painful mjuries, is able to be up and about; but Mr. Oliver is still confined to his bed. Mr. Oliver, a prominent and loved citizen of Sylva, has been a sufferer from rheumatism, for several years, and the shock from the accident left him in what was feared The accident occurred when the to church, and driven by Miss Ruth Oliver, bursar of Cullowhee State Normal School, plunged against a large tree, on the side of the street, near the Methodist parsonage, smashing the radiator and breaking the windshield.

BAILEY TO SPEAK HERE

Josiah William Bailey will address the people of this county, in Sylva. at 1 o'clock, Monday October 8. Mr: Bailey is one of the foremost attorneys of North Carolina. He gained a reputation as a brilliant newspaper writer and speaker, while he was editor of the Biblical Recorder organ of the Baptists of North Carolina. During the present campaign, Mr. Bailey has been winning high praise all over North Carolina, for the magnificent and forceful speeches he has been making and the high plane upon which he has been conducting the campaign. At every place where he has spoken he has been heard by record-breaking crowds.
