In his policy of economy, President Harrison is systematizing the consideration of public business in the government departments.

A cotton factory is to be built at Charlotte.

The people of Florence, S. C., will celebrate the formation of their new county with a grand banquet.

Wm. C. Williams and Harrison Heywood, both colored, who were under sentence of death for lynching Manse Wildrop, a white man at Central, S. C., who outraged a young colored girl, causing her death, have been granted full pardon by Governor Richardson.

Red Cloud, the big Sioux Chief, called on the President.

The editor acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary membership in the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly.

Miss Mary Fitzgerald opened a school in Waynesville on the 15th.

Bryson City has a board of health.

Rev. W. R. Barnett has been chosen to deliver the commencement address before the Hayesville male and female College.

Harrison has appointed two Negro women postmasters in this state.

The first charge of ice was taken from the Greensboro ice factory, Monday, April 8. The works are pronounced a success.

Asheville's new paper, The Evening Journal, made its appearance under the management of Mr. Theodore Hobgood, on the 16th inst.

Jackson Academy enjoys a holiday. The principal is attending court at Webster.

The hack line and livery service of J. W. Divelbiss is being called into almost constant service.

We understand that express messenger Isbell has made quite a "dash" on one of Sylva's fair damsels.

Gen. E. R. Hampton has purchased the mill property from the several owners and will conduct a good flour mill in the future. He is having the property repaired.

Mr. W. M. Burns, one of our enterprising merchants has purchased from a party in Haywood county a fine buggy horse, which is attracting a deal of admiring attention.

Capt. Jack Edwards has a brand new gold-colored-star-spangled banner, conductor's cap, which adds much to the already handsome appearance of that popular and efficient conductor.

The supreme court has rendered a decision affirming the findings of the superior court in the case of the State vs John McMahan, who will hang unless the Governor interferes.

Jackson Academy roll of honor: Misses Pauline Morris, Ella Bumgarner, Maggie Brendle, and Annie Lizzie Jarrett and Ellerslie A. Wolff.

Mr. H. A. Brown of Hamburg called in to see us on his way to court. He reports educational and agricultural matters on a boom in his neighborhood. Prof. Pinckard has an attendance of fifty scholars at his summer school. Hamburg seems to be leading in educational matters.

The following visiting lawyers are in attendance at Webster court: W. W. Jones, Thos. A. Jones, and Locke Craig, Asheville, W. B. and G. S. Ferguson, ex-Judge J. C. L. Gudger, G. H. Smathers, W. L. Norwood, Solicitor Moody, Waynesville, R. L. Leatherwood, A. M. Frye, Charleston, J. F. Ray, Hon. Kope Elias, Geo. A. Jones, Franklin, Att'y Gash, Hendersonville.

Wilnot people want a bridge across the Tuckaseige.
