THE SAME OLD WORLD—A WONDERFUL STORY OF PROGRESS—RURAL EXTRAVAGANCE

A recent magazine writer contends that friendship is passing. . . . It is the same old world—so far as friendship is concerned, and in nearly everything else, except that we have more tops to play with. . . . The modern man, when time hangs heavily, turns on the radio, to see what sort of devilment is going on in other parts of the world, in an older generation, and a bored man shouldered his rifle, and went out to shoot an Indian.

I have observed that literature is unfriendly to men. Yet, in all fairness, and justice, the most marvelous thing is the progress men have made. Tell me, if you can, a tale as wonderful as the growth of man from barbarism or worse to his present state.

A writer in a farm publication says: "No century has ever seen such a thing as rural extravagance." . . . Extravagance is as common in the country as in the towns. When a farmer buys more machinery than he needs, and lets it stand out in the weather when not in use, what is that but extravagance?

When he over-borrows at the bank, that is extravagance. When he spends more time in town than is necessary or profitable that is another exhibition of it. Farmers live too economically so far as food and housing go, and are too extravagant with agents, and in the use of their working hours. We sympathize with farmers because their calling is not very profitable. This is true of many others. Teachers and preachers are worse paid than farmers. There are millions of clerks not so well paid as farmers, and factory employes everywhere are appealing to the government and public for help. And in all the hullabaloo the fact remains that citizens of all classes may do pretty well in this fat country if they accept generous opportunities, and handle them with reasonable intelligence and efficiency. And the fact remains that those who chose to appeal for aid cannot be much helped by public appropriations or tears.

We can no more make everybody prosperous than we can make everybody healthy; there are elements entering into the problem going back to heredity, individualism; general preaching, general prayers, bulk sympathy will not do; life is a problem to each individual, and we can only treat him as well as he treats us.

I lately heard a woman talk of a male relative who had been a drunkard all his adult life, and she made one statement that interested me. She said all the man's relatives, friends, and acquaintances were in league to keep him away from whiskey but that he could go into any strange community anywhere on earth without funds, and within a few hours secure all the whiskey he wanted, and be howling drunk. . . . Often the needful things may not be had for love or money, but whiskey and pistols seem to be within reach of anyone wishing to use them.

I often hear of what mothers should "tell" young daughters. The first should be the agony and danger the best of wives suffer, the second, the inevitable disposition of men to be less thoughtful as husbands than as lovers. Such information is gross and material, but young girls are entitled to know what they are stepping into when they put on wedding dresses.

Hints for the Home

by Nancy Hart

It is no longer sufficient merely to place on the dressing table a "set" of toilet ware. To be smart, one must have mirror, brush, comb and cream jars that complement the decorative scheme.

Created by foremost modern artists, period and modern designs in most exquisite colors have made their appearance. For the room of 18th Century influence there is a charming Watteau design, done in burgundy and cream in the toile du Juoy manner. Another and more formal pattern follows the classic lines of Napoleon's day; a third adapts the lines of modern art to the Wedgwood motif which has been a favorite for centuries.

When planning improvements in home-furnishings for fall it is well to remember this fashion trend which so definitely stamps the toilet table as to date.

Fish Scalloped with Vegetables

1 small onion, 1 cup water, 1 cup creamed fish, 1 cup chopped buttered carrots, 1 cup cooked spaghetti, 1 tsp. salt and a little pepper. Remove seeds from pepper, chop onion and cook the two 10 minutes in water. Add all other ingredients; put in baking dish, sprinkle liberally with grated cheese and bake in moderate oven for 30 minutes.

Rice Combination Salad

1½ cups cooked rice, 4 tbs. chopped celery, salt, 4 tbs. chopped pimiento, 3 tbs. grated cheese, 4 tbs. green peppers or olives. Combine ingredients and serve on lettuce with French dressing or mayonnaise.

Macaroon Bisque

Whip 1 cup heavy cream until stiff, sweeten with powdered sugar and flavor with vanilla. Break 6 macaroons into small pieces and add to the cream. Pile in sherbet glasses with a border of whole macaroons. Garnish with maraschino cherries and set away in refrigerator to become thoroughly chilled.

Apple Butter with Grape Juice

If a grape flavor is desired in apple butter it may be obtained by the use of grape juice. To each gallon of peeled and sliced apples, cooked into sauce and strained, add 1 pint grape juice, 1 cup brown sugar and ¼ teaspoon salt. Cook slowly and stir often for 2 hours, or until of desired thickness. Then add 1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Remember this when Ironing

If you iron with the threads—preferably lengthwise threads—the cloth is less likely to stretch out of shape. Real linen, all table linen and starched articles must be ironed perfectly dry to give them a gloss.

Protects Cut Fruit

If you place a sheet of oiled paper over cut fruit such as oranges, grapefruit, melons, and lay the fruit cut side down on a flat plate no juice will be lost and the fruit will keep perfectly fresh.
