Fall Football, and Frost are in the air.

An engraver states that the new money is dangerous. Too slippery?

Imagine naming a Ku Klux Klan for Alexander H. Stephens; but there is one by that name.

Blackmer can afford to pay that $60,000.00 fine for failing to appear as a witness against Fall and Sinclair, provided he got his share of the boodle.

If the barons' buyers continue to refuse to pay the farmers a profit on their tobacco, just what is Eastern North Carolina to use for money, this fall and winter?

Andrew J. Volstead, father of the Volstead Act, is about to make the race for congress again, this time in a special election in Wisconsin. We shall see whether the fame of Milwaukee still stands.

The new tariff bill, when it is passed, should stimulate business for a while. Everybody who can get any money will want to buy their necessities as far ahead as possible, before necessities get out of our reach.

The United States Senate has under consideration the matter of seating William S. Vare as senator from Pennsylvania. Vare candidates, nevertheless, and notwithstanding, swept the Philadelphia Republican primaries by a vote of two to one.

Merger follows merger. The big boys are grabbing everything. Eternal Vigilance is the price of liberty".
And we confess that the American people have been too engrossed in other things to be very vigilant, of recent years.

Republican leaders are trying to pacify Westerners on the tariff bill.
Those who desire Republican success should remember that it was a less offensive tariff act that brought about the Bull Moose revolt and sent Woodrow Wilson to the White House

The Stanley News Herald agrees with our statement that Senator Simmons has gone Democratic, cites an instant or two in the past when he has done the same things, and even ventures a wish that he might be dependent upon to stay put, this time.

The strangest economic theory ever advanced in the world is that a people can shut themselves up behind a tariff wall, aloof from the rest of mankind, and tax themselves rich; yet this is the theory to which a great part of our countrymen have subscribed for a great many years.

Somebody should compile the statistics showing how much tax the usury corporations pay in this State.
The information should be of interest to the next general assembly, if it goes to Raleigh with the purpose of serving the interests of the people of North Carolina.

Wouldn't it be a treat, in these days of pilf and pillage, if Theodore Roosevelt, The Greater, Woodrow Wilson, William Jennings Bryan, Sockless Jerry Simpson, and Jonathan P. Dolliver, to say nothings of Zeb Vance, could tak the platform and talk to the people about the giant mergers and the tariff?

David Lawrence predicts the passage of the high tariff bill and its signature by President Hoover. It takes neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet to tell that. We have all known it since about 1 o'clock on the morning following the general election; although we were solemnly told, during the campaign that there was no difference between the two parties on the tariff.

It is generally understood by Eastern manufacturers, especially the verbose Mr. Grundy, who makes worsted, that the new tariff will make shoddy clothing cost as much as the better, thus forcing folks to buy Mr. Grundy's worsteds. Of course good clothing is better than shoddy; but what of the folks who can only afford to buy the shoddy? What are we to use for clothes, when our kind costs as much as a good suit?
