$2.00 Year in Advance outside the County

GIVE THREE ROAD TERMS MONDAY

Kelse Golden, Webster man was sentenced to serve 12 months on the roads, after having been convicted of the larceny of corn, from the mill of Tyler Buchanan, in the Recorder's Court, Monday.

Alton Parker, Caney Fork youth, was convicted of the larceny of a small sum of money from Javan Coward, and was sentenced to serve 3 months on the road. He appealed. Appeal bond was fixed at $300.00.

S. A. Ashe was tried on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon T. S. Ashe. Mr. T. S. Ashe, the prosecuting witness, appeared in court in an obviously weak condition. His testimony to the effect that his wounds were inflicted by S. A. Ashe, was heard. The court ordered the defendant to be changed to the felony charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, and in which serious injury was inflicted, found probable cause, and ordered S. A. Ashe held under bond in the sum of $7000.00 for his appearance at the October term of the superior court, to answer to the charge.

R. W. Fawcett was tried on a charge of embezzlement. Probable cause was found.

Wise Dorsey and Lewis Dorsey, two Sylva Negroes, were tried for an attack, and sentenced to two years on the roads. The sentence was suspended for two years on the payment of $10.00 each and the costs and upon good behavior.

Dillard Dodgins, convicted of an assault with a deadly weapon, was sentenced to six months on the roads.

HOOVER SIGNS INDIAN BILL

President Hoover has signed Representative Pritchard's bill enfranchising the members of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians in Jackson, Swain and Graham counties.

This bill, which with its passage by both houses of Congress and signature by Mr. Hoover, has now become law, is generally considered, locally, as a political development of the first import. It is pointed out that, if any considerable number of the Cherokees are registered, they will hold the balance of power in Jackson and Swain counties, probably in two senatorial districts, could easily elect a solicitor of their own choosing, and, in a great many instances hold the congressional district in their grasp.

Republican leaders are expecting a large vote to be added to their party by granting the right of franchise to the Cherokees.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS MEET ON TOP OF CANEY FORK BALD

Two Sunday Schools, one from Caney Fork and one from Ochee Hill, gathered Saturday morning on the summit of Old Bald, carrying loads of good things to eat. After enjoying games and sports on top of Old Bald, a horseback trip was made to Lone Balsam. The party then returned to the camp, where prayer was read and the Bible read by Rev. Ben Cook.

Three choirs, led by Eula Cook, Rev. Hobert Broom, and Albert Blanton, sang a number of selections.

Sunday morning, the crowd again assembled on top of the mountain, where, after singing, the Sunday school lesson was taught by Billy Farley, prayer by Rev. Hobert Broom, and a talk made by Rev. Ben Cook.

The party then returned to camp where a good dinner, including chicken and dumplings, of which Mr. Hooper was the artist, was served. The following were present at the picnic: S. J. Hooper, J. M. Blanton, W. M. Farley, Sam Cook, Alice Cook, Lee Jones, W. A. Hooper, Rev. Ben Cook, Rev. Hobert Broom, H. B. Hooper, Eula Cook, C. P. Dillard, Bill Crawford, Albert Blanton, John Shuler, Delos Blanton, Annie B. Shuler, Lee Blanton, Florence Blanton, Wade Hoyle, Raymond Blanton, Winfred Blanton, Bedford Blanton, Wayne Hoyle, Charlie Blanton, Roger Dillard, Roy Dillard, Guy Blanton, Avery Cook, Glenn Blanton, Virgil Hooper, Oscar Nicholson, Essie Hooper, Lora Hooper, Nelson Jones, D. Jones, Edgar Cook, Elmore Cook, Fred Bryson, D. Ashe, Ernest Bryson, Roy Bryson, and Walter Queen.

THE WEEK

The House passed the Veterans' Relief Bill, for the benefit of World War Veterans, and sent it to the Senate. That body, despite a protest from President Hoover, voiced in a letter to Senator Watson, passed the bill by a vote of 66 to 6, only 6, all Standpat Republican leaders voting against it. A prompt veto is expected. The Senate is said to be in the mood to override the Presidential veto, as was done in the case of the bill for the Spanish-American War Veterans, but the House Republicans held a caucus and enough of them agreed to try to draft a substitute more to the liking of Mr. Mellon and Mr. Hoover, to obviate another squelching of the President.

The Lindberghs have a baby boy. Hope the child will have sense enough to do like his father and ignore the foolish, fawning, sentimentalism that the American people have already begun to shower upon him. If he hasn't, he is a ruined boy to begin with.

In this day of get the money, it is well to remember that the greatest message ever delivered among men was and is, "As ye did it unto the least of these my brethren, ye did it unto me".

Three more fools by name Capt. Kingsford-Smith, Evert Van Dyk, and John Stanley Stoungue, flew across the Atlantic in a land plane. They left Port Marmock, near Dublin, and landed in Newfoundland.

President Hoover signed the bill, attempting, by act of Congress to regulate suffrage in Jackson and Swain counties, by enfranchising the Cherokee Indians, whose Reservation lands are exempt from taxation in the counties, by orders from Washington. And, this country was originally intended to be a federation of sovereign States.

The major problem in America is said to be the disposal of the surplus products. Easy. Arrange some way for the people who need it to get the wherewithal to buy it.

Dwight W. Morrow was nominated by the Republicans of New Jersey by a majority of 250,000. He ran on a platform somewhat resembling the Indian ocean in dampness; and was endorsed, immediately after his nomination, by President Hoover. Eighteen months ago we were all warned to vote for Mr. Hoover as the only salvation for prohibition. Republicans and Hoover Democrats raved and ranted over the prospect of the election of Al Smith. Now we have Mr. Morrow running as a regular Republican nominee for United States senator, on a wet platform, with the personal and presidential blessing of Mr. Hoover.

WILL HAVE NO SECOND PRIMRY

There will be no solicitorial second primary in this judicial district. Thad D. Bryson Jr of Bryson City, the runner-up with John M. Queen, of Waywood, has withdrawn his name, in the interest of party harmony.

A meeting of Democrats of the district, hurriedly and informally called, but largely attended, was held in Sylva on Monday afternoon, for the purpose of ascertaining the wishes of the Democrats of the district regarding the second primary. Every county in the district was represented, with the exception of Clay, and the unanimous opinion was that it was not desired by the voters. Neither Mr. Queen nor Mr. Bryson was present. Following the expression of opinion, Mr. C. C. Angel, brother-in-law of Mr. Bryson announced that he was authorized by Mr. Bryson to say that he wanted no second primary, had only called it because he had been led to believe that a large number of the voters wished him to do so, and to make the statement that his name was withdrawn, and that he was heartily supporting Mr. Queen. The meeting adopted a resolution congratulating Mr. Bryson upon the handsome vote he received, and commending his attitude toward the second primary.

R. L. Phillips of Graham presided at the meeting, and J. R. Morrison, of Macon, was secretary.

JOHN BOOTH PRICE DIES OF INJURIES

John Booth Price, of Tuckaseige, died, Monday evening, in the Angel Hospital in Franklin, from injuries received, Saturday, while he was working with the State highway maintenance force on Niggerskull Mountain.

Mr. Price attempted to crank a truck, and the vehicle started, jarring him against a bank with the bumper, and severing an intestine. He was rushed to Franklin, and an operation was performed, in an attempt to save his life.

Mr. Price, who was born and reared at Tuckaseige, was 26 years of age. He is survived by his widow, his father, P. N. Price, of Tuckaseige, one brother, Charles Price, of Sylva, three sisters, Mrs. James Smith, Miss Essie Price, and Miss Lettie Price, or Tuckaseige, and other relatives.

Funeral and interment were held Tuesday afternoon at Tuckaseige, Rhododendron Council, Royal Arcanum, of which he was a member, having charge of the burial.

40 YEARS AGO

Tuckaseige Democrat June 25, 1890

The Jackson County Democratic Convention is called to be held in Webster on the 12th day of July. The precinct meetings will be held in the townships on July 5. The following are appointed to hold the township meetings: Quallatown, J. A. Gibbs; Barker's Creek, Samuel C. Allison; Dillsboro, S. T. Early; Sylva, O. B. Coward; Webster, C. C. Cowan; Savannah, B. H. Jones; Cullowhee, R. H. Brown; Scott's Creek, S. R. Cook; River, D. A. Davis; Caney Fork, John Hunter; Canada, James Wood; Hamburg, John T. Collins; Cashier's Valley, Thomas R. Zachary.

We are requested to give notice that Rev. Dr. Millet, of the Presbyterian church will preach in the High school building at Cullowhee, on Sunday.

We are requested to announce Gen. E. R. Hampton, of Sylva a candidate to represent this senatorial district in the General Assembly of North Carolina, subject to the action of the Democratic convention.

We are requested to announce that Mr. A. M. Frye of Bryson City is a candidate for the office of Senator to represent this district, subject to the action of the Democratic convention.

The Count Alliance meets at Dillsboro on July 4. What about the Confederate Veterans' Association? Can't we all get together at Dillsboro too, and altogether have a "glorious fourth" in fitting manner?

Messrs Cummings and Buffum put finishing touches, last week, on their immense dam and boom at Dillsboro, designed to catch logs to be floated down the Tuckaseige River.

Messrs A. Howell, W. B. Ferguson, and R. D. Gilmer have purchased the Waynesville Courier, and its publication will be resumed about July 1.

Prof. Robert L. Madison went to Waynesville and Asheville yesterday to arrange reduced rates for board and travel for persons attending the Western North Carolina Educational Association.

MISS THOMPSON PASSES

Funeral services were conducted at Old Field, Sunday for Miss Lizzie Thompson, who died, Saturday, at her home near Beta.

Miss Thompson, who was 46 years of age, is survived by one sister, Miss Flora Thompson, and three brothers, Dave, Ben and Cole Thompson.

New Leader

Josiah W. Bailey, who defeated the veteran Senator Simmons of North Carolina for the Democratic Senate nomination.

DEMOCRATS TO HOLD CONVENTION SATURDAY

The Democratic county convention will be held in the court house in Sylva, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, pursuant to a call made by E. L. McKee, chairman of the county executive committee of that party.

J. Scroop Styles and Ellis C. Jones have been invited to address the convention. Both of these gentlemen are Asheville attorneys; but both are native of Jackson, and have moved to Asheville, where they have been unusually successful in the practice of their profession. Mr. Styles is a native of Qualla, while Mr. Jones was born and reared on Savannah. The convention will elect delegates to the State convention, elect a chairman of the county executive committee, and transact other business.

REED WILL PREACH SUNDAY IN METHODIST PULPITS

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. George Clemmer, Rev. W. C. Reed, newly elected principal of Sylva High School, will occupy the pulpit of the Sylva Methodist church in the morning at 11, and that of the Methodist church at Dillsboro in the evening.

The subject which Mr. Reed will discuss in the morning is, "The Fruitful Life". In the evening at 8 o'clock he will speak on some theme of popular interest. The public is cordially invited to hear this popular minister and teacher, who is not without honor in his own country.

Mr. Clemmer will preach Sunday morning and evening at Lake Junaluska. The Sunday Schools of the charge meet at 10 a. m.

NUMBER OF SCOUTS GOING TO CAMP DANIEL BOONE

In view of the fact that no great trip is to be taken by the Boy Scouts of Sylva this year, several of the boys are planning to attend one or more of the ten day camp sessions at Camp Daniel Boone.

The Camp is open to all Scouts of the Daniel Boone council. It is under the supervision of trained Scout leaders, and the price is very reasonable. $10.50 covers all expenses for the ten days. Parents are urged to give the boys the benefit of ten days at camp this year, if possible. It is thought now that the Sylva Scouts will attend the session beginning July 17. Parents or Scouts who are interested are advised to see Mr. Clemmer immediately.

BALSAM

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Knight and three children, Mrs. George Knight and son, Miss Nannie Knight, Miss Janis Brinks of Dotham, Ala., and Mrs. D. T. Knight spent Monday enjoying the beautiful scenery in the Nantahala Gorge, Indian Reservation, Smokemont, and other places in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lee, Jr. were in Balsam the first of the week and spent several days.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. John B. Queen celebrated his 66 birthday Sunday with a picnic dinner at "Green Pastures", the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Horton, of Atlanta. The birthday cake, furnished by the youngest son, Mr. Grady Queen of Canton, was decorated with sixty-six candles. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Queen and four children, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Christy, Mr. and Mrs. Bryson Beck, of Balsam, and Mr. and Mrs. Waits Cuthbertson and children, of Almond. Mr. Queen received many useful and handsome gifts.

TO HOLD JULY 4TH CELEBRATION

The Parsons Tanning Company Baseball Team, The Royal Arcanum, Junior Order United American Mechanics, and Woodmen of the World are preparing to hold an Independence Day celebration, at Allison Field in Sylva, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning, on July 4, and continuing through the day.

There will be two baseball games between the Parsons Tanning Company team and Hazelwood. One in the morning and one in the afternoon. There will be foot races, fat man's races, potato races, climbing the greased pole, and other sports and diversions.

Two patriotic speeches will be presented; but the names of the speakers have not yet been announced.

Picnic dinner will be served on the grounds. All families bringing baskets of dinner will be admitted free. An admission charge of 50 cents will be made for all others.

CULLOWHEE NOTES FROM TEACHERS COLLEGE

A number of the teachers from the college went to Whiteside last Sunday and took dinner at High Hampton. Among those on this trip were, Miss Donny Worley, Mr. E. P. T. Larson, Miss Fraser, Miss Maurie Simpson, Miss Mary Alice Haigler, Miss Lona Bill Braswell, Mr. Plemmons and Mr. Caldwell.

The Tom Thumb Golf course recently opened in Sylva is attracting the teachers from the college. A number of them are frequent visitors.

Several faculty members and a few students from the college are attending the State B. Y. P. U. Convention at Mars Hill this week. Dr. H. T. Hadden is on the program Thursday; Rev. and Mrs. I. K. Stafford, the pastor of the Baptist church and wife are also attending the convention.

Tuesday in chapel the college students heard an interesting lecture.

Dr. Hunter on the problems of education for teachers. His topic was: "Is the profession of training teachers educational—and when is a college not a college?" He brought out two facts relative to the training of teachers. In fact, he said they should have the best training in the world, in order to pass it on to the future generation. He stated that education should be based upon the nature and needs of the child; and the nature and needs of the country.

Two clubs have recently been organized at W. C. T. C. The first is the Kill Kare Klub, made up of third year students. It is an interesting fact to know that these are the first students are in this group and will be the first to receive degrees when they are conferred. These students will have charge of chapel, Thursday. Some music numbers, and a playlet will be given. The other club is "Ye Merrie Players". This club is a branch of the State organization of the Dramatic association. However, this particular group is unique in the fact of an unusual combination of dramatic and music students. The members are made up of Miss Lona Bill Braswell's piano students and the students from Creative Drama. Miss Braswell and Miss Flora Mae Hood are sponsors. The organization of Ye Merrie Players is to give a public performance near the close of the first term, consisting of three one-act plays, one of Paul Green's Negro plays, and one or two original plays written by the students. Miss Braswell's music pupils will furnish the music for the evening.

Murdered Reporter

Alfred (Jake) Lingie, Chicago police reporter, slain by gunmen. Chicago newspapers have offered rewards totalling $80,000 for the discovery of the murderers.

Hail! the U. S. Farmer!
