

JACKSON COUNTY JOURNAL
DAN TOMPKINS Editor.

Published Weekly by The JACKSON COUNTY JOURNAL CO

Entered as second class matter a post office at Sylva, N. C.

I told you all along that there was a lot of bull about that stock market.

It is a fine lot stout hearts; but stout hearts have ever been the winners of life's battles.

It is good tidings that the angels ought still ring through this old world. Without them, dark indeed would be our prospect.

The people of Asheville were half dead off as they think they are, and would, indeed be in the middle of an awful fix; but they are not.

The thing that didn't come down at the cost of living is the price we are having to pay the pipe for our little dance.

Frank McNinch may consider himself fitted for a power job, for he certainly believed that he was a power in North Carolina in 1928.

Asheville and Buncombe county would quit snapping and snarling at each other like a bunch of puppies, Western North Carolina could recover much quicker.

If you are so old and mean your self that you can't be happy, just bring happiness to the heart of some child. It will work wonders on your own heart.

We are as much opposed to the Methodist conference taking the Duke pay as is anybody; but the $32, 000 must have looked mighty good to the superannuated preachers, at this season.

Merry Christmas, says we, regardless of a few minor set backs and slight depression; and Merry Christmas we mean, for tough indeed would be the heart that cannot be merry at Christmas time.

There may be too much cotton, too much wheat, too much everything, at the children in this country who are insufficiently clad, and who are hungry for bread; would hardly agree with the statement.

Our private opinion is that Mr.
Hoover didn't care so much for the World Court anyway. Imagine Roosevelt or Wilson taking a licking by the Senate, on a matter of as grave importance as that, without even a hint of disapproval!

Senator Wheeler says that Mr.
McNinch is the best of the lot appointed to the federal power commission; which doesn't raise Mr. Hoover's powers of discernment to a very high level, so far as most North Carolinians are concerned.

"Failures, Misery, Agony and Woe," screams the West Asheville News in a headline; which is fully as silly as the Franklin Press splattering optimism and self confidence all over its front page. Neither pessimism nor false optimism will suffice to cope with the situation. Nothing will avail but truth, stark truth, coupled with faith and hard work.

From Mr. McNinch's ready replies to the Senate Committee, regarding campaign expenditures, when he had been so silent on the subject, in North Carolina, for many moons, we gather the general idea that even a Scotchman can loosen up, when he sees a lucrative job in the offing.

Out in Clay county, Uncle Johnny Crawford will celebrate his 101 birth day on Christmas. Much water has passed under the bridge since Uncle Johnny first saw the delectable mountains of this favored region; but we doubt, very seriously whether Western North Carolina has really improved, along the lines that really matter and make life worth while.

They are going to make a park of Lindberg's boyhood home, just because he was fool enough to start across the Atlantic in a land plane, lucky enough to get there; or is it because he is the son in law of Mr.
Morrow, the new superman, who came to us from the House of Mirgans via Mexico and a wet platform?
To our way of thinking, his old father, who opposed the Morgans and the political and economic system for which they stand, was by far the greatest hero and of inestimably more worth to the country.

If it wasn't for Uncle Andy Mellon, Santa Claus would probably do what would be of inestimable value at this time, and bring the veterans the cash in exchange for their bonus certificates; but, then Uncle Andy is the same Mellon who has been president during the Harding, Coolidge and Hoover administrations, and who has been loudly trumpeted as the "greatest secretary of the treasury since Alexander Hamilton" and who allowed all the money to be funneled up to Wall Street for the gamblers to use resulting in what have you.

WE WOULDN'T SWAP

The other day there was a gentleman in our office, who, by the way paid up his subscription in advance; and after he left, he got to thinking about him.

He lives in the country. He has a good, comfortable home, feather beds with white sheets on 'em, rock fire places, plenty of wood on his good farm, a smoke house full of meat, and potatoes, and cabbage, and canned fruits, and garden sass; put up against the winter. Cattle and sheep in the barns and hogs in the pens, feed in the lofts, and hay stacks; and a good trout stream, running down through the back pastures, where it breaks off into a rough, and picturesque gorge.

If we were he, we wouldn't swap places with any man in any city or town in the land.

FOR THE SENATE—CLYDE R. HOEY

The Journal proposes the name of Clyde R. Hoey, to succeed appointed Cameron Morrison in the United States Senate.

Mr. Hoey is a Democrat, all over, tried and true, and all the time.

Mr. Hoey is a man of exceptional ability, perhaps the ablest statesman in North Carolina.

He is a man of deep convictions, of pleasing personality; and with the ability to present his view point on matters and things in a most convincing manner.

He is a man of the people, for the people. He has no connection with the Power Trust, so far as anybody knows, except that he is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

We believe that Mr. Hoey could be depended upon to represent the plain people of North Carolina against all comers.

His modesty in effacing himself so that his brother in law, Governor Gardner, might climb the heights and dwell among the mighty, has endeared him to the people of this State, and it doubtful if any man has as many genuine admirers, who have implicit confidence in him, than has Clyde Hoey.
