Stock market acts like an old man with St. Vitus' dance.

Il Duce is applying the Italian boot to the Pope.

A civilized country is one in which a few people own nearly everything.

Business of throwing our hat into the air as Secretary Wilbur predicts a big future for the Park.

Purpose of the general assembly appears to have been to try to get better teaching for less money.

The President asserted at Valley Forge that the depression is a passing trial. Much as we regret to say it, it is capitalism that is on trial.

President says we are again at Valley Forge; but, Mr. President, is there a great victory for human freedom in sight?

"Friend Seen As Murderer of Physician," says a headline. He must have been a close friend, and most friendly disposed toward the deceased doctor.

Federal treasury is facing a deficit of a billion; but all that Mr.
 Mellon has to do is to issue a few securities, notes, and the like, while the rest of us can't make up our smaller deficits so easily.

The difference, Mr. President, between Valley Forge and present conditions, is that the soldiers then were hungry and ragged, because the country was poor; and now the army of the unemployed is in the same fix while this is the wealthiest country on the face of the earth.

The Presbyterians, meeting at Mon-treat, have withdrawn from the Federation of Churches of Christ in America, which, in view of the foolish utterances and doings of that body in recent years and months, has considerably increased the high esteem in which we have always held this level-headed and splendid body of Christians, known as Presbyterians.

Thrill murdering may be a great sport and possibly affords a thrill to both parties involved; but it is usually much harder on the murdere than the party of the first part, which shouldn't be the case. The party of the second part isn't there to play on the sympathies of the jury.

"Russia's Wild Youth Tamed And Being Taught To Work," asserts a headline. Maybe the Russians would give us a tip as to how it is done.

Governor Roosevelt is contemplating a tour of the central States; and only a short time ago somebody said that Mr. Roosevelt wasn't a candidate for president.

The aircraft of the United States has been playing at war, grim war, for some days. The assumption is that America is beset by foreign in-vader. Having destroyed the armies and craft of the enemy that was threatening New York, Boston, and Washington, the aerial fleet set south to repel an invasion from that quarter. Arriving at Fort Bragg, the bold airmen remained for many hours, for fear that there would be a rain and that they would get their pretty suits wet, and the paint on their radiant craft all splashed up.
 Which strikes us as ludicrous to the extreme that we have almost cracked a rib laughing at the mighty warriors and the high command of our incomparable army.

REVIVAL OF AGRICULTURE

Throughout Western North Carolina, and especially in Jackson county, there is, this year, a revival of interest in agriculture. More soil is under cultivation than in many years, and the people are working their land as never before.

Driven back to the soil by the depression that has brought widespread unemployment and distress throughout the entire country, the people of the mountains may find that there will be some blessing in the situation. When the lumbering operations, mines, and other "public works" began to open up in this region, people flocked to them, because they paid in cash for wages, and cash was a commodity that was scarce hereabouts. Many leaders thought at the time that people were making a mistake for the reason that nearly everybody had a comfortable living. Truly the people as a whole are worse off than they would have been, had the "public works" never come to Western North Carolina. Now they are turning back to the soil, and it may prove the salvation of this mountain country. We may not have much ready cash at first. It will take years of intelligent work and cooperative effort to bring agriculture and its allied pursuits to the point where the people generally can bank a great deal of money.

 Farm products are low, and will bring little in the markets; but we can eat, and that is more than a great many less fortunate folks can do.

CANADA RETALIATES

Maybe some day, the United States will learn the economic, as well as the spiritual truth in the words: "No man liveth unto himself alone." We have tried it. We refused to assume our part of the burden of maintaining the peace of the world, and of co-operating in rehabilitation of civilization, at the close of the Great War, when the United States Senate turned thumbs down upon the Treaty of Versailles, and the League of Nations Covenant, for no better reason than a hatred and a jealousy of Woodrow Wilson.

Following that we erected about us the highest tariff that had ever been proposed by any country in any age.
 Followed a period of wild speculation and soaring prices, in which the few prospered mightily, while the laborer and the farmer suffered, and the small business man saw his business decline day by day. To revenge this situation we again raised the tariff to undreamed of heights over the protest of every economist of note in the entire country.

Then came the tariff war, resulting in the present world depression, which has taken heavy toll from almost every American business man except the few at the top. Now, this week, the Dominion of Canada, one of our best customers has hit us a heavy blow, by placing high tariffs upon almost every commodity exported from the United States, and has done it deliberately, aimed it at American interests, in an effort to teach us the lesson that we cannot live unto ourselves alone.

An example is a tariff of 35 cent per cubic foot capacity of the container upon oranges, when not an orange is raised in the entire Dominion, nor can be. This will fall most heavily upon Florida and California, both of which are recognized as high tariff states in sympathies, and both of which gave their electoral vote to the present national administration.

The best way toward a solution of the difficulties that beset us, is to have an understanding about this tariff business. Why not call an international conference? Mr. Hoover puts his trust in conferences and commissions, anyway.

WHAT WE ALL NEED

A little more kindness, and a little less greed;
 A little more giving, and a little less greed;
 A little more smile, and a little less frown,
 A little less kicking a man when he's down;
 A little more "we," and a little less
 "I";
 A little more laugh, and a little less cry;
 A little more flowers on the pathway of life—
 And fewer on graves at the end of the strife.

SARAH KEENER McCONNELL

Mrs. George McConnell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Keener, and grand daughter of the noted Methodist Itinerant, Rev. Billy Hicks, was born and reared on her father's farm, most of which is now incorporated in the town of Sylva.
 At the age of sixteen she was converted, joined the Methodist Church, and was ever among the faithful.

When Miss Sarah E. Keener was nineteen years of age, she was happily married to George McConnell, who was born in Clay County, but has made his home in Jackson, near Webster. God gave these good people forty happy years together, and blessed them with a family of ten good children, nine of whom are still surviving, and one is deceased.

On May 25, 1931 the Silver Cord was unloosed, and Mrs. McConnell went away to her "Long Home." Her illness was of short duration, and her passing like a watch in the night.
 Sixty years, nine months, and fifteen days spans her earthly pilgrimage, and transit sojourn here, where we have no continuing city. She left on earth her husband, Mr. George McConnell, four sons, Will Sevier Walker Burch, Fred Milton, and George Keener five daughters, Mrs.

THE RESURRECTION AND THE ASCENSION

Luke 24:25-40; 5:51

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

First read the accounts in all the gospels and work out an itinerary for all the people named in the lesson. Very early after the Jewish Sabbath was over, a group of named women go forth to the tomb where the body of Jesus had been placed late Friday afternoon that they might complete the embalming for which there had not been time at the burial. On the way they raise the problem about how the heavy stone can be rolled back from the mouth of the sepulchre. As is so often the case, advance worry never accomplishes anything and with blessed frequency the supposed trouble is removed before we arrive. Meanwhile the resurrection of the body of Jesus had taken place and an angel was there to make the precious announcement.

As Mary Magdalene tarried near the open tomb hunting for the body He appeared to her, even as he did to others that day and in all about fifteen times during the coming forty days. In the late afternoon the event took place which is recorded in the lesson text. As a familiar friend He drew near to walk and talk with the two on their way to Emmaus, a few miles from Jerusalem. He became known to them when He asked the blessing upon the food after being persuaded to sup with them.
 This glorious news was taken to the ten in Jerusalem that night, when He came into their midst. After giving that standing commission about preaching the Gospel everywhere He departed from them at Bethany and returned to His rightful place on the Throne with the Father in heaven.

THE PROBLEM

By Ralph Waldo Emerson
 The hand that rounded Peter's dome, And grained the aisles of Christian Rome,

Wrought in a sad sincerity;
 Himself from God he could not free; He builded better than he knew—The conscious stone to beauty grew.

Earth proudly wears the Parthenon, As the best gem upon her zone,
 And Morning opens with haste her lids

To gaze upon the Pyramids; O'er England's abbeys bends the sky, As on its friends, with kindred eye;
 For, out of Thought's interior sphere,

These wonders rose to upper air;
 And Nature gladly gave them place, Adopted them into her race,
 And granted them an equal date With Andes and with Ararat.

I know what say the fathers wise,— The Book itself before me lies,— Old Chrysostom, best Augustine, And he who blent both in his line,
 The younger Golden Lips or mines, Taylor, the Shakespeare of divines, His words are music in my ear.
 I see his cowed portrait dear;
 And yet, for all his faith could see, I would not the good bishop be.

The word unto the prophet spoken Was writ on tables yet unbroken;
 The word by seers or sibyls told,
 In groves of oak, or fanes of gold, Still floats upon the morning wind, Still whispers to the willing mind, One accent of the Holy Ghost.
 The heedless world hath never lost

Reduce the Acid

SICK stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour.
 Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips Milk of Magnesia; one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. For 50 years the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours.
 Get the genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia, the kind physicians have prescribed for 50 years.

LOST—Tuesday night, between the hospital and Sylva Pharmacy or quarter, green gold, initials H. H., four pearl sets. Initials A. C. H. on

When
 are Upset

BABY ills and ailments seem twice as serious at night. A sudden cry may mean colic. Or a sudden attack of diarrhea. How would you meet this emergency—tonight? Have you a bottle of Castoria ready?

For the protection of your wee one—for your own peace of mind—keep this old, reliable preparation always on hand.
 But don't keep it just for emergencies; let it be an everyday aid. Its gentle influence will ease and soothe the infant who cannot sleep. Its mild regulation will help an older child whose tongue is coated because of sluggish bowels. All druggists have Castoria.
