Seems as though it might pay the railroads to include the bus lines in the big merger they are closing up.

Seems as though, after the election, the forgotten man will be long remembered.

Our tariff has ceased to be a tariff for revenue, even for the manufacturers of the East.

No, we haven't forgotten Highway 106—just marking time until October 18, when we shall see what we shall see.

"Curtis Lands Tariff in West Virginia." Tell it to the North Carolina Apple and the Florida citrus growers, Mr. Vice-president.

Fewer farms are under mortgage, says a news dispatch. Yes, maybe it's because the loan company or the land bank has already foreclosed.

The refusal of the Georgia farmers to obey an injunction of a federal court, proves that there isn't much bull about this milk war.

Our chief objection to newspapers is that headlines insist upon calling veterans "vets," and preachers "Rev." without either the Mr. or the initials preceding the surname.

Libby Reynolds is offered a part in the Follies in New York. There are those down North Carolina way, who believe that she has had part in enough follies already.

Wall Street Journal's political observer states that the Republicans have a "chance in New England." Times must be parlous for the G. O. P., when a chance is all that it has left in Yankeeedom.

More princess claims: Uncle Sam owns her fourteen islands. Far as we are concerned, we are not anxious to dispute her claim, and are willing for the government to pay this debt, turn 'em over to her, and get that much of the public debt paid.

See by the papers that the most momentous question that Macon county has envisioned in a generation has been settled. They have agreed which street Highway 28 shall follow through the town.

The Greensboro News Raleigh correspondent is authority for the statement that the political parties are both having to go through a campaign in North Carolina without any money. Oh, well, we have done everything else we have had to do in North Carolina, for the past four years without any money to do it with, and should know how to even hold an election without the necessary "vittals."

Bandits shot a young filling station man in the back, killed him, took some $300 or $400 in money, and escaped in a car, over in Asheville, Tuesday night. All Western North Carolina should be aroused over the affair. No effort should be spared to bring the guilty persons to speedy justice, thus putting the world on notice that our mountain people will not tolerate such conduct. Making the country safe for human beings is the great problem of the government and the people.

Senator George Norris, of Nebraska, is to make a coast to coast campaign in support of the candidacy of Governor Roosevelt for President, under the auspices of the National Progressive League; while Richard Washburn Child is the head of the Republican Roosevelt for President Club. Senator Hiram Johnson, out in California, is said to be wavering toward the Democratic non-ince, along with the State which he represents in the Senate.

Leslie M. Shaw, Theodore Roosevelt's secretary of the treasury, labeled the panic of 1907 as the "most acute money panic in the history of the country." He was sure that the Democratic Cleveland panic couldn't hold a candle to the Republican Roosevelt one. But he stayed with it; and didn't duck to England, as did the "greatest secretary of the treasury since Alexander Hamilton," one Andrew Mellon, in the face of the present situation, and when the guns were rightly trained on the treasury department.

For the first time since the middle of the second Wilson administration, the Democrats now have a majority in both houses of Congress. Governor Adams of Colorado has appointed a Democrat, Walter Walker, Grand Junction newspaper publisher to fill the vacancy brought about by the death of Senator Charles W. Waterman. This gives the Democrats 48 Senators to 47 for the Republicans and one Farmer-Laborite.

Having repudiated his party's national platform utterance on prohibition as being too wet to suit him, and keeping the list of Republican candidates for whom he publicly states he will not vote, there soon wont be anybody or anything Republican for which or whom the Hon. Jake Newell will cast a vote, except for the party's candidate for the United States Senate. Maybe, by the next time he makes a speech, Mr. Newell will have decided that he wont even vote for himself or Charlie Jonas.

The people of Western North Carolina will feel heavily the havoc wrought by the Smoot-Hawley Tariff bill, that has initiated a tariff war throughout the world. The British Commonwealth of Nations has levied a tariff of $1.50 a barrel on American grown apples, which compared with the difference in exchange rates of the dollar and the pound sterling, makes a burden of $2.50 a barrel that Western North Carolina apples will have to carry, if they are exported to Britain, while Canadian apples can go to other British possessions, and Great Britain itself, tax free. And yet there are those who still insist despite the present distress, in times of the highest of all tariff rates, that the protective tariff is the open sesame to all prosperity. Florida and North Carolina were among the Southern States that deserted the Democratic faith and went for Hoover in 1928. Florida citrus fruit growers have already felt the heavy toll of the regional tariffs, and now the North Carolina orchardists are to get their dose of high tariff medicine.

WILEY TURPIN DIES IN QUALLA

At the age of 62 years and 10 months, Mr. Wiley J. Turpin passed away at his home Monday morning, September 26. He leaves a wife, who before her marriage was Miss Fanny Howell, of near Waynesville. To this union was born eleven children, Mr. John Turpin and Mrs. Clyde Mareus, of Elm, Mr. Norman Turpin, of Baltimore, Mr., Mrs. Florence Senman, of Drummond, Mich., Messrs. Homer, Lyle, Troy, Jack and Willard Turpin, and Mrs. Theo. Kinsland, of Qualla, and 16 grandchildren. Ouseon, Dillard, passed away several years ago.

He will be greatly missed by his sorrow stricken family, as he was a loving and affectionate companion, father and grand-father. His neighbors speak of him as kind and agreeable, and those who visited him in his home speak of his unusual hospitality.

He professed faith in Christ in 1925 and joined the Baptist church. He testified at different times during his illness that "all was well with his soul." Tuesday morning the funeral service was conducted in the Baptist church by Rev. T. F. Deitz of Beta, assisted by Rev. J. L. Hyatt and Rev. J. A. Peeler.

His brothers, Messrs Will and Dock Turpin of Waynesville, and his sister, Mrs. Frank Moody of Franklin attended the funeral. One brother, Charles, lives in Colorado. That had many friends was attested by the large congregation present at his funeral and the profuse floral offerings that banked the altar and covered his casket. After the service his remains were taken to the hill to near the church and laid to rest until the resurrection morning.

His sons were the pall bearers, and Mr. Wayne Battle and Mr. Guy McClure of Sylva were the funeral directors.

GAY

On Sunday, Sept., 25 The children of Mr. and Mrs. John Tatham came home for the annual Tatham reunion and to celebrate the 68th anniversary of their mother.

The table, contained, as the centerpiece, the birthday cake with 68 candles, and vases of white roses, and the most delicious of food.

Everyone present had a jolly time, and certainly had plenty to eat. The noble young children of Mr. and Mrs. Tatham deserve commendation for the wonderful spirit they have displayed in finishing their educations, and then get out to hustle for themselves. They are all away from home, each making his own career a reality, except the youngest son, James, who is a junior in High School this year. Another fact the writer wishes to stress, in mixing and weighing these young men and women, Sunday, not a single odor of that detestable whiskey could be detected.

Those present were the children, Mrs. Carmie Reede, of Green's Creek, Mrs. Fannie Hall and Mrs. Loftis Huffman, of Asheville, Misses Julia and Lena Tatham, Asheville, Messrs. Henry and Leman Tatham, Canton, and James Tatham, of Gay; and 12 grandchildren. Other invited guests present were Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Cogburn, Canton, a gentleman from Asheville, Miss Coie Sutton and Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Higdon, and a sister of Mrs. Tatham, from Macon, and Rev. J. E. Brown, pastor of the church.

The prayer meeting is quite successful. It is being conducted each Wednesday night at Wesleyanna M. E. church. Last Sunday evening it was held at New Savannah Baptist church for the benefit of the old people, who can't attend night services.

Miss Emma Tatham is reported to be resting very well in the C. J. Harris Community Hospital.

Mr. David Pruitt, principal of the Gay school, spent the week end at his home in Glenville.

Mrs. Martha Buchanan has been very sick with rheumatism.

Mr. W. P. Turpin and daughter, Miss Hazel, are visiting relatives in Haywood.

"I NO LONGER HAVE TO TAKE LAXATIVES OF ANY KIND.... SARGON SOFT MASS PILLS HAVE ENTIRELY FREED ME OF CONSTIPATION"
The commonest curse of mankind is constipation. It poisons us, breaks down youthful strength and vigor, ages us prematurely, and leaves us an easy victim of countless diseases. Millions are slaves to the laxative habit. The effect of ordinary cathartics is only temporary; they weaken bowel action and lose their effect. The more we take the more we have to take.
A New Discovery
Bile, prepared by the liver, is Nature's great weapon against constipation. It is a natural laxative, anti-septic and antacid. Bile is also a digestant without which sound digestion is impossible.
Until the discovery of Sargon Soft Mass Pills, we have been blasting out the intestines with cathartics and purges, believing that they stimulated the liver. Science now knows that calomel, salts, oils and other ordinary laxative drugs have no effect whatever on the liver.
Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain an acting substance which highest medical authorities agree is the only effective stimulant to the bile production.
This remarkable medicine can be obtained at THE SYLVA PHARMACY
