

Congress Backs President In His Budgetary Plan

Washington, Jan. 24—The first session between President Roosevelt and Congress resulted in a victory for the President, which makes it certain that there will be no serious opposition at this session to the President's economic program.

40 YEARS AGO (Tuckasee Democrat, Jan. 24, 1894)

Knight Brothers and Miller, of Dillsboro, have dissolved partnership. The days are growing longer and the weather is spring-like in its mildness.

knowledge of the results of the London agreement and of our other monetary measures.

The monetization of silver is regarded by many of the President's advisers as the most important factor in the restoration of world prices.

The hope of the Administration is, however, that the definite fixing of a top price for gold, serving as a basis for the world that the dollar is now worth no more than sixty per cent of its former value, will go a long way toward removing uncertainties which have kept private capital in hiding.

Whether or not this latest monetary move will have the effect of raising domestic prices is another question, yet to be answered. It may or it may not. It may turn out, as many of his advisers have told the President, that nothing which the United States can do by itself will raise prices so long as the world price of our exportable surpluses remains low, and the world price can only be raised by international action.

TVA TO EMPLOY 195 JACKSON MEN

Mrs. Vance Bryson Killed By Truck At Cullowhee

TODAY and TOMORROW

WASHINGTON... wants to vote.

The people of the District of Columbia are again demanding the right of self-government. The President of the United States is the Mayor of Washington and the Congress of the United States its Board of Aldermen.

I lived in Washington a good many years. It is the cleanest, best-governed city in America, with the worst traffic regulations. Before the Federal Government took over the management, in 1879, it had its own elected Governor and legislative body, and it was probably the worst-governed city of that time.

WOLVES... and wild dogs There is a "wolf scare" almost every cold winter in Northern New York and New England.

We staged a wolf hunt in the hills near my farm a few winters ago. The "wolf" turned out to be a huge field man, "police dog" which had heard the call of the wild and reverted to life in the woods.

AUTOMOBILES... more comfort I went to the New York automobile show and examined all the new and many of them, odd-looking cars.

THOMAS MONTEITH ILL Friends of the venerable Thomas Monteith will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at his home, just off Highway No. 10, between Sylva and Beta.

BAPTIST PASTOR IMPROVING Friends here are gratified that communications received from Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Murray, who are at Dunn, are to the effect that the pastor is somewhat improved.

RESOURCEFULNESS... a girl I am impressed by one result of the depression. It has stimulated the resourcefulness of many people, young and old, who had been content to let other people do things for them.

CAREERS... often accidental Few people know when they are very young what their life-work is going to be. Most of them find themselves in careers which they never dreamed of.

Dr. H. T. Hunter filled the pulpit at the Baptist church, using as his subject "Beauty in Religion."

Service Rev. R. F. Mayberry preached. Rev. W. C. Reed has been supplying for the past absence.

Everybody has seen his pen-name.

That's what I call resourcefulness.

That's what I call resourcefulness.

That's what I call resourcefulness.

That's what I call resourcefulness.

That's what I call resourcefulness.

That's what I call resourcefulness.

Mrs. Vance Bryson, 61, died in the local hospital, Tuesday morning, with in fifteen minutes after having been brought there from Cullowhee, where she was struck by a truck, as she attempted to cross the highway, in front of the residence of David H. Brown.

Mrs. Bryson's son, Mr. Andrew Bryson was with her at the time of the fatal accident. Dallas Mills of the Hamburg section of the county is said to have been the driver of the truck.

The deceased, Mrs. Vance Bryson, came to her death by crossing the road in front of a moving truck. The jury finds that the death of Mrs. Bryson was accidental and unavoidable.

Funeral services for Mrs. Bryson were conducted at the Cullowhee Baptist church, Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. I. K. Stafford, the pastor, assisted by Prof. Robt. L. Madison, Rev. E. C. Widenhouse, pastor of the Cullowhee Methodist church, Rev. P. L. Elliott, of the faculty of Western Carolina Teachers College, and Rev. A. B. Somers of Glenville.

Mrs. Bryson, who before her marriage, was Miss Tina Bowman, of Transylvania county, was a much loved woman of the Cullowhee community. She was a devout and devoted member of the Cullowhee Baptist church, and was a good neighbor, full of good works and deeds of kindness.

The classes at Western Carolina Teachers College were dismissed for the funeral service, in honor to this good woman of the community, who has been a friend to the school and its students for many years, and who was the mother of the first student to receive a degree from the college, and of another son, who was also a member of the first degree class.

Surviving her are her husband, two sons, Andy Bryson, who was with her at the time of the fatal accident, William Bryson, who is teaching in High Shoals, in Lincoln county, two daughters, Mrs. T. L. Monteith, and Miss Mary Ann Bryson, who is a student at Western Carolina Teachers College, and six grandchildren.

THOMAS MONTEITH ILL

Friends of the venerable Thomas Monteith will regret to learn that he is seriously ill at his home, just off Highway No. 10, between Sylva and Beta.

Mr. Monteith, who is 87 years of age, is one of the few remaining Confederate veterans in this county, having served with Thomas' Legion. He is one of the leading citizens of his community.

BAPTIST PASTOR IMPROVING

Friends here are gratified that communications received from Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Murray, who are at Dunn, are to the effect that the pastor is somewhat improved.

The pulpit at the Baptist church is each Sunday morning and evening.

"Dr. Scuss", on advertisements. Most people become whatever they are by accident, after all.

RESOURCEFULNESS... a girl I am impressed by one result of the depression. It has stimulated the resourcefulness of many people, young and old, who had been content to let other people do things for them.

One young woman whom I know is supporting herself and her mother by giving parties. The husband and father, supposed to be wealthy, committed suicide in 1930, leaving his family with nothing that they could call their own.

"I'm going to keep right on giving parties", she told them, "but to come to my parties you'll have to pay". At least once a week she gives a dance, with a simple supper, and her friends who still have money flock to it and bring their friends, paying $2.50 a head.

That's what I call resourcefulness.
