DAN TOMPKINS, Editor

Saw Albert Teester in a store, preparing to go to Akron He was buying a pair of suspenders. Laughed myself sick wondering why he should need 'em, since it does look like a faith strong enough to cure a rattlesnake bite could hold up a pair of trousers.

The AL Smith - John W. Davis - Jewett Shouse attack on Roosevelt and the New Deal is named the "Liberty League". "Oh, Liberty, what crimes have been committed in thy name!"

THE NEW HIGH PRIESTS

The joining of Al Smith, Jewett Shouse and John J. Raskob in the Liberty League, with the apparent purpose of downing Roosevelt and his plans to loose the people from the strangle-hold of excessive wealth, prove to our mind what we have suspected all along, and that is that many of the wets have been more interested in their wetness than they have been in the Democratic Party, and its battles to give the common man a decent chance in life.

Al Smith sulked in his tent during the last campaign, disappointed at not having been elected four years before, and chagrined at not having been nominated again, although the nominee was Franklin D. Roosevelt, who had done everything for Smith that one friend could do for another. Shouse was busy, not so much for the party, as for the success of the drive to repeal the 18th Amendment and bring liquor back as a legalized beverage.

Raskob was silent in many languages, including whichever happens to be his native tongue, although he had been the financial angel of the party when Smith was running, four years before.

John W. Davis, a former nominee of the party, is one of the best qualified men for the presidency in the country, from the standpoint of personal intellect; but he has been employed for so long as an attorney for the House of Morgan, that he appears to have overlooked the needs of the people, and not to be able to see things from their standpoint, anymore. Thus we have the crowd that, in conjunction with certain Republican leaders, has set about to down the New Deal, to discredit Roosevelt, to again place into effect the interpretation of the Constitution that puts property above human need, that enthrones wealth and crushes down the common people, that would have the "Constitutional rights" of wealth made the sacred cow that all Americans should worship.

The battle lines are being drawn. The Liberty League will either fizzle out or will develop the battle of the century, between the theory of government that holds that the needs of the people are the things that are held sacred by the Constitution, that jobs for men, and bread, meat, clothing and a right to live in security and comfort for women and children are the primary concern of government, and the contrary view.

On the other side is the same old coon, with just another ring around his tail: The school of politics and government that holds that the sacred rights of the wealthy are to gain more wealth, of the interests to have protection of government at the expense of the many, are the heart of the Constitution. This theory has been expounded, during our history, by many organizations, It now appears as the Liberty League, with men who have been honored and trusted by the party of Jefferson, as proponents of the Hamiltonian doctrine, and as the revivers of the old coon, which, having grown another ring around his tail, has been renamed.

It now comes forward, apparently as harmless as a dove, yet wise as a serpent to do battle with the New Deal, and to down Roosevelt, who is contending for the rights of the people to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness".

Smith, Shouse, Raskob and Davis do not appear well in their gowns as the new high priests of privilege.

BIT BY RATTLER—CURED IN 30 MINUTES

Charlie Brendle, who lives on Cullo whee Mountain, was bitten by a rattle snake, while working on a wire fence, a week ago. Inside of an hour he was perfectly well, and feeling no ill effects of his experience, according to R. L. Knight, a leading farmer of that section of the county.

Mr. Brendle was bitten on the hand by the large rattler, about as Albert Teester, the Holiness preacher was, and in the same part of the county. His hand had begun to swell, when it was bathed in a mixture of kerosene oil and turpentine. After that remedy was administered, a poultice of Irish potato and salt was applied, and the cure completely effected. Mr. Brendle went to see a physician, but it was found that no further treatment was necessary.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF JACKSON COUNTY

As County Attorney, I have been instructed to institute suit on all delinquent taxes for the years 1929, 1930, and 1931. Under the law, all of these cases must be started before October 1, and all persons owing taxes for these years are hereby notified that they must be paid immediately in order to save costs of the suit, and the final sale of their property.

Work will begin on these suits immediately after September 1.

HIGHWAY CHAIRMAN ILL

People all over North Carolina regret the serious illness of E. B. Jeffress, Chairman of the State Highway and Public Works Commission, and President of the Daily News Co. of Greensboro, and have been anxiously watching bulletins from his bedside. Mr. Jeffress is said to show slight improvement, since his stroke, Sunday morning.

HE AIN'T OUR PREACHER

Says the Transylvania Times: "Dan Tompkins, noteworthy editor of The Jackson County Journal, wants the world to know that 'preacher' Teester is not a native of his county. We don't blame you, Dan. If we had such an idiot in Transylvania we'd blame his reason for being in the world on some other section, too"

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN ENDING THE DEPRESSION?

All citizens who may be interested in the Townsend Plan of Old Age Resolving Pensions are hereby invited to assemble in the County Courthouse at 1 P. M., Monday, September 3, 1934 to consider the various features of this plan with a view to effecting a county organization to help secure the passage of a national law of this kind at the next session of Congress.

Briefly stated, the plan provides for payment of a pension of $200 a month to every citizen of the United States who has reached or may reach the age of sixty and has never been convicted of a felony, provided that he or she take oath to spend for goods or services the entire amount of the pension within the United States, and refrain from all remunerative or productive occupation.

A large attendance is solicited. Don't forget the time and the place, for this means something to every person and every business in our county.

LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

to send representatives are: Barker's Creek, Dillsboro, Beta, Wilmot, Olivet, Tuckasee, East LaPorte, Cowarts, Balsam Grove, Glenville, Cashier's, Webster and Savannah. School principals in these various communities have been asked to see that their communities are represented in all events and contests. The contest is open to any girl or woman in Jackson county who wishes to enter, regardless of whether she has been selected to represent a particular community. All contestants will wear dresses, as no bathing suit entries will be allowed.

The day's program will be topped off with several snappy boxing bouts between some of Jackson county's glove-angling sons. Most bouts have already been arranged, but interested boxers are asked to see Mr. Poidex-

ter. The winners in the various weights will be crowned "Champions of Jackson County". All bouts will be amateur, and will be for three rounds. All schools of the county are cooperating, and a general holiday will be declared for the occasion.
