

1934 National 4-H Club Achievement Champions

CHICAGO . . . Miss Mary E. Wien, 17, of Lafayette, Ind. and William Kiesel, Jr., 20, Pryor, Okla., are the 1934 national 4-H Club champions. Miss Wien in 8 years of projects in nearly all home economic subjects has 11 times been state and national delegate. Her gross income was $2,100.95. Kiesel, with a gross income of $5,984.52, has completed 9 years of projects which included purebred herds of Herefords and Guernsey cattle, Hampshire hogs, chickens and bees.

Grand Champion Steer

CHICAGO . . . Campus Idol, an Aberdeen-Angus steer owned by the Iowa State College, as shown above by Alveda Nelson, was declared Grand Champion steer of 1934 at the International Livestock Exposition here.

Girl Health Champion

WILTON JUNCTION, Ia. . . . Fifteen year old Doris Louise Paul of this place is national 4-H girl health champion of 1934. She is 15 years old, weighs 130 pounds and scored highest in the annual national competition at Chicago.

May Coach Harvard

DETROIT . . . George "Potsy" Clark (above), one of the outstanding football coaches in professional ranks, may be coach of Harvard next year. Potsy was a former Illinois star and coach at Kansas University.

Elect Pastor Speaker

TRENTON, N. J. . . . Rev. Dr. Lester H. Clee (above), is scheduled to be speaker of the N. J. Assembly, the first clergyman to so serve and the first without relative experience. He was elected on a clean-government platform.

As Christmas Bells Ring Out . . .

. . . upon the night, may they find happiness in the homes of the people of our county, and may 1935 be a year of peace, plenty and prosperity to all of our folks.

The LEADER

DEPARTMENT STORE

Starts Gold Rush

LOS ANGELES . . . George L. Holmes (above), graduate of the University of Southern California, whose new gold mine, The Silver Queen, has started the latest gold rush in the Mojave sector. It is reported Holmes has sold his mine to a South African Syndicate for $3,500,000.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PARDON

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the Governor of North Carolina for a parole or pardon from a 12 months sentence imposed upon the undersigned at the October term, 1934, Superior Court of Jackson County by Judge Will Pless, Jr.
This December 12, 1934.
STELLA CAPPS

don't forget
APPLES
for Christmas

BARBER'S

WILLIAM TELL BRAND APPLES

Golden Delicious — Stark's Delicious
Stayman Winesaps — Rome Beauties
Mammoth Black Twigs and Red Winesaps

Rock Apple Filling Station

Like a candle that is placed in a window at night, the light of Christmas once more is shining upon us in all its radiant beauty.

May it bring happiness to all of us on this Christmas and throughout all the New Year.

Jackson Hdw. Co.