40 YEARS AGO

Tuckaseige Democrat, May 30, 1895

Mr. J. H. Cathey, of Bryson City, was here this morning.

Gen. E. R. Hampton spent a few days at home this week.

Miss Mamie Stedman returned from a visit to friends in the South Wednesday.

Mr. E. A. Wolff is out this week, ugaged in temporary service with the . S. Geological survey.

Dr. J. H. Wolff went up to Canada Monday, on a fishing trip, with a party, composed of gentlemen from Dills boro and Webster.

The weather has become "good and hot" now and the farmers are rushing things to make up for lost time in planting corn and killing weeds and grass.

The absence of the blue birds from many sections has been noticed and now comes Mr. M. H. Morris and wants to know what has become of the dies. It is a remarkable fact that, although it is almost June, there have been scarcely any house flies seen. Generally, they are present in large numbers fully two months earlier than this. Everybody can get along very well without them, but as a matter of curiosity would like to know what has become of them.

ADVISES CONGRESS TO QUIT OWEN D. YOUNG

Mr. Young industrial and political leader, sees good times ahead; but advises Congress to adjourn.

CLOTHING SCHOOL NEXT MONTH

Miss Willie Hunter, extension clothing specialist, Raleigh, will conduct a clothing school for the home demonstration clubs of Jackson county, the last week in June. Mrs. H. L. Evans, home demonstrator, has announced.

The course will include the use of patterns, cutting and fitting different kinds of wearing apparel, and other information essential to clothes-making.

All women in the county and all 4-H Club girls are invited to the meetings.

The Wade Hampton Memorial High way, which is the South Carolina ontinuation of Highway 196, has been graded for its entitle length in South Carolina, and a mile in North Cress lina, and erushed rock surfacing has been completed to within a mile of the North Carolina line, according to reliable reports coming to us from Cashier's Valley. The work has been and is being done by Civikan Conservation Corps workers from Campy Wade Hampton, which was establish-'d for that especial purpose through he efforts of Senator Smith of South Carolina.

The road, which follows to a great x.ent the historic Sloan's Turnpike, over which the South Carolinians came to he mountains, a century or more ago to return and spread the fame of North Carolina mountains as ideal for vacationing, and over which Wade Hampton drove from Cashier's Valley to accept the nomitation as governor and to lead the fight for the redemption of Soeth Car olina from Negro and Carpetbag rule. it is one of the most magnificent cenic drives in all the country.

The statement of Chairman Waynick of the State Highway and Pubic Works Commission, published last week, is taken to mean that North Carolina will have, under the new program, a connection at the State ine with the work that has been done, again providing a highway from he western mountain country to the seaboard, over the natural route, and over the territory through which the grandfathers of the present genera-The following schedule will be out tion drove to market in Augusta, Sa-
