py industries such a high percentage of the unemployed workers as to reduce the burden of relief to a minimum.

The man who has his wealth in real estate or other non-perishable commodities instead of in cash or bank credits, when an inflation movement gets into full swing, has usually proved to be better off than the neighbor who did not see it coming.

Strength is given to the belief in a coming building boom by the report of the American Legion that more than a quarter of the bonus money will be spent by Legionnaires for homes. That is the result of a questionnaire recently sent out.

The spending of the rest of the bonus distribution would be in the payment of bills and old debts, the purchase of life insurance, automobile, clothing, home equipment, and house furnishings. It might prove to be a quick and powerful stimulus to retail trade all over the country.

the shipper and consignee of railroad freight have to provide their own truck service to and from the railroad stations.

The new system should make for faster and cheaper distribution of commodities, and so help in solving one of our chief economic and social problems. One of the chief reasons why everybody can not have plenty of everything, when farms and factories can produce enough for everybody, is the high cost and lost motion in the process of distribution to the consumer.

Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination; backache, headache, dizziness, loss of energy, leg pains, swellings and puffiness under the eyes? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung—and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood; and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin—most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

BRUCE BARTON Says:

★ Liberals, pain in neck

All my life I have been hoping to meet some one who would give a satisfactory definition of a "liberal." I read regularly the two most influential "liberal" magazines in this country, and in every issue they tell me everything that has been done wrong that week, both at home and abroad.

For from "liberal" in their characterization of those of whom they happen to disapprove, they make very clear all the things they are against, but I have been trying for years to find out what they are for. What sort of social set-up do they think would work? Aside from venting their jealousy and wrath on all who have happened to get along in the world, what other program do they have? By what rule or circumstance do people happen to get themselves classified as "liberal" or "reactionary"?

A certain famous Senator, whose gymnastics I have watched for thirty years, has been on all sides of most questions except those which involve votes in his home state. On those questions—silver juggling, potato control, Townsend Plan, or whatever, you always know where to find him. Yet he is a "statesman" and a great "liberal."

I sometimes wonder if professional liberalism is so much a matter of thought as of torpid livers and unfortunate financial experience. People whose livers are active, and whose affairs progress, believe in the country and want to see it go ahead. People with sluggish livers and no luck think that the "interests" are responsible for their bad feelings.

This is an exaggeration, of course; not a fair statement. But the mental smoothness of professional "liberals" has long given me a pain. I wish I knew why they are, what they want, and what evidence they have that things would be better if they were given what they want.

★ Pity often not wanted

A cultivated young woman who holds a responsible business position in New York is a member of one of the old old families. Her two sisters are Social Registerites in a conservative Eastern city, and spend much time shaking their heads and pitying their younger sister. "Poor child," they murmur. "She must be at the office every morning at nine. Sometimes the company sends her out on long trips. She travels alone in trains; she even flies. We urge her to come back and live with us; but she is so stubborn that she can't bear to admit she had made a mistake."

On her side, the young lady says: "I have a thrilling time, but my poor sisters, what a dull life they lead—bridge and luncheons and more bridge and dinners and symphony concerts. It would drive me crazy. I pity them."

This land of ours is full of city people pitying country dwellers; country people pitying the hemmed-in residents of the city; bachelors pitying the fathers of big families, and fathers wondering how bachelors can think that they get anything out of life at all.

A rich old manufacturer went to pay a last call on the night-watchman of his factory. The two had started as boys on the bench together but while the one grew rich the other loved liquor and irresponsibility too well. The rich man cleared his throat to utter a few words of condolence. The dying man raised a warning hand; "None of your sympathy," he cried. "You mean all right, but I don't need it. I've had a whole lot more fun out of living than you ever will have."

Pity that expresses itself in helpful action is a noble thing. But too much so-called pity is nothing but an emotional cocktail wherewith a somewhat complacent individual drinks a toast to what he fancies is his own superior judgment or taste!
