BUCK ELECTED HERE TO HEAD DISTRICT CLUBS

H. Buck of Murphy was elected president of the first district of the Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs at the annual meeting which was held here Saturday with Swedish Century and Junior clubs present.

Composing the district are: Murphy, Franklin, Andrews, Robbins, Bryson City, Cullowhee, Waynesville, Clyde, and Canton; and a representative number from each club present.

Norma Chapman, president of the Swedish Century Club, made the opening address at the Methodist church at the address at the Methodist church there the morning session.

Special features of the program were addresses by Mrs. George Marshall, state president, and Mrs. J. C. Robinson, chairman of district.

W. C. T. C. chorus under the direction of Mrs. Charles Gully.

At the close of the meeting, luncheon was served at the new Community House, which was attractively served with late summer flowers and music. The officers and special guests were seated at one large, beautiful round table, while other visitors were served at attractive tables placed throughout the spacious room.

At the luncheon, Mrs. H. T. Hurd, retiring district president, presented the Murphy Club a gift which was won by having the largest percentage of members present.

STEWARDSHIP CONTEST HELD

In the stewardship contest, sponsored by the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union, which was held here Sunday afternoon, in the Baptist church, Miss O'Neil Bell Livly, of the Carolina Association, won first place in the contest between young ladies of the Young Woman's Auxiliary, Miss Iris Melton, also of the Carolina Association, was first in the Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary. Lee Miller, of Cullowhee, won in the Royal Ambassadors of intermediate age. Logan White, of Canton, in the Haywood Association, was winner of the Royal Ambassadors of junior age; and Laura Belle Phillips, of Cullowhee, won in junior Girls' Auxiliary.

The contestants each had won in the contests in their respective churches and, later, in their associations. Next Sunday afternoon these winners will contend for first place against the successful participants in the contests that have been held in the other part of the Asheville Division of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union, lying east of Buncombe county. The young people who spoke here last Sunday represented the associations from Asheville to Murphy. The winners in the contest to be held next Sunday afternoon, in the First Baptist church in Asheville, will vie with winners in the five divisions of the State Woman's Missionary Union. The place has not yet been named.

The older contestants composed and memorized their speeches, the younger ones reciting pieces written by others, all on the subject of stewardship and tithing.

Miss Edith Buchanan had the contest in charge and presided Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Herbert Gibson, Mrs. Dan Tompkins and Miss Rose Garrett served as judges for the younger group of speakers and Mrs. J. F. Freze, Mrs. J. D. Cowan and Miss Sadie Luck for the intermediate and young woman's groups.

"Smoke Camels for Digestion's Sake"

COLLEGE GIRL, Miss J. O'Neill, says: "Camels make food taste better and aid digestion." Camels help the flow of digestive fluids ... increase alkalinity.

"AN EXPLORER needs good digestion," says Sir Hubert Wilkins. "Camels bring me a sense of well-being."
