

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

On Wednesday, January 13th, 1937, at the court house in the town of Sylva, North Carolina, I will sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described property, to-wit:

All the right, title and interest in and to the first part in and to the property, mining privileges, rights and easements set forth and described in a certain mining lease executed by W. T. Lee and wife, Margaret A. Lee to Grant Lowe, dated October 19, 1932, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Jackson County, in Book 115, page 525, and duly assigned to the Eureka Mica Mining Corporation by an instrument dated January 9, 1932, and recorded in Book 112, page 526, Record of Deeds of Jackson County, N. C., to which instruments and records reference is made for full description of the rights, property and appurtenances hereby conveyed, the party of the first part hereto, Grant Lowe, transferring and setting over to the party of the second part the said mining lease and assignment thereof, and all the rights and privileges thereunder.

All the right, title and interest in and to the first part in a certain parcel or tract of land near Ball Lake Station in Jackson County, North Carolina, as fully described by an opinion executed by J. K. Koway, dated November 1, 1931, and recorded in Book 111, page 527, Record of Deeds of Jackson County, to which instrument and records reference is hereby made for a full description of the land, and including in this conveyance all the rights and privileges appurtenant thereto.

Also all the rights-of-way, easements and privileges heretofore acquired by the party of the first part, together with and including the road constructed, the power transmission line and any and all tools, machinery, equipment of any other rights or property of any kind whatsoever owned by the party of the first part.

Also conveying herein and including in this conveyance to be added to the property herein conveyed as part of the security herefor, all the rights and interest which may hereafter be acquired by the party of the first part, in and to any machinery, tools, equipment or appliances which may hereafter be purchased by the party of the first part, or by anyone for the party of the first part, and including herein the machinery to be purchased for the erection of a reclamation plant, which machinery has heretofore been designed, prepared, and tentatively agreed to be purchased by the party of the first part, and any other machinery purchased in connection therewith, to be located on the property described in the lease from W. T. Lee and wife, and also including herein any and all buildings which may be erected on lands owned by the party of the first part, or leased or acquired by the party of the first part, and any and all other property and rights and privileges which may be acquired by the party of the first part at any time before the payment of said indebtedness or foreclosure under this instrument, upon default of the payment, as hereinafter provided.

Sale made pursuant to the power of sale conferred upon the undersigned trustee, by virtue of that certain deed of trust executed by Eureka Mica Manufacturing Corporation, a Corporation, dated October 24, 1932, and recorded in Book 113, page 363, Record of Deeds of Trust of Jackson County, to which said deed of trust and record reference is hereby made for all the terms and conditions of the same.

This the 14th day of December, 1936.

A. T. WARD, Trustee.

She Who Sought For Peace

By IRVIN S. COBB

YOUNG MRS. SMITH was in need of a domestic for general housework. She inserted a notice, stating her requirements, in the local paper. In answer to the advertisement a rather stately looking colored girl came to her door and applied for the job. "Where did you work last?" asked Mrs. Smith.

"I wukked fur de Jones fambly right down de street yere a piece," said the candidate.

"Do you mean the Herbert Joneses who live in the white house on the corner?" inquired Mrs. Smith.

"Yessum, they's the ones."

"When did you leave their employment?"

"Las' Sad'day night."

"Did you quit or were you discharged?"

"I quit. Yassum, of my own free will I up and quit."

"Why did you quit?"

"Me, I like peace—tha's why! I couldn't stand it no mo' to be stayin' in a house whar they's always so much quollin' goin' on."

Now the Joneses were friends of Mrs. Smith, and, to her always, they had seemed a happy couple, ideally mated. Naturally this disclosure shocked her greatly. She could hardly believe it. Still, she shared with the rest of us, an almost universal trait—she had a natural curiosity. If the household of her neighbors was rent by internal dissensions here was a chance to find out the true state of affairs.

"Do you mean to tell me that Mr. and Mrs. Jones have been quarreling?"

"Yassum. All de two months I stayed there they was quollin' constant."

"What did they quarrel about?"

"Disfunt things, ever' day. Ef 'twasn't Mrs. Jones quorrelin' wid me 'bout somethin' or other I'd done, 'twas Mf. Jones."
