DAN TOMPKINS, Editor
 This would be a poor time to have castles in Spain.

King George has made his prime minister "Sir" Stanley Baldwin, Knight of the Garter; but Baldwin still does not approve Wally's movements.

The Supreme Court may be injurious to public opinion and presents from either of the other coordinate branches of the Federal Government, but it seemeth to us that we desired a much more favorable attitude toward the New Deal policies in the decisions of the "nine old men," since the President proposed a reform of the judiciary.

The Municipal swimming pool, if properly conducted, and we believe it will be, will prove a source of great deal of healthful and recreative pleasure to a great many of our people, a drawing card for tourists, and a real asset to the community.
 But, it could also easily prove the reverse. It is important that it be started off on the right track. It will be easier to keep it there.

Dwight Beard, young North Carolinian, under sentence to die tonight in Texas, on a murder charge, failed in an attempt to duplicate his North Carolina record and escape through the front door of the penitentiary.
 "The mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly fine." Darling of a prominent and well-to-do family, State College student and football player, robber and murderer, sentenced to die, committed to life imprisonment, escaped. Y. M. C.
 A. worker and society bandit in Mil-wankee, killer in Texas, dies tonight.
 This is the record of Dwight Beard.
 There is nothing more sure than the certainty of retribution.

Civic pride demands that the condition of the streets of Sylva be improved. We do not mean that new paving should be laid, or that any costly construction or repairs be made; but that the unsightly trash, paper, garbage, and what have you, be kept off the streets, vacant lots, and sidewalks. That would cost only a little time and cooperation on the part of the business people of the town, who should be more interested than anyone else, with the authorities. The town had Mill Street cleaned three or four times within the past two weeks, yet within 24 hours there was little appreciable difference in its appearance. The town has a good incinerator. Why not use it?

NAZI HONOR VINDICATED
 The German Nazi government had to vindicate its high honor and maintain its standing as a world power by shelling, without warning, a Spanish seacoast town, crowded with civilian women and children, refugees from the civil war, in retaliation for the bombing of a Nazi man-of-war, by Spanish planes. In the same manner, Italian honor required the conquest of Ethiopia and the butchery of helpless people, just as Japanese honor had demanded slaughter of hapless Chinese, and the taking from China of her fairest provinces.

We trust that Nazi honor is sufficiently vindicated. Of course the women and children in the little Spanish town had nothing to do with the warship incident. They probably knew nothing about it. But German warships opened a bombardment upon them, without warning.
 They were not even given the opportunity to run. But their broken bodies, and their blood, spilt in the streets of a little Spanish town, have paid the debt. Nazi honor is vindicated.

106 IS ON THE WAY
 The early completion of Highway 106 from Sylva to the South Carolina line is written in the stars. The condition of 106, the road requested by the county commissioners, two decades ago, as the first road of the State Highway System to be built in Jackson, has retarded the development of the county for years. Every-way he turned, in contemplating forward steps he ran up against the need for this highway as a first consideration.
 With the establishment of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and the construction of the highway across Newfound Gap, it became apparent to anyone that if Sylva and Jackson county were to reap their fair share of the benefits of the park, 106 must be built.

 Ever since the present writer assumed the editorial chair of The Journal, a quarter of a century ago this summer, this paper has consistently advocated the building of 106. In season and out, we have written and worked in the interest of this road.
 All that is water that has passed under the bridge; and 106 is on the way to becoming a reality—a dream come true—an idea vindicated.
 The next steps in this county's development, so far as highways are concerned, are the improvement of the secondary roads to the point where they are travelable the year around; and the beginning, at the earliest possible date, of the construction of a project on the Blue Ridge Parkway in the Balsam range.

 and put the administration of relief squarely upon them.
 This would put a brake upon the demands made by the Mayor's Lobby and the state governors for more Federal relief money. No political subdivision could get a cent more than it was ready and willing to put up itself. In theory it is regarded as a sound and workable plan. In practice, politics being what it is, some-doubtful if it would be welcomed enthusiastically by the states which have put up no money, or none to speak of for relief, but have obtained hundreds of millions from Uncle Sam.
