

Barker's Creek Citizen Passes

Samuel Jones, prominent citizen of Barker's Creek township, died peacefully last Tuesday, of a stroke. Mr. Jones was 69 years of age. Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at Barker's Creek church, by Rev. Thad Deitz, pastor. Burial was in the Parris cemetery. Mr. Jones is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ida Monteith of Dillsboro, prior to her marriage; by two daughters, Miss Minnie Jones of Barker's Creek, and Mrs. R. L. Suttlesboro; by six sons, Fred, of Dillsboro; Roy, of Dillsboro; H. C. and T. L., of Sylva; H. C. and T. L., of Canton; and Ernest, of Canton; by three sisters, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Joe Brooks, of Barker's Creek, and Mrs. Charles Whittier; by nine grandchildren, and other relatives.

England's Fifth Suit For Bridge Deck

NEW YORK CITY . . . "Royaals," the extra suit with the green crown symbol arrives from England where it has gained great popularity. In the new 65-card game, 16 are dealt to each player, with one in the "kitty" which may be exchanged by the declarer for a card in the dummy hand. Above is a set of "Royaals" with aces of other suits.

The Journal-$1 A Year

Try To Solve Farm Bill Puzzle

ATLANTA, Ga. . . "Do I want a cotton marketing quota, or don't I?" pondered Richard M. Byers as he prepares to mark his ballot in the election held here among cotton and tobacco farmers on control provisions of the new farm regulations. In the background A. H. Eddy "reads up" on the details of the new law before voting. Government experts have been sent to explain legal mases of the new measure.

His Nation Threatened

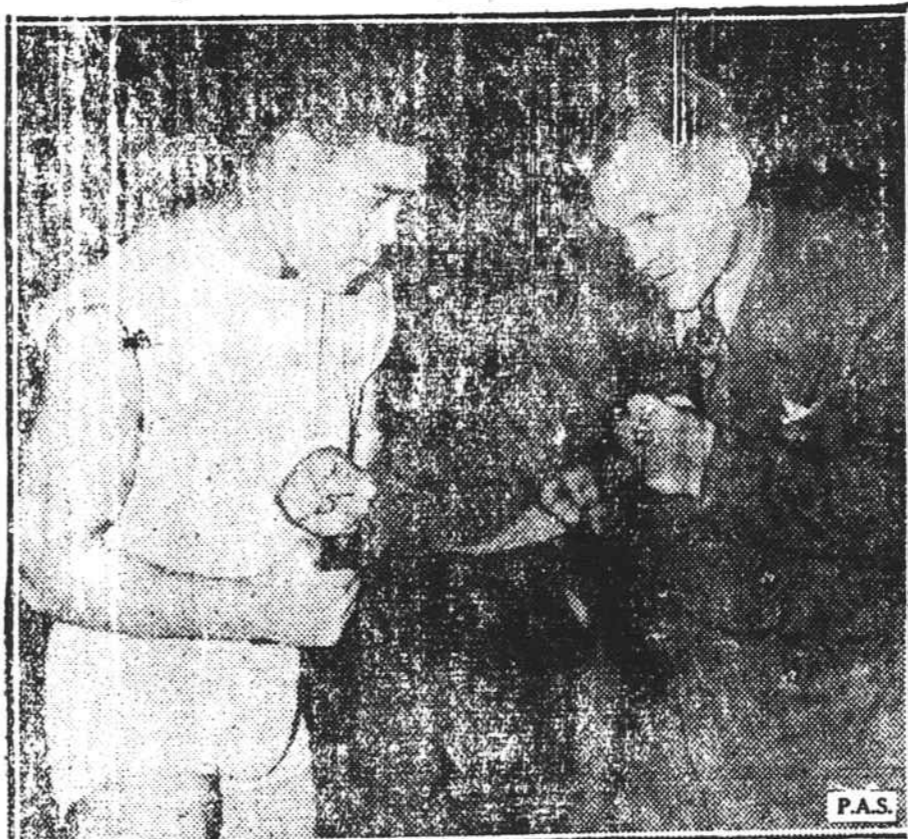

BUCHAREST, Rumania . . . Nazi influence threatens to engulf Czechoslovakia and Hungary, and European diplomats ponder the fate of Rumania lying athwart Hitler's path to the Soviet Ukraine—a path he has sworn to take. Above is Prince Michael, boy-king until his father, Carol, took over the throne. Will Michael wear the crown again?—or will he, like so many others, fall victim to relentless Fascist forces?

LAWN GRASS seed, lime, sheep manure, bone meal, peat moss. See about your lawn problems. FARMERS FEDERATION.

No April Fooling When Fists Fly

CHICAGO, Ill. . . Just to show the press photographers that they won't be fooling when they get into that ring on April 1, Joe Louis, world's champion, and Harry Thomas, challenger, square off in the local gymnasium where both are training for the bout here. Max Baer's surprise victory over Tommy Farr may place him next in line to battle the "Iron Horse" and a come-back chance at the heavyweight title.

Mannish Mode

NEW YORK CITY . . . Feminine lines soften the mannish style of the long single-breasted coat in this chic outfit. It is of navy blue woolen with a wide, white hairline stripe. The navy frock underneath is of a plain sheer woolen with a trim white collar. A straw sailor with veil completes this spring ensemble.

FORWARD
Jackson County!

With 25 years of progress behind us, Jackson County is on the march to a greater future. We invite the world to come to Jackson County, enjoy our hospitality, and motor over our splendid highways on Super Shell. You will find a Shell Station anywhere and everywhere you go in our county. There you will find courteous service, correct information, and Shell quality.

CANNON BROTHERS

Shell Distributors

General Merchants