We are glad to say that the superintendent of the schools was up last week on a visit to the Quinlontown school. Here he will honor us again soon by another visit.
On last Friday night there was a box supper at Quinlontown school house, had a nice time, opening by a song, reading a chapter as a portion of God's word by W. H. Stalcup, prayer by A. B. Williams, then the little folks sang the Dazy Maid practiced on last week, second song by school, Jack Frost. Recitation by Miss Letha Lanning, declamation by Martin Lanning. A song whistled by school, Old Carolina, recitation by Miss Mary Lanning, song big owl, recitation by Miss Charlotte Wyatt.
Then the sale of the boxes came, Mr.
A. B. Williams cried off the boxes. As the news was not spread very much there were but eleven boxes, but they sold well, brought twenty-one dollars and some few cents, had fine behavior and a real nice time, this supper was for the benefit of the day school.
There were assembled at the Quinlontown school house on last Sunday one hundred and forty-nine people to hear the word of God preached by Rev. S. C. Warlick, after noon there was five converts baptized by him in the creek near William Watson's. A large audience witnessed the baptism.
Miss Nora James has stopped the school at this place for two weeks, after which she will take it up again.
We are looking forward to the second Sunday in October when Rev.
Wm. Pruitt will preach for us again, for we know he will tell us of that coming day that we are working so hard to be able to stand before our King robed in a robe of righteousness.
May everybody who reads this be God blessed.
This leaves every thing all O. K. at Quinlontown.

TWO MAKE ESCAPE FROM HAYWOOD JAIL.
While the larger part of the populace of Haywood county was attending the fair Friday afternoon Cool Ray, of Waynesville and S. M. Owen-by of Coker county, Tenn., made their escape from the county jail by digging through the brick wall. Taken out of the cage and turned loose in the corridor surrounding the cages, they selected a weak place in the wall and got through.
Ray was sentenced to serve four months on the county roads for "boo-legging," but had taken an appeal.
Owenby was sentenced to three months on the roads for carrying "knucks" and being drunk at the fair grounds.
