INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER MACHINES

Why Do We Sell International Harvester Engines?

WE recommend and sell International Harvester oil and gas engines because of the universal satisfaction they give to our customers. The weight is ample and is in the right place; the castings are sand-cooled, insuring evenness of texture and strength; the design of every part is of the most approved type; simple, yet complete in every detail; easy to maintain, requiring little attention beyond regular oiling; developing from 10 to 30 hp. more than their rated horse-power; I H C engines of all sizes and all friends wherever they go.

This series of advertisements will explain fully why I H C engines are such good value. One or two features will be taken up at a time, so that when you are through with the series you will be well posted on them. All the time these advertisements are running we shall be demonstrating engines on the floor here, ready to show you just how your money when you buy an I H C engine.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill.

I wish every suffering woman would give

GARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good." Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, run-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of woman's trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.

Bon Marche

Asheville's Practical Xmas Store

The Christmas Shopping Center of Western North Carolina

Not only is this true in the magnitude of the stock carried, but also in the opinion of the public. Without the good-will and assistance of public opinion there could be no Shopping Center.

We will pay your railroad fare to Asheville and return, provided you buy $30 or more worth of merchandise and live within a radius of fifty miles. Here is a chance to shop at a Department store, where there are thousands upon thousands of practical Christmas gifts handily displayed for your easy choosing.

Every floor of this big store is fairly teeming with Christmas goods. The mammoth establishment itself, is tastily decorated throughout and fairly radiates the enthusiasm and spirit of the season.

Come here, make yourself at home, have your packages and grips checked free of charge; make use of our Rest Room and various conveniences to your heart's content. Above all this is store of service.

Important Notice to Mail Order Patrons of the Bon Marche

We are now represented in this section by a duly authorized Traveling Man, who has been on the road for a month or so, looking after our Mail Order business. The constant growth of our Mail Order system, which took a decided boom at the time the Parcel Post came into existence, Low requires the attention of several people.

With the aid of our Traveling Representative we hope to get in closer touch with our Out-of-Town customers, who have loyally supported this Department since its inception.

If you want him to come to your town, write in a request with ten names signed and we will see that he makes the jump, otherwise he will reach it in due-time.

FRANCIS COVE NOTES

As the weather is so rainy I thought I would write a few notes to the Courier.

The like of mud has never been seen in the cove. There were not any Sunday school last Sunday on account of the rain.

There has been several corn huskings around in the cove, and is going to be several more.

Mr. Braxel Christopher has built him a new barn.

Mr. H. B. Freeman has been repairing Mr. John McElroy's dwelling house.

Mr. Butler Siler was in town last week.

Mr. J. H. Lanning went squirrel hunting the other day and killed two squirrels with one shot, that is doing pretty well.

Mr. James Boone has bought a tract of land from Mr. Will Herren and is contemplating on building right away.

Mr. Gideon Francis went to town last week.

Mr. Charlie Swainson was called by telegram to the bedside of his brother who was seriously ill in Jackson county near Webster.

Mr. L. Crynes was in town last week.

Mrs. Mammie Phillips visited her brother, Mr. Robert Kelly of Woodrow.

I will stop for this time, wishing much success to the Courier and its many readers.

SNOWFLAKE

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR

REV. J. H. BENNETT.

The recent appointments of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, are commented upon at length in the last issue of the Christian Advocate, and that paper has the following to say of Rev. J. H. Bennett, a brother of Mr. J. C. Bennett of Waynesville:

"Rev. J. H. Bennett, who takes charge of the North Wilkesboro District, was, for several years, a member of our Conference. Five years ago he was transferred to the Columbus Conference and has done heroic work in that section. Last year he was Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of the State of Oregon and led in the recent victorious State-wide campaign against saloons. He is a man of great courage and strength and will, we believe, be specially adapted to the work of his district."

MANY ARRESTS IN ASHEVILLE

The Waynesville Courier suggests that Asheville must have been on good behavior while the two religious conventions were in session there. Judging from the report of the police department filed during these conventions the good behavior must have been temporary or enforced since 4,372 arrests were made during the past year.—Hendersonville Democrat.

GERMANS TURN ROUT IN POLAND INTO VICTORY.

"The Germans have re-named Czentokov (Czentochowa) Kaiserberg."

Oss Dunkerke, a village in West Flanders, a little more than two miles west of Neuport, has been bombed by the Germans, which announcement in the latest French official communications seems to indicate a renewal of German efforts to reach the channel ports.

Apparently there has been some fighting along the Belgian coast in the vicinity of the German line, which makes much and we are waiting more, still more and then some.

I am looking for everybody next week and I still like to read the local as well as any thing else also.

The French also report advances by the allies in the department of Somme and the capture of the village of Vermelles between Belune and Long. Official dispatches say the Germans have utilized their light guns in place of the heavy artillery because of the condition of the ground owing to inundations.

In the eastern arena the peace of Ledin by the Germans is considered a remarkable achievement in view of the manner in which the German lines only a short time ago were threatened by the Russians and an important step in their proposed movement against Warsaw, the Polish capital.

FROM GYPSY.

Well correspondents, I will come back and give another little talk on woman suffrage.

Hurray for you Madge! and the correspondent of Bald Creek, I certainly was glad to read your letters. I hope it won't be the last time you both will unite, but keep on fighting for our rights that have been locked up so long, as T. J. Watson says.

C. M. I did feel almost sorry for you the week Madge, the correspondent from Bald Creek and last week when T. J. Watson, all gave you such hard hits, but it will help the women in our army of progress of the nation and I don't object to how many "hits" they give you if it will only give us the prize that we are fighting for. Any way they were not all meant for you; but other brothers of yours, who do not quiet know what they are talking about. C. M. I don't think will quit writing to the paper, but keep fighting for his "cause." That is right C. M., fight till you die. That is what we, the women of the "land of the free" are going to do. Why call this free America and let half or more than half of its population be cramped at home not having a "say-so" in any thing?

I don't think the men ought to be so run down on equal suffrage as it would not hurt a thing for us women to vote, only help matters more and you men would get a little rest as you claim you have such a hard time. I mean some of you do, most all, you would get a little rest if you voted in the morning and let us women go in the afternoon as Madge suggested.

I believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none. I suppose if I were a man you would call me a "Democrat" and if that is what the Democrats believe in why are they against equal rights to them and us? Now I would like to know that very much. Democrat I would like you to answer that little question if you please.

Women and girls of the Old North State "let your voices rise and echo and reecho in and among the valleys and hills of old North Carolina with the words "woman suffrage!" Tell it to your neighbors, write it to the papers, cry out from the house-tops of the world and just before you sleep if you will be walking toward the polls and will have cast in your vote, returned home with the most cheering news of the day, that you have done your duty for your thinking that some of the evils of the world are being ousted out and burned to ashes by your help. Fathers, mothers and husbands may seem a little cold and distant for your having gained the victory and then when the old wheel of Time turns, and your name shines from of the logs so warm and with such brightness they will "thaw" up and begin to realize that their wives and daughters can do something and when they see that your names are not smoking because cigarettes are not allowed to be sold to them, when they see there is no more whiskey that boys can get, no more places for them to play cards and gamble, they will know then that we the women of the world can do something.

Democrat I was glad to see you back after so long a time, but you came with the old cry "no votes from the women." I was beginning to think that the old saying "silence gives consent," and that your silence was the sign that you had been convinced on woman suffrage, but that that is not quiet true with you. You say that women were only made to love and be loved or some way you had it, and not made to vote. Well Democrat, I do not see any reason why women can't love and vote too. I am sure voting will not interfere with their loving their husbands, children and friends, and loving won't interfere with voting, so why can't the women do both?

Pine Knot we surely got you so hot that you just gave a smoke, a blaze and there is no more of you. But I hope that this is untrue and you will soon be back again fighting in the army of the good old Courier for woman suffrage instead of against it.

Thank you Andy Whackum for that compliment if I may take it as one. I was awfully glad to see an old friend back again even if I have never seen you but once. Come again and give your views on what we are discussing, woman suffrage. I don't believe as sensible a man as you would be against us, as the other men are. Write again soon.

T. J. Watson you sure are a good fellow to bring such good convincing power with you when you come. Come again with some still stronger power. I imagine you have already
