HOME HAPPENINGS.

—The —Flowers
—That bloom
—In the spring
—Have decided not —To put in an appearance
—Until the little ground hog comes —Out and is able to see his shadow.
—Mr. Lawhorn is putting a fence around his lot.
—We hope to see the pleasant face of Mr. Ford again.
—Mr. Love, of Wilmington, was in town over Sunday.
—The new railroad to Troy is considerably talked about.
—Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have gone to Charleston, S. C.
—Mr. Armington's family has arrived from New Hampshire.
—The telegraph office has been moved into the Prospect House.
—C. J. Eaglesfield has leased land of Ben Hicks and will go into the brick business at once.
—Mr. and Mrs. Holden have gone to Wilmington for a while. They expect to return in about a month.
—J. S. Bradley, of this place, and Mr. Robeson, of Manly, were out after the birds last Tuesday. It was pretty hot for active exercise but they succeeded in bagging a few.
—A Northern lady writes, "If upon some midnight dreary you find me knocking at your door you may blame the PINE KNOT. It is terribly cold here, such a winter we don't often get."
—A Jay Tefft is publishing the Berwick (Pa.) Independent, a copy of which we have received. It is a nicely printed paper and seems well adapted to meet the wants of the flourishing community in which it is published. We wish it much success.
—Below is the record of temperature for the past week:—

	10 a. m.	4 p. m.
Jan. 29	63°	54°
" 30	55	65
" 31	53	68
Feb. 1	42	68
" 2	63	79
" 3	62	80
" 4	60	48

—Mr. Starke has an opportunity to enter the law office of G. W. Hinsdale in Raleigh and will probably accept. We shall be sorry to have him go.

PROSPERITY.

—W. K. Jackson is having his store and dwelling house painted.

—D. A. McDonald, our clerk, and W. C. Wilcox were in town Monday.

—Farmers are now busily engaged in farm work when the weather will admit.

—There are two insane persons within three miles of this place. One is the wife of M. D. Brady, who was sent to the Asylum at Morganton on the 4th inst. She has been insane for sometime. The other insane person is William Kidd. He is not raving mad, but his family cannot do anything with him. He carries with him all the time sixty yards of factory sheeting, sleeps on it at night and sits on it in the day time, to keep it from being taken from him.

BLUE'S CROSSING.

—Mrs. McKethan is visiting her parents in Cary.

—The PINE KNOT is a welcome visitor at "Lake View" hotel.

—Capt. Lashley is well and at his post again as jolly as ever.

—Miss Mary Page is on a visit to her brother in Brooklyn, N. Y.

—Cool Spring and Hamburg R. R. is doing nicely. No accidents up to date.

—Messrs. Marks & Adams have opened a small but select grocery store.

—Page Lumber Company are sawing about twenty car loads of lumber per week.

—We are pleased to note that at an early day we shall have preaching in our village.

—Miss Glennie Pleasants has returned home from an extended visit to relatives in Louisburg.

—There are quite a number of salesmen passing here. They stop and breakfast at "Lake View."

—Our kind and genial merchant, Mr. N. A. McKethan is operating turpentine very extensively this year.

—We can boast of one street car. It is not patronized to any extent. The driver however finds enough to keep him busy.

—We can also boast of one or two bachelors, one in particular. He was once on the market, but did not get his "Worth."

—We could boast of a great number of extraordinaries and excellencies but will desist.

GAME IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Cor. News and Observer.

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., Jan. 17.

Permit, please, a few words in your columns relative to the advantages and pleasures that may be obtained in this immediate section in the way of "sporting" for birds. I have for many years been in the habit of gunning for various kinds of birds in southern Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware, and want to say to lovers of the pastime, that Moore county, N. C., offers better opportunities for bagging the game than any place with which I am familiar. If any of your readers desire confirmation of the above, let them come to Southern Pines, and I will join them in as fine a day's gunning as they ever enjoyed.

Very Truly Yours,
A. M. CLARKE.
