FAIR HAVEN.

We can't help but hurrah for Moore county Democracy. "I told you so." Some of "us" went 'possum hunting the other night, and got lost. It is still strange the way some 'possum hunters act. But one can very easily get turned around in the night time; the seven stars seem to rise in the south and the moon set in the east! Really, Uncle Boatswain, we thought you knew the woods better than you do. Our farmers are busy sowing wheat. Mr. Kay Watson lost a fine horse at Glenn's Mills a few days ago. Mr. John Kelly, formerly of this county, now of Georgia, is visiting relatives in Moore and Chatham. It is a little singular that we can get the N. Y. World two days after it is published, and it takes the Jonesboro LEADER a week to reach us.

Cameron.

Corn shuckings have been thick and fast, but are about done for this season. We are told that "Old Crutch" and A. Shaw started 'possum hunting just after dinner on Tuesday last, and arrived at home on Wednesday about sundown; the good old lady had to cook some more beef—'possum didn't come worth a cent. One of our bach friends had a good tramp the other night, but not for 'possums. You should keep time better in the future my brother. It seems that tooth brush twigs are getting scarce as two have to use the same one during S. S. hours. Please send us a good rope that will hold a Durham. There is a fine girl baby at the house of Mr. J. R. Yarbrough, and we must fasten him up. Joe is happy, and we propose to call the little girl Joes. Fred Jordan, col. lost his house and contents by fire on last Friday. Origin of the fire not known.

FOREST GLEN.

MR. EDITOR: We would like to hear from grumbler again, but as he remains silent we would like to say a few words. Cotton is now about out, and farmers are generally pleased with the crop, and are now sowing small grain, and everybody seems quite happy. Mr. W. M. Brooks has lost one of his killing hogs, but he is not grumbling, as he has several more. Mr. D. M. Hawley has a new buggy, much to the delight of his son "Will," as Christmas is nearly here. Miss Maggie Brooks has again assembled the children of the neighborhood with a few boarding pupils and now has an interesting school. Miss Mary Hawley, who been spending some time with friends and relatives in Harnett returned home last Monday and reports a pleasant trip. Miss E. Brooks is attending the Teachers' Institute at Carthage this week, and her sister is teaching for her at Broadway. Miss Mattie King, of the Carthage neighborhood, has been spending some time at Mr. W. M. Brooks' Miss Mattie is a charming young lady, and old "Old Uncle Billie" is curious to know why so many of the boys now spend so many of their Sunday evenings at his house. It must be Miss Mattie that is drawing their attention.

Lillington Dots.

JONESBORO, N. C., Nov. 26, 1890.

I have just returned from my first visit to the county seat of Harnett. Arriving there Monday noon I was comfortably quartered at Mrs. F. Mc. Stewart's excellent hotel, and just here I wish to add a word to the many words of praise I heard spoken by the guests while I sojourned there. The table is at all times well supplied and none need go away hungry. Polite, prompt attention is a special feature of the place. I was informed that Mrs. Stewart superintends the culinary department in person, and that fact is sufficient to account for the superior excellency of the food set before us. With neatly furnished rooms, bright, cheerful fires, the place presents at once a cosy, home-like appearance. Long may she live, and abundantly successful may she ever be.

Harnett Superior Court is in session this week, his Honor, Judge Boykin on the bench. The term is for the trial of civil actions, only. I was informed. The visiting lawyers are: Ex-Judge R. P. Buxton, Hon. T. H. Sutton, and Capt. N. W. Ray, of Fayetteville, Mr. W. E. Murchison, of Jonesboro, Messrs. Best and F. P. Jones, of Dunn. There may be others whom I failed to note. No cases of great importance had been decided up to the time of my leaving, Wednesday morning. The attendance was small.

Late Tuesday afternoon a strange noise was heard on the street and investigation showed that it was made by a man. He was reaching about and pawing the air with his hands and when he would lower his voice a little the listeners could hear him calling on somebody to "cuss em." Curse who, yet remains shrouded in mystery. One fellow said that the man was happy, but I'll bet a three-cent piece that he didn't feel much happy early next morning.

A laughable incident occurred one morning at one of the hotels. A gentleman sent a colored porter to a store for a bottle of Jamaica ginger. In a few minutes he returned and sung out, "Here it is, boss." "Here is what?" demanded the gentleman. "Your shoe-maker ginger," returned the darkey.

To my good friends, Hon. D. H. McLean, Mr. D. A. Faucette, Mr. L. B. Chapin and Mr. H. T. Spears, I am indebted for courtesies extended me while in Lillington. There are others of Harnett's good citizens to whom I am indebted, but I mention these specially. Lack of time and space forbids further notes. R. M. P.

BROADWAY.

Our Mr. Watson Watson went to Fayetteville the past week; drove down and back by moonlight. Portable dry goods establishments are as common now as sewing machine agents were a few years ago. Misses Ada C. Kelly and Beulah Perry were visiting here last Saturday and Sunday. Married, at the Methodist parsonage at Concord on the 20th inst., by John N. Lawrence, Esq., Mr. Alex. Thomas to Miss Yarbrough, daughter of David Yarbrough, of Harnett county. Miss Ann Spivy of this place was fearfully burned by falling in the fire from the effects of epilepsy last Saturday morning. Her recovery is thought to be doubtful. Mr. Murchison and Mr. Phillips passed here Monday morning on their way to Lillington. Wonder how that wagon tongue was broken between Jonesboro and this place Saturday last. It is said that there will be a saw mill put up near Chafin in a few days. The machinery at Whistleboro has been taken down and moved away. Our people are talking railroad pretty strong.

Fair Play for Tobacco.

THE high prices of seed wheat, together with the prospect of the next wheat being destroyed by "the flies" are keeping a great many from sowing wheat for next year's crop. Now here comes again the same old question. Is tobacco a more uncertain crop than corn and wheat have proved for the last few years? If the last year had been your first trial at wheat, or if the last three years had been your first experiments with corn, wouldn't you be fully as much disgusted with wheat and corn as you were when your first and second crops of tobacco failed to swell your profits on the farm? Last year you planted corn and cotton with the hope simply that the year would not bring such seasons heretofore as the seasons of the year before, so disastrous to corn and cotton. This year you are sowing half a crop of wheat, caring to take only a little risk on the hope that the coming year will be favorable to wheat. Now why not give tobacco a fair chance, and plant an acre or so with the hope that the coming year may be even as favorable to tobacco as the last two? Certainly corn, wheat and cotton have put in a claim to shame the abuse of "great uncertainty" which whole abuse has been heaped on tobacco.

A Goodly Man has Failed.

There has been a singular fatality among the leading Methodist preachers of North Carolina during the past two years. The latest of that goodly company to pass from labor to refreshment was Rev. Wm. H. Bobbitt, D. D., who had filled many important stations in the Conference, joining the Conference in 1846 at New Bern. There was no man in the Conference more faithful, more gentle, more loving and more loved. He was unambitious and yet he was kept in the Presiding Eldership half of his ministerial life. Honors came to him because he was worthy and faithful. Not brilliant as a preacher, he was earnest, thoughtful winning and instrumental in saving souls. Hundreds will grieve at his death, and linger in pleasant memories over his spotless and useful life. "His deeds smell sweet and blossom in their dust."—State Chronicle.

The following clippings promise more exodus next year.

The notorious "Peg-Leg" Williams was in the city yesterday, and he had his confidential colored exhorter, Silas Herring, dressed up in a new suit of clothes and walking around among the colored people giving out "bills." "Peg-Leg" is here to engage in his wonted work of deceiving the easily deluded negro "out West."—Goldsboro Argus. "Peg-Leg" Williams has again come this way and is scattering his exodus circulars around.—News-Observer.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottle free at Melver & Dalrymple's.

—Itch, mange and scratches, on human or animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by E. P. Snipes & Co., druggists, Jonesboro.

SORGHUM.

The undersigned has a special reputation for making syrup. He has made this season about 1000 gallons. Now has a large amount for sale or barter for other country produce. Call on or address. J. H. HOWARD, Forkale, N. C.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Melver & Dalrymple.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of two years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, O., affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Melver & Dalrymple's.

Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters, so many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the great alternative and tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of the kidneys, liver or stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle at Melver & Dalrymple's.
