COMMUNICATIONS.

GULF.
Gulf has a young man who thinks he needs a boss. Wonder if any of the girls will volunteer their services.
Miss Kate McMackin has returned to Raleigh.

A new industry in Gulf! We saw some of the products on the platform of the depot last Monday, for shipment to Virginia.

Capt. Willcox passed through Gulf Friday evening on his way home. We were very sorry to learn that he has been unwell almost ever since he went to Raleigh.

Gulf is within the bounds of the proposed new county of Burgwyn.
The lives of some of the people who live in this section are so intimately connected with Chatham's history that it seems a great pity to run a county line between here and Pittsboro.

Miss Nannie Roberts, of Farmington Davie Co., who has been spending a few weeks at Carabonton, passed through here on her way home last Friday evening.

Mrs. Wm. A. Hayes is gone on a visit to Guilford College.

Misses Mollie and Mamie Campbell of Pocket, were in town last Sunday.

Mrs. Sue Foushee is visiting relatives and friends in Raleigh this week.
DRUM.

CAMERON.

We have concluded to try you once more; and if we neither see or hear from it any more we will understand that the "bush has been shook," and lay the pencil down, go fishing, or flee to the mountains of Hepzidam. I tell you MR. ED. when a fellow almost busts himself trying to write up something big for the LEADER and it perishes by the wayside, or in the waste basket, he does not feel just like "Sut Loveingood" did when he had his arm around Sal.

There is nothing happening of importance in our midst. Don't think there is even any courting going on, if there is, it certainly is kept "under the bushel." We asked one of our best young girls the other night what had got wrong with her and her fellow (who was sitting on the opposite side of the room). She very flatly replied, "I'm in our business" for which, (could we have believed it) we would have felt devoutly thankful.

We can't bet on Alec any more as a rabbit hunter, when the "critter" will go nearly to his door, crouch for more than half one of these long nights, and he not attempt to make a shot, it seems that he must think the cotton-tail is getting poor.

Sociables are on the increase and very popular just now, we are reliably informed that some of the old men have been seen at them, some of them so old and decrepit, that they were compelled to use a "Crutch." Our "old hen," who is getting a little gray, says shame! shame!! on such men. So say we all.

Mr. T. J. Hornaday is doing up our section, making pictures; we think the people are generally pleased with his work.

We learn that our friend Malcom McNeill begins his school in our little town tomorrow.

Miss Amanda McPherson attended the marriage of her cousin, Miss Mollie McLeod, in Carthage on last Thursday.
Tell "Sam Bows" to please rake around and keep the itch until our nails recover from their recent wear.

Now Bob you just throw this in the waste basket, and I will come down there and turn over the tables of the printers, cast out those that fill the basket, and turn the house into—well I'll tell you when I get there.

[We are glad to hear from you. Not a single letter of yours has ever entered the waste basket in this office. Write again.—BOB]

Humorous.

Why don't they build mills on the Mississippi river?
Why dam it they can't!

A Williamsport girl, who in the matter of beauty and affectionate exuberance was not to say "fresh as first rose and rosy as the dawn," was asked why she did not get married, and this is what she said in reply: "I have no considerable money of my own. I have a parrot that can swear, and a monkey that chews tobacco, so that I have no need of a husband."

Tramp—"Madam, will you please give me something to eat?"

Lady—"Yes, I will give you something if you will work for it."

"Certainly, madam, I will be pleased to work for you in the line of my trade."

"What is your trade?"

"Grave digger, madam."—Texas Siftings.

A middle-aged man whose accent denoted that he was a German, occupied a seat in the street car. An enthusiast in distributing religious pamphlets and circulars, handed him a tract to read. The head lines asked, "Why am I not a Christian?" The Teuton replied, "Dot ish your bee-ness, nod mine. I doan know vy you vas nod a Gristian. May be der Defel vas had you already. Dod ish noding to be proud of. You had bedder shoin some shurches already and leaf off mit der Defel." When the distributor recovered from his surprise he meekly stammered back: My friend are you a christian? "Yaw," replied the placid, imperturbable foreigner, "I am a Gristian, what vas you?" The tract man gathered his papers and hurriedly left the car.—Charlotte Chronicle.

"You have taken a severe cold," said the old family doctor, "and it seems to have settled in your throat."

"Yes, doctor, you see I can hardly speak," said the patient, a vivacious, bright-eyed young woman.

"Can you stand heroic treatment, do you think?" asked the doctor.

"Try me!"

"Are you sure?"

"Yes, anything you like; medicine, mustard, plasters, electricity, anything!" she said in a breath.

"And you want to get back your voice?"

"Yes."

"It's heroic treatment, mind you."

"All right—what is it?"

"You musn't talk at all for two days."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

General News.

The cost of the grounds and building for the new Baltimore post-office are $1,910,000.

On Monday the 2d inst., a bill to appropriate $30,000 for the enlargement of the public building at Greensboro, N. C. was introduced in the Senate by Mr. Ransom.

Odetta Tyler, the actress, who is Bessie Kirkland at her home in Nashville, is a niece of General Hardee.
General Kirkland, her father, is a West Point graduate, and made a fine record in the Confederate army.

The Farmers' Alliance Manufacturing Company, of Durham, has been sending out first-class plug tobacco.
Some of their brands have become great favorites. The capital stock has been increased to ten thousand dollars.

The track of the Georgia, Carolina & Northern Railroad has been laid across the Savannah River, and track-laying is progressing on the Georgia side towards Atlanta. Trains will soon run clear through from Monroe to Pittsburg, Ga., near the confluence of the Broad and Savannah rivers.

Waite Martin, colored, on Monday confessed to the murder of Alice McLeod in Columbia S. C., who mysteriously disappeared ten days ago.
Heretofore he has denied all knowledge of the woman's whereabouts. Thursday the body of the woman was found in the river, and when Martin was informed of this fact, he weakened. He confessed that he choked her to death in a fit of rage, tied rocks to her body, kissed her cold lips and pushed her into the river.—Ex.

Edward Bonquest, son of a wealthy London banker, was bitten on the leg by a rattlesnake in Florida, on Monday last while hunting, and is beyond hope of recovery. Evelyn Walker, his companion and friend, carried him on his shoulder to Dayton, meanwhile endeavors were made to suck the poison from the wound. It appears that Walker had a sore on his lip and absorbed some of the poison. He became partially paralyzed, but at a late hour last night he was considered out of danger.

There is one woman in the world to whom the stage does not present its wonderful irresistible charm. Ida Lewis, the celebrated life-saver, has declined a very profitable offer from a theatrical manager, preferring to keep aglow the beacon light in her snug retreat on "Little Rhody's" rock-bound coast.
North Carolina's "Ida Lewis," Miss Kate Stuart, whose skill in natation has saved several persons from drowning, passes a quiet, contented life as proprietress of a boarding house at Southport—unmarried, though she is a very handsome woman.—Fayetteville Observer.

Drowned in a Mine.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 4.—Seventeen miners were drowned in a mine at Jamesville to-day. The mine was known as Sloop No. 10, operated by J.
C. Hayden & Co. This working is situated immediately under the old workings known as No. 8, worked out some five years ago and filled with water. The disaster due to the drilling of a hole through a pillar which liberated the immense body of water confined in the old workings, which flooded the new, drowning all the men in that portion of the mine.—Wilmington Messenger.

The Hecla Iron Works Burned.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Fire broke out last night in the Hecla iron works in Brooklyn, which took every engine in the city until daylight to get under control. Not only were the large buildings of the iron company destroyed, but a number of surrounding street-ures were seriously damaged. The losses were very large. This is the second fire the Hecla works have suffered from within two years, and all the patterns recently produced constitute the greatest loss.

Five hundred thousand dollars will not cover the loss. Most of this is, however, covered by insurance.—Wilmington Messenger.
